THE NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

Thomas J. Cush, one of the Homestead men arrested for treason, was released from jail yesterday on habeas corpus proceedings before Judge McClung. Cush had been arrested as Dennis M. Cush, alias Michael Cush. It turned out that Dennis Michael Cush, a brother of the man arrested, was the man that was wanted. Attorney Brennen represented the petitioner and E. G. Breek appeared for the Carnegie Company. Several witnesses, including David Cush, another brother, William Perry, Michael J. Tierney, Patrick Cosgrave and John Miller. were examined. All of them knew Cush from 6 to 15 years and never knew him to go by the name of Dennis or Michael Cush.

Mr. Breck, in his cross-examination, attempted to connect the prisoner with the Advisory Committee, but none of the witnesses had ever known of him acting with Judge McClung then discharged Mr.

Immediately after the completion of the hearing on the petition for Cush's release an incident, occurred that might have resulted in the imprisonment of Constable arrest. Judge McClung replied that it was a great risk for an officer to undertake to make an arrest in the court room. It was something he would not allow.

Mr. Miller's application to be admitted to bail was then heard. He was released on $10,000 bail, Michael J. Tierney, William Perry, John Lowry and Nicholas Schwartz raing on the hord.

MR. ARBUTHNOI'S WILL.

Disposition of the Large Estate of the Deceased Merchapt.

was filed in the Register's office yesterday.

It is dated March 1, 1892, and makes disposition of the estate of deceased as follows: To his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Arbuthnot, is given the homestead in the Twentieth ward, containing about seven acres, and all personal articles of household use or crnament.

Besides this, an annuity of $5,000 is to be

To his daughter Elizabeth, wife of J. R. McClintock, Mr. Arbuthnot bequeathed the sum of $50,000. From this, however, is to be taken the sumof $21,935, advanced at different dates. To his daughter Sallie N., $50,000 is also given. To the three sons, Charles, Wilson S. and Alexander, is given the warehouse at Nos. 719-721 Liberty avenue, in fee simple, share and share alike. To each of these sons is also given a bequest of $10,000. To his son, Thomas S., the sum of $50,000 is given. To his nephew, Charles Hannah, Mr. Arbuthoot gives in tee simple gheny. To Isabelie Hannah, Mr. Arbuth-not's sister, is given the house at No. 30 Resacs street, Aliegheny, for life.

The executors are directed to keep under their control the warehouse at Nos. 801, 803, 805, 807 and 809 Penn avenue for 15 years after the death of Mr. Arbuthnot. They shall lesse the property during that time and dispose of the income in the payment of the $5,000 per annum to his wife, and if there shall be a remainder it is to be equally divided among the children above named. It, at the end of 15 years, Mrs. Arbuthnot be not living, the property is to be sold and the proceeds divided among the children named above. If, at the end of 15 years, Mrs. Arbuthnot is still alice the account.

Mrs. Arbothnot is still alive, the executors shall continue to hold the property so long as she shall live, but upon her decease it is to be sold. The residue of the estate, real and personal, is directed to be divided among the children above named.

Mills. The latter stepped up to John Miller, one of Cush's witnesses, and said: "I have a warrant for you," and started to lead him away.
"Hold on," said Attorney Brennen, "you can't arrest that man in the court room, besides it is not necessary. He has bail here and will apply to the court to be released." When Attorney Breck heard what was going on, he caught Milis by the arm and said: "Don't you know better than that? Sit down here and behave yourself or you will go to jail." Mr. Breck, realizing the mistake Mills had made, reported the matter to Judge McClung himsel: and stated that he had prevented the constable from making the
