The League Record

NEW YORK, Oct. 9. - Most certainly football is going to be more popular this year, both East and West, than it has ever been before. There will be more players and better ones, and more clubs and better ones, than there ever have been in any previous season. A few pointers about the leading teams will certainly be interesting just After several weeks of hard preparatory playing against the scrub teams, the big college elevens turned out on Wednesday and measured strength with teams from other universities. The scores averaged smaller than was expected, and in one or two games the showing made by the smaller teams was excellent.

Notably so was the game put up by Weslyan, who kept the Yale team from scoring until the last part of the last half, when C. Bliss ran around the left end for a touchdown from which Graves kicked a goal.

Wesleyan sent down a heavy team, and the men showed that they had been well coached. They played havoc with the Yale line and their interference was very fair. The smallness of the score, however, was perhaps due to the ragged work of the Yale men and to the fact that several experiments were tried by Captain McCormick. Weslevan Has Good Material.

Wesleyan has plenty of good material, and with proper coaching and training will undoubtedly be able to go through the season with few bad deteats. Indeed, the coming season promises to be closer than it has been for many years, and the smaller college teams may be able to hold their own better than before.

Lake and Emmons, of Harvard, were on hand to watch the play of the Yale team, hand to watch the play of the Yale team, and they did not seem to attempt to conceal their pleasure at the fumbles made by their old time rivals.

The weakest apots in the Yale eleven seemed to be at tackles and guards, and the services of Morrison and Hefflefinger will be sadly missed. Cross, a big freshman, was tried at right guard for Yale, but Cutte had little trouble in holding or passing him. Beard who took Cross' place did no better and both men showed that they needed much coaching.

Hall, one of Wesleyan's crack players, has decided to return to college, and he will do much to strengthen the rush line.

The system of scoring and bulletining, introduced by Secretary C. H. Ebbets, of the Brooklyn Ciub, last year, will again be a feature of the games at Eastern Park. By following this plan all the spectators, even though they be unacquainted with the players and details of play, can keep posted as to the progress of the game at all times.

A Few Words About Harvard.

lowing this plan all the spectators, even though they be unacquainted with the players and details of play, can keep posted as to the progress of the game at all times.

A Few Words About Harvard.

Harvard's first outside opponent this year was the Exeter School team, and the fact that the crimson made such a good showing was principally due to the fact that the school boys put up a very weak game.

The Exeter boys were outclassed at all points, and the Harvard men broke through their line and ran around their ends at will. The final score was: Harvard, 62; Exeter, 0.

What Harvard needs is team work. One cannot ask for better physical material than that with which the Crimson team begins the scason with. Yet a smaller eleven from Yale has time and sagain "made monkeys" of their heavier rivals.

Cumpock's champion team was the best.

Cumnock's champlon team was the best that Harvard has shown for a long time, but even then Yale would probably have won had it not been for an unlucky stumble which allowed Jim Long to pass the endand makes a toophican.

which allowed Jim Long to pass the end and make a touchdown.

It may be that too many coaches will spoil a promising eleven and in the past Harvard has been surrounded by a host of well meaning advisers who mixed the men up. This year it is said that Captain Trafford will be given sole charge of the team, and will accept only such suggestions as he area, fit.

Princeton promises to be strong this year, although they did not show up extremely well against Lebigh. The Princetons, how-ever, will have some good men when they get thoroughly into condition.

Louisville Wins Again.

Louisville, Oct. 9 .- Louisville and Cincinnati played two games to-day, Louisville winning the first by hitting Sullivan at the right time. The batting of Taylor and Mer ritt was the feature. The second game was called on account of darkness at the end of the fifth inning, with the score a tie. Weather fair. Attendance, 2,500. Score: FIRST GAME.

To-Day's League Schedule. Cleveland at Pittsburg, Chicago at Cin cinnati, Louisville at St. Louis, Washington at Philadelphia.

To-day the last local series of ball games for this season will begin. The pennant will play to-day and to-morrow, if all goes well. They have proven themselves to be a wonderful team and are accedit to the West-ern division of the League. It is likely that the pitchers will be Baldwin and Cuppy.

ANOTHER ROMANCE.

That Story About Putting Star Players In the New York Team. New York, Oct. 9.—[Special.]—The latest notice from the realms of baseball is that there is a scheme afloat to transfer Ward, Richardson, Duffy, Lowe and other tip-toppers to the New York club for the purpose of making the latter strong, thereby drawing crowde and swelling the coffers of the, at present, unhappy magnates. Desperate cases present, unhappy magnates. Desperate cases require desperate remedies, they say, and the Giants must be Giants in reality as well as in print, or all is lost.

The team that represents this great and glorious city must be able to win the series from every other club, to shut out its opponents whenever so desired, to lead all others in club and individual batting, fielding and base running, in fact never lose a game except as an encouragement to the li little clubs dependent on our existence. All this must be or baseball will go to the dogs. All baseball roads lead to New York. New York is the planet around which the 11 satellites revolve.

From the fact that New York was beaten, and beaten easily, by Boston Saturday, it is apparent that this wondrous scheme is not to go into effect until next year. Then just look out.

The Diamond.

ALL the local players will leave for their homenext week. MANAGER BUCKENBERGER will remain in this city during the winter. IF our sluggers can beat the Cieveland wonders DANNY RICHARDSON is trying out a few Penn sylvania League players. Ball players will have awful tales of woe to tell turing the winter months. THE local club management will try and sign two or three first-class players during the winter.

JOHN M. WARD in a New York uniform is a '93 probability. Danny Richardson's return is also MANAGER JOE GERHARDT, of the Albany team, has been presented with a handsome gold watch charm by a number of his admirers in Albany in honor of his 84th birthday.

THE Harvard nail team will have two likely candidates next year in Neil Suilivan, of the Ambersts, and Pileber Quirk, of Boston Latin and Boston College fame. Both are attending the law

For a man who is "out of baseball," A. G. Shaiding does love to sip his lemonade with "the old boys" with anarming frequency. The only way to keep him from a League meeting would be to put him la trons. SAM CRANE, the old second baseman, writes:
'The players who appreciate the progress made in the scientific points of the game in the past few years are all in favor of retaining the bint hit.
The flat ball will probably have to go, but not the bunt."

"GEORGIUS MRAKIN seems to have slumped badly at the finish," says the Rochester Hertid, "Meskin was as good a pitcher as ever fingered a ball up to July 16, but continual lushing and other excesses, together with the meanest remover that was ever put in man, killed his usefulness." THE Colonels were paid M. 457 insurance on their burned grandstand. The K. & I. Bridge Company has offered to build new stands and present them to the club if they will simply locate on their line. If Al Johnson and the Chevelanders get in here with their rapid transit road they will make it an object for the Cincinnati club to move into a new home on their route.

AN official of the Brooklyn club is quoted as saying: "Give us Rusic and we'll beat any club in the League easily. Why, every opposing team is beaten before the game begins when he pitches," Rusic has no terrors for the Boston team. He has won but one or two games from Boston for several seasons. There is no pitcher in the League against whom the Bostons go with more confidence than Rusic.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9 .- [Special.]-Peter Mahe has accepted the offer of the Coney Island Athletic Club to fight Joe Goddard for a purse of $5,000. Dave Holland, his backer, thinks the offer is a very good one, and in order to make the match he will bet God dard $2,000 on the outside. If the match is made and decided at the Coney Island Athletic Club, the club will offer a purse of $10,000 for a match between the winner and Peter Jackson.

Miscellaneous Sporting Notes. FOOTBALL is now all the rage East and West.

JACK RONAN, the heavy hitting welter weight, of the Star Ath etic Club, and Christy McManus, of the National Athietic Cuib, have been matched for a six-round go, to take piace at the tourney of the Columbia Athietic Club, on October 25. FREDERICK STEARNS, who has been in New York since the A. A. U. championship, was asked the other day if the Detroit Athletic Club was to lose Trainer Mike Murphy. He was very much surprised at the question, and replied: "No, of course not."

It is not thought likely that there will be any changes of importance in the list of officials of the A. A. U. when that organization holds its annual meeting early next mon'h. There was some talk of F. K. Sterns of Detroit, succeeding Howard Perry, but Mr. Sterns says he does not aspire to the office, besides everybody seems to be satisfied with Mr. Perry's administration. with Mr. Perry's administration.
