STORIES OF PARENTAL QUARRELS

BOSTON, Oct. 10 .- The Boston Globe this movning publishes a thirteen-column story from Fall River, setting forth in detail new and startling evidence for the prosecution in the Borden murder cases, which it says, is in the hands of the police and is to be given by twenty-five new witnesses, who will testify at the coming trial of Miss Borden. The evidence, the Globe states, is forthcoming from people, all of whom stand high in the communities where they live and who could have no motive for speaking malicionaly or untruthfully of the defendant. Briefly stated, the new evidence, according to the Globe, is as follows: John H. Murphy, of Fall River, will testify that he was on the sidewalk close to the Borden house when Mr. Borden entered his house about 10:40 on August 4, and he saw him a minute or two later ushered into the lobby by Bridget Sullivan. Mr. Murphy will swear, that while Mr. Borden was walking in the yard, he saw a window blind of the room, in which Mrs. Borden's body was found, cautiously opened by a body was found, cantiously opened by a young woman who had that same morning told him, when he called at the Borden house about 6:30 o'clock, that "her father had gone down town and wouldn't be back till noon or later." This woman he had identified as the defendaut, Lizzie Borden. The window Mr. Murphy designates, as the one in which he saw Miss Lizzie, is so situ-ated the cho must have been studing ortaated that she must have been standing over the mutilated remains of her mother at the very time her father was about to enter the

Saw Lizzie at the Window.

The next witness of importance is Mrs. Gustav Ronald, of Pawtucket, R. L., who was a guest at the Wilbur House. About 9:40 o'clock on the morning of the murder, she was wheeling her baby carriage near the Borden house when she heard a terrible cry or groan. She looked up at the Borden house and saw in a room, through a par-tially open window, a woman, whose head was in part covered by a rubber cap or hood, whose face she saw plainly as the distance was short. This window she has designated the same as the one pointed out by Mr. Murphy. Mrs. Ronald was aimost that minute approached by Mr. Peter Mahany, of Fall River. He likewise had heard the groan, seen the woman at the The next witness of importance is Mrs.

Mahany, of Fall River. He likewise had heard the groan, seen the woman at the window, who wore the peculiar head cover-ing and recognized her as the younger daughter of the Borden family, all members of which he knew quite well by sight. Augustus Gunning, at that time a lodger in Mrs. Churchill's house, is said to have seen Lizzie Borden in the window at the same time and under the same circum-stances. These witnesses, the Globe says, fix Miss Borden at her mother's side almost at the minute when she probably was killed at the minute when she probably was killed and when Miss Lizzie, according to her own statement, was elsewhere,

Heard the Quarrel With Lizzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Chase, of Fall River, and Mrs. Abigail Manchester, their daughter, were friends of the elder Bordens and visited them on the evening previous to the murder. They overheard, it is stated, a quarrel between Lizzie and her father. All heard Mr. Borden say: "You can make you own choice and do it to-night. Either let us know what his name is or take the door on Saturday; and, when you go, fish for some other place to live, as I will never listen to you again. I will know the name of the man who got you into trouble."

Lizzie is said to have replied: "If I

Miss Borden has made many friends, also, because of the broad publication of indelicate matters which were purposely suppressed in the preliminary bearing. In the published story there were many need-less inaccuracies and some new facts. These, together with some feeling of indignation, have prompted some local men to tell what they were asked to suppress.

everything will be kept from the outside world." When the visitors were announced and conversed with Mr. and Mrs. Borden on the subject of the quarrel, Mr. Borden said: "I would rather see her dead than have it come out." Mr. G. Romain Pittson, a wealthy dealer in machinery supplies, has made an affidavit that a few days prior to the murder Mr. Borden consulted him as a friend about Lizzie, whose trouble he related in detail. Mrs. George J. Sisson, of Fall River, is said to have heard Lizzie say to Bridget Sullivan, the hired girl: "Why don't you say how much money you want to keep quiet?" Bridget's answer was: "I don't know what you mean, but you are not the girl I took you to be."

Bridget Also Heard the Quarrel.

Mr. George Sisson, it is said, will swear that less than a month before the murder Mr. Borden told him he had made a will giving Emma and Lizzie $25,000 cash, was more than he would have allowed them but for his wife's intercession. Bridget Sullivan will, it is claimed, corroborate the story of the quarrel between Mr. Borden and Lizzie; also that she heard the night before the murders, Morse and Lizzie talking about a will; also, that on the afternoon of the day of the murder, Lizzie whispered to her: "Keep your tongue still and don't talk to these officers, and you can have all the money you want."

Detective McHenry and his wife will, it is said, give important evidence which re-lates in part to the story of the row between Lizzie and Emma Borden in the matron's room, in which the former accused the lat-ter of having "given her away." This tale, it is said, will be corroborated by the Me-Henrys, who overheard and saw the affair through a hole in the wall especially pro-vided by the authorities. It is claimed that in this quarrel Lizzie kicked Emma several times in the leg. Mr. Frank Burroughs, a lawyer of New York, formerly of Fall River, is said to be the attorney consulted by Lizzie Borden about the property rights in a father's es-tate, should a stepmother die first. He is said to have made a statement to Mr. Me-Henry and manifested a willingness to testify.

Says It Is a Tissue of Lies.

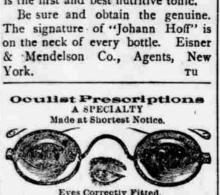

Matron Reagan will, it is alleged, tell the story of the quarrel between the girls, and Mrs. Hannah Fish, of Hartford, George F. Revere, at Somerset, Minnie C. Wilson, of Fall River, Detective Hathaway, of Fall River and two others will give further testimony for the Government.

Andrew J. Jennings, counsel for the de-fendant in the Borden murder cases, made the following statement to an Associated Press correspondent to-day: "The matter published in a Boston paper this morning relating to the murders of Andrew J. Borden and his wife is a tissue of lies. I have endeavored to find out about Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase at the number indicated (198 Fourth street, Fall River). There is not only no such number, but not any within 50 of it. There is no such name as George F. Sisson in the directory, nor can I find any person who knows anybody of that name. "The kernel of the whole malicious story "The kernel of the whole malicious story deals with a condition which is absolutely disproved by things found in the cellar by the prosecution and admitted to be what Miss Lizzle claimed they were. Subsequent events have confirmed her claim. Mr. Morse says that the whole story is abso-lutely false—not a word of truth in it. The Reagan story has already been denied by Miss Emma and Miss Lizzle and was ad-naitted by Mrs. Reagan to be false to at least six persons."

Jeast six persons." A member of the police force said that the names used in the story are fictitious, but the matter is substantially true.

but the matter is substantially true. The manifest breach of faith on the part of certain officiers connected with the Bor-den murder cases, by which certain evidence has been given to the public, has created anger in nearly all circles here, more par-ticularly among the small coterie of local newspaper men who have been favored with the confidence of the authorities with
