THE EASIEST YET.

the Clevelands to decide the tie game of Tuesday, But the Forest City fellows were not there. According to their declaration Tuesday evening they had left for home, Umpire Gaffney and the local team were on the grounds. There were about 50 people present, and after Ehret had pitched three balls across the plate Umpire Gaffuey gave the game to the local team, 9 to 0. There will be no dispute about the decision of the umpire, but the local club intends to try and enforce a fine of $1,000 on the Cleveland club for their team failing to show up. The rules are not very definite on this point. The Cleveland officials claim that they cannot be fined and Manager Buckenberger claims they can. The absence of the team lost the home club $1,000 at least, and if the Clevelands had stopped here the players would have lost a benefit at home. It is likely that an effort will be made to have the team fined, although the Washington club has not yet been fined for leaving the field here.

The victory yesterday puts the local team once more into third place and they will have to hustle to keep it. Last evening the team left for Cincinnati, where they will play to-day and Saturday. Baldwin will likely pitch to-day.

Umpire Gaffney, before going to the grounds, was very undecided as to what course to pursue. The Cleveland club course to pursue. The Cleveland club had wired him that the team could not play to play to-day. The umpire looked up the railroad schedule and found that the Cleve-lands could have played here yesterday and be in Louisville on time to-day. He, there-fore, resolved to give the game to Pittsburg.

Louisville, 11-St. Louis, 2,

Sr. Louis, Oct. 12.-The Louisvilles won the two games from St. Louis to-day, but only one of them counts in the championship race. The first game was the championship one. The Browns were every way outplayed, and the loss of the game was supplemented by their loss of the great catcher Dick Buck-ley, whose right forearm was broken in a collision at the plate with Brown. A sur-geon who happened to be present examined his arm and pronounced it broken in two places. Attendance, 400. Score:

Vondy and the Bunt.

St. Louis, Get. 12 .- [Special]-"I think that the bunt, or specifice hit, will be abolished next season," says President Von der Ahe. "While it is a scientific play and appreciated by those who admire the fine points of the gaine, the public at large does not want it. What they want to see is lively hard hitting, and plenty of it. I have seen even as popular a player as Latham, one of the first and best of sacrifice hitters, hissed because he bunted the ball, sacrificed and got a man to second. In every city in the League the patrons object to the bunt hit. As the public does not want it, why should we force it on them any more than a the atrical manager should try to make them stomach a play they don't want?"

A Good Game.

Had a Soft Snap. FRANKLIN, Oct. 12.-The Franklin baseball team had a soft snap with Cochranton today. Ewing, who has heretofore proved somewhat of a puzzler to them, was taken out of the box at the end of the fixh inning.
The game was called at the end of the seventh inning on account of darkness.

Pfeffer Done for the Seas

Sr. Louis, Oct. 12.—[Special.] — Captain Fred Pfeffer left for Louisville to-night and will play no more ball this season. He exbut his leg pained him so badly that he was compelled to quit. Manager Chapman de-nies that there is any triction in the club nanagement and says everything is harmonious in Louisville's ranks.

Will Double Up Saturday. WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—[Special.]—Permission has been given the Boston and Washington clubs to play two games here Saturday afternoon instead of one, Friday afternoon, as scheduled.

Princeton College football representatives are balled to meet the Columbia Athletic Club football men Friday afternoon and the programme was changed accordingly.

The Giants and Bridegrooms

New York, Oct. 12.—[Special.]—The New Yorks and Brooklyns will probably meet at the conclusion of the championship season in a series of games for the local champion-ship. In the two series each team has won and lost seven games with the other.

SOUTHSIDE-All bets on tie game are off. BALDWIN will likely face the Reds to-day, THE local team left for Cincinnati last evening. ONCE more the home sluggers are fairly into

THE Cleveland team cannot, according to rule be fined for not playing yesterday. IF our sluggers win to-day and the Brooklyn-lose we are sure to land in third place. HUTCHISON is making a strong finish, and he and Miller will pitch the season out for Uncle

It is given out that Pitcher Abbev will not be retained by the Washington club next year because PAUL RADFORD is one of the three players Washington did not "release," He has demonstrated his worth this year.

LOUISVILLE received $132 for three games on the last Eastern trip, two in New York and one in Baltimore, or an average of $44 per game. GREAT SCOTT! Just think of this. A Louisville paper says that Tom Brown offers to give any Louisville sprinter 50 yards start in 250 yards. MANAGER BUCKENBERGER says that according to the League constitution the Cleveland Club can be fined $1,000 for refusing to play the local team

ABTHUR CLARKSON, who pitched such a masterly game for the Bostons against the New Yorks last Saturday, was released by New York last spring as no good.

THERE are indications that after all there will be but eight clubs in the lengue next year. That 12-ciub resolution adopted at the league meeting last week had a string to it. SAM Wise proved a most useful man to the Bing-hamtons, and his batting and fielding after he joined the team helped them greatly in winning the Eastern League pennant.

ALL pitchers could with profit study the habits and practices of Pitcher Nichols, of Boston. There is a pitcher shat, accidents excepted, is always in shape to pitch good ball.—Providence Journal. BASEBALL —If you bet on Tuesday's l'ittsburg and Cleveland game your bet was a draw and had nothing to do with yesterday's forfeited game whatever. The two games are distinct as far as

INSTEAD of releasing the players, as did the St., ouis, Louisville and Washington clubs, the Pitts-Louis, Louisville and Washington clubs, the Pitts-burg directors called their men together and asked them if they would consent to have their contracts expire October 15. To a man the players agreed to do this, and furthermore said they were giad of an opportunity to help the directors out of any finan-cial troubles.—Boston Globe.

JAMES J.'S LATEST.

He Won't Meet Fitzsimmons and Still Talks About Charley Mitchell.

SCRANTON, Oc . 12-James J. Corbett, when questioned here to-day about the statement that Fitzsimmons has said that he wants to meet the champion, answered that he would not discuss the man, as Fitzsimmons is not in his class, Neither would be discuss Goddard and his manifesto, for he has no claim upon the championship in any way.
"When I get ready to fight," said Corbett "I will put up my money and dare Mitchell to cover it; if he does not, then I will meet any man in the world, Jackson preferred.

Barring myself, I believe Jackson to be the best man above ground. I think that I can lick him and believe that I fairly did so when I met him before."

he does he doesn't need money for a forfeit

YALE'S BAD LUCK.

Cross and Coxe Will Be Unable to Play on the Football Team. NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 12.-Ill-fortun seems to follow in the wake of the Yale foot-ball eleven. It is now assured that two more promising candidates for the 'varsity team will be obliged to discontinue practice during the remainder of the present season. They are Cross and Coxe.

Cross is the freshman from the Groton school, who has been playing such a plucky game at right guard that his chances were considered of the best for dropping into that considered of the best for dropping into that position, before the championship rames. His father is opposed to the game as played at colleges, and has absolutely forbidden his son to take part in the contest at Yale. Coxe has played but three days this year. He and Cochrane were having a pretty race for the vacant position of right end rush, with the chances slightly in Coxe's favor, when he injured his neck last week, and it has grown worse ever since. The physician in attendance savs the wrench is too severe to admit of his playing any more this year.

Wallace, '89, arrived Monday and coached the team that alternoon, giving special attention to the ends. The feature of the practice the past two or three days has been the clever work done by Jenkins, a junior. Who received his preliminary training at Harvard. Offended at the Attitude of the Press in the World's Fair Town.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge will not deliver the dedicatory oration at the World's Fair inauguration next Thursday. In the telegram to-day to President T. W. Palmer, of the National Commission, he positively declined.

"This decision on the part of Mr. Breckinridge was based largely. A DASTARDLY TRICK A Pacing Horse Poisoned to Death to Rob the Public. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12-One of the most fingrant cases of attempted swindling that has ever been tried at a trotting meeting in this vicinity was exposed to-day at Point Breeze by the death on the race track of the docred horse. Two heats in the 2:22 pacing class were paced yesterday and the gelding Grover S, the property of William Shanley, the proprietor of the Lewis House at Binghamton, N. Y., was a hot favorite in the betting. Grover S won one heat yesterday and captured the first heat to-day putting two to his credit. When the horse went away from the pole in the second heat this afternoon he had nearly reached the first quarter when he suddenly fell and when the judges reached the place where he lay the animal was dead. Suspicion was immediately directed to Shanley and Joseph A. Lyman, the driver of the horse. Both men denied having given the horse anything, but a veterinarian who the horse anything, but a veterinarian who was present made a hurriet autopsy of the animal's stomach and found traces of poison. After a brief consultation, the judges expelled Shanley and Lyman from the tracks of the association forever.

Roll Hollister, a produce dealer of Binghamton, and a triend of Shanley's was also expelled as an accessory. If Grover S had only been stupified by the drug instead of being killed, and had lost tife heat, Shanley and his triends would have won between $4,000 and $5,000.

The second division of the 2:29 trotting class was won by Kitty Frazier, and the 2:35 class was unfinished. The "summaries follow:

A DRIVERS' ORGANIZATION.

The Pilots of Trotting Horses Combine Protect Their Interests. LEXINGTON, Oct. 12.-[Special.]-The National Drivers' Association was organized here Monday night, adjourning at mid-night. Charles Marvin was elected President and Crit Davis Vice President. Other officers will be elected by a Board of Gover-nors. By-laws and constitution were *The Drivers' Association is expected to be one of the most beneficial movements ever inaugurated among the trotting horse men of the country. The idea is that the association will embrace in its member-ship every respectable driver in the United States and Canada. The objects of the association have not been fully defined, but from interviews with leading drivers it is learned that many of the abuses suffered by drivers at present will be corrected in so far as concerted action on their part will correct. They want more competent men in the judges' stand, and they want starters who will be sufficiently competent to get the horses off on as nearly even terms as possible. They want the right of a fair and open trial when charged with trand, finally, they want to elevate the profession to that standard which its merits warrant.

Ryland T Wins the Free-for-All Trot After Five Good Heats.

LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 12.-About 7,000 peopl witnessed the sport at the track of the Ken-tucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association to-day. You may remember that you put into my parlor over three years ago one of your Con-over planos and tested it side by side with partor over three years ago one of your conover pianos and tested it side by side with one of the highest-priced instruments made.
On the basis of that test I purchased the Conover piano. That decision has been fully justified by nearly four years use of the instrument. The points which commend this piano to careful purchasers are these:
1. Its purity and sweetness of tone. 2. Its combination of power with sweetness. 3.
Its fine mechanical adjustment of keys for ease and precision of execution. 4. Its capacity for remaining long in tune. Only an instrument of first-class make will stand this test. 5. The excellence of its frame, resisting even Pittsburg's and Allegheny's trying gas fires. This helps to account for the length of time it will remain in tune.
