

A PURITAN SUNDAY

With Neither Street Cars, Railroad Trains Nor Sunday Newspapers

WANTED BY A COMMITTEE

Who Will Report to the Council of Congregational Churches.

A CHRISTIAN UNION MOVEMENT.

Old Prejudices Passing Away. Even Those Against Catholics.

DR. A. H. QUINT ELECTED MODERATOR

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—An event of considerable importance in the religious world was the triennial conference of the National Council of Congregational Churches, which was called to order this morning by President Northrup.

In his address of welcome, Rev. George H. Wells, pastor of Plymouth Church, spoke of the great conventions which had been held in Minneapolis. The meeting of the American Board, the great National Convention of the Republican party which has assembled in Minneapolis this year to nominate, as it did, the two men who were to be, as he said amid applause, the President and Vice President of the United States; the vast throng of Christian Endeavorers who held their great convention in Minneapolis, and, last but not least, he welcomed the National Council of the Congregational Church of America.

President Northrup announced the Committee on Nominations and nominations for Moderator were then called for. But no name was made, that of Rev. Dr. A. H. Quint, of Boston. The election was practically unanimous.

Secretary Prejudices Passing Away.

"We stand in the grave of the buried prejudices," said the Moderator-elect, and then he gave in terse words a plan and earnest address, urging the burial of all past difficulties. He spoke of the unity of the church, the need of the most careful deliberation on the part of the Council, and the promise that this would be the most important meeting in the history of the Congregational Church.

The Council then proceeded to the election of Assistant Moderators, resulting in the choice of Congressman B. M. Cutcheon, of Michigan, as first assistant, and Rev. George C. Love (colored), of South Carolina, as the second. Registrars and committees were also appointed.

There was quite a lively fight over the election of Assistant Moderators, and considerable interest attached to the hearing, which was conducted under the old-fashioned way, the Australian system not having found its way into the Congregational Church.

In the afternoon various reports were taken up. The report of the Provisional Committee elicited some discussion over the point as to whether the committee really did recommend that the Council should recommend that the churches pay the expenses of the delegates.

Missionaries to Be Honorary Members. The committee, it was developed, did not really recommend any such action, but called the attention of the council to it. It was moved that by-law No. 3 of the constitution be amended so that the members of the American Board be made honorary members of the council. An amendment to include all missionaries of the American Board in this category was voted down and the American Board action was carried.

In the evening a large congregation assembled to listen to the sermon of the conference, delivered by Rev. Charles M. Lanson, of St. Johnsbury, Vt. Mr. Lanson took as his text from St. Matthew xxviii, 8: "One you Master, even Christ, and all ye are brethren." His careful theme was the unity of the church, and the influence of Christian unity and the brotherhood of man.

The American Home Missionary report as a special section on the responsibilities of the Home Missionary Society, and the mission of the church in the world, was read and approved. Christian unity is the subject of an important report. The growing interest in the cause of Christian unity is noted as one of the most manifest and most auspicious signs of the times.

No Boycott on the Catholics. The promotion of Christian unity must begin from within. The Roman Catholic who is recognized as a branch of the Church of Christ, and the report welcomes the opportunity to cooperate with its members, clergy or laity, in the advancement of the cause of Christian truth and Christian unity. The attitude of the Episcopal Church coming forward in England and America, bearing approval and hearty endorsement. The following resolution is recommended for adoption:

Resolved, That the National Council consists of it of paramount importance that all those who are members of the church, whatever their ecclesiastical relations may be, should bear in mind the new commandment of love, and that we should meet with us with devout satisfaction the progress of the spirit of fraternal union among Christians of every name, that we should promote this end by acknowledging the obligation to avoid the magnifying of our points of difference, and by the promotion of this end we acknowledge the essential principles of Christian unity and conduct, and that we regard with respect and sympathy any movement or tendency of different branches of the church to join hands in efforts to diffuse the blessings of the gospel.

An Old-Time Sunday Wanted. One of the most important committees to report is the one on Sabbath observance. It started out with the statement that the sabbath of the Decalogue is not a matter of mere here or in any syncretistic assembly. We are not frightened by the ban of the sabbath as something to be feared or cautiously avoided. There may be the most serious possibility that the sabbath is too strictly and literally observed, and the probability is not dangerously imminent. From that same Puritan Sabbath of the goodly men and women who held it every hour, has come down too true and goodly an inheritance of every thing that can endow a nation with enduring riches, to lead us to despise their example or to loosen our hold that we walk in their footsteps.

The fact of an increasing disregard for proper observance of the Sabbath, is noted. Excursions, theaters, concert halls, athletic exhibitions, baseball, passenger traffic, drinking saloons and the Sunday newspapers are all classed together and me in for their share of criticism. The feeling has spread to the ranks of the so-called Christians, too, and the report is that to some extent they are being and participating in most of these forms of desecration.

Christians Shouldn't Ride on Sunday. The one offense of Sunday traveling of the church members were especially guilty of it. It became so pronounced, and so common that it attracted no attention and provoked no comment. In steadily increasing numbers church members were contributing this form of Sabbath desecration. The fact of money was found to be the cause of it. Take away the gain which is made from the Sabbath desecration, and a desecration would cease.

The closing of the World's Fair on Sunday was considered a length. Had the fair been opened on Sunday, the report held, had resulted in appalling moralization to the Sunday observance. The report of the Committee on the Improvement of Worship is made through

Rev. Lyman Abbott, editor of the Christian Union and pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn. Spiritual development is the object to be attained in the improvement of public worship, and the report holds that participation by the congregation in the service by responsive reading, by united prayer and by music, is held to be essential, but the main object must be ever in sight.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

Encouraging Reports, Addresses and Free Parliaments the Order of the Day at Altoona.—Rev. W. A. Stanton, of Pittsburg, One of the Speakers.

ALTOONA, Oct. 12.—To-day's session of the State Christian Endeavor Convention was opened at 6:30 this morning with a "Sunrise Prayer Meeting." At the regular business meeting half-minute reports were received from the delegates concerning special features of their work and their experience. The reports showed the wonderful progress made by the society during the past year, both in this and foreign lands. The reports of local unions showed them in a very flourishing condition.

Among the addresses were, "Personal Religion," by H. W. Weber, D. D., Sunbury; "Duties Toward the Church," by A. G. Eberly, Mechanicsburg; "Duties Toward the Society," by Morris H. Layton, Harrisburg. On account of the illness of Rev. Dr. Deems of New York, the convention sermon was delivered by Rev. J. K. Dixon, of Philadelphia. He advanced the idea of organ recitals in churches every evening of the week for the benefit of those who could not attend church.

A free parliament on "Lookout Committees" was conducted by William A. Gillispie, of Philadelphia, followed by the free parliament on "Prayer Meeting Committees" by the Rev. Charles M. Lanson, secretary, of Philadelphia, conducted the conference of district secretaries. Addresses were made as follows: "The Society as a Means of Grace," by Rev. Amos Johnson, Columbia; "The Society as a Power in the Work of the Church," by Rev. Isaiah Irvine, of Williamsport.

Two simultaneous meetings were held this evening. One for the delegates and another for the citizens. At the delegates' meeting there were free parliaments on "Junior Work," the Corresponding Secretary, on "The Missionary Society," and an address "Foreign Missions Our Duty and Our Response" was delivered by Rev. W. A. Stanton, D. D., of Pittsburg.

ONE HATED HEBREW.

Because He Is a German Cabinet Minister, Anti-Semites Are Seeking His Official Scalp.

Charges of Immorality and Race Favoritism Made Against Him.

NEWS FROM THE EUROPEAN CAPITALS

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—The following details will give some idea of the crisis at the Ministry of Justice: Baron von Schelling is, rightly or wrongly, considered to be of Hebrew extraction, and to be devotedly attached to the Hebrew law of which he has always been the ardent protector. It is asserted that he has filled all the highest posts under his control with Hebrew Judges, and that if it had been possible he would have appointed Hebrew lawyers to posts of public prosecutors. This, however, it is not in his power to do, as none but Christians can hold these offices.

This has brought him into conflict with the anti-Semitic party. The famous trial at Cleves for the killing of a Catholic child at Xanten also drew down upon him the hatred of the Center and extreme Right. Deputies Stocker, Kroemer, Fredzen and others have attacked him several times in the Diet, and it appeared as if his fall was determined upon, when Chancellor von Caprivi took him under his protection by maintaining him as Keeper of the Seal.

The anti-Semitic newspapers then commenced to attack him and published a quantity of incredible details of his past life in Becking, while he held the post of Public Prosecutor, not only charging him with crimes committed by himself and by members of his family, but also of flagrant immorality. All this is backed up by the names of numerous extreme Right Deputies who are said to be ready to confirm his charges. Herr Charles Pasch, the well-known German political writer, published all these accusations in the form of pamphlets, and demanded Parliament and the Government office with them. Baron Schelling at first demanded that Herr Pasch and others who were making these charges against him should be punished. He has, however, withdrawn his demand, and he is now afraid the charges could be proved, while others say a compromise was made.

This crisis is intensified by the Oberwinder suit, an appendage of the Cleves trial. It was known that Herr Pasch and numerous witnesses have arrived here from Xanten, Cleves, Crefeld and other places at Cleves had come to an understanding with the anti-Semitic party. On arriving here they were informed that the case had been adjourned. The reason given for the adjournment is that the Judges are too fatigued by the Loewy trial to undertake without rest another case of this nature. This has caused an immense sensation, and the Liberal press strongly protests. Baron Schelling's position is untenable and his fall will certainly take place before the opening of Parliament.

COLUMBIANA IN SPAIN.

A Monument to the Discoverer Unveiled in the Presence of the Queen.

HUELVA, Oct. 12.—The magnificent monument to Columbus was unveiled at La Rubida to-day. The ceremonies were attended by the Queen Regent, King Alfonso, the Ministers of State, Senators, Members of the Chamber of Deputies, naval and military officers and a vast concourse of civilians. The Queen Regent and the little King were accorded a most enthusiastic welcome.

The Queen Regent has conferred the Grand Collar of the Order of the Golden Fleece upon the Duke of Vergara, the last lineal descendant of Christopher Columbus. The order of the Golden Fleece in an order of knighthood founded January 1429, by Philippe III, Duke of Bourgogne.

A BESIEGED BANDIT. Friends Rally to His Rescue and Drive Off a Little Army of Deputy Marshals—His House a Regular Fort—Reinforcements Too Late.

TALQUAH, I. T., Oct. 12.—The posse which went to capture Ned Christie returned to this city this morning without their game. Christie's friends bent last night to surround the officers from the outside, and the reinforcements sent by the Marshal were delayed so the officers were obliged to give up the siege. Twenty men have been sent by the United States Marshal, and Chief Harris has ordered the Sheriff of this district with 20 men to assist.

An attempt was made yesterday morning at daylight to capture the notorious Ned Christie at his home in the Caney Mountains, 15 miles east of here. The attacking party consisted of Deputy United States Marshal Milo Creckmore, David Rush, Charles Copeland, D. C. Dye and a posse of three. The house was surrounded, and the presence of the posse was known until the call for surrender was made. The only answer was a volley of shots, one of which struck John Fields in the neck, inflicting a mortal wound, and another struck Joseph Bowers, discharging him.

When it was found that Christie would not surrender, the officers warned the women and children to come out of the house, which they did, and were placed under arrest. Deputy Creckmore came to the house and telephoned to United States Marshal Yoes, at Fort Smith, to send deputies. Yoes replied: "Have wired everywhere for deputies. You will have to hold out to-night. Hold out for all means and get them this time." Creckmore also summoned a lot of men, including the High Sheriff. Christie's home is a veritable fort, having been built upon a rocky ledge, and the entrance is so narrow that several more men will fall before the desperado is captured.

John Fields, who was wounded in yesterday's fight, can live only a few hours, and Joe Bowers, who was also shot, will lose his life.
