

INDUSTRIALS HIGHER

As a Rule and Some of the Specialties Make Good Gains. THE COOLERS A LITTLE WEAK.

Railways Close Weak and the Industrials Strong at the Advance.

RAILROAD BONDS FIRM AND ACTIVE

New York, Oct. 17.—The activity at the stock exchange, which was so pronounced a feature of the stock market last week, was fully maintained to-day. The transactions reached the largest volume of 284,717 shares, including 13,480 shares of unlisted stocks.

Chicago Gas advanced on large purchases, 3 to 3 1/2%. A little later Distilling and Cattle Feeding moved into prominence and rose from 63 to 65 on animated trading.

Government bonds were strong. Chicago Gas advanced on large purchases, 3 to 3 1/2%. A little later Distilling and Cattle Feeding moved into prominence and rose from 63 to 65 on animated trading.

GENERAL MARKETS

New York, Oct. 17.—Receipts, 50,800 packages; exports, 11,800 barrels, 40,000 sacks; dull market. Wheat—No. 2, 73 1/2; No. 3, 72 1/2; No. 4, 71 1/2.

Table with columns: Open, High, Low, Close, Change. Rows include Wheat, Corn, Soybeans, etc.

A BOOM IN HOG PRODUCTS.

Ribs, Pork and Lard Make Prodigious Leaps Upward on Light Receipts of Hogs and a Good Demand for Them.—CORN AND WHEAT ALSO ADVANCE.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The big demand for hogs, which has been in constant demand since the beginning of the year, has been maintained to-day.

The provision market opened strong on the small receipts of hogs and the good demand for them reported from the yards.

It has been a general belief here that the receipts in the Northwest will let up, but instead the arrivals, if anything, are heavier than they have been.

DOWN GOES PHILLIE

The Advance in Gas the Basis of a Drisk Selling Movement. EVERYTHING ELSE RUES STEADY.

The Market Broadens a Little and the Demand is Good.

LOCAL AND GENERAL FINANCIAL NEWS

The speculative markets East and West were bullish to-day, and as a rule higher prices were established, both on the Chicago and New York stock exchanges.

Philadelphia Company was the bright particular star of the local stock firmament to-day. It was heavily sold on 'Change, the transactions in it being more than one-half the day's total business, which was quite large.

Car receipts for to-day—Wheat, 465,000 bushels; corn, 715,000 bushels; soybeans, 1,100,000 bushels.

STOCKS

Table with columns: Bid, Ask, Bid, Ask, Bid, Ask. Rows include Allegheny Nat Bank, Bank of Pittsburgh, etc.

Closing Philadelphia Quotations.

Table with columns: Bid, Ask, Bid, Ask, Bid, Ask. Rows include Pennsylvania, Reading, etc.

MONETARY

Local bankers continue to take a fairly active money market, with funds plentiful and rates of discount low.

The statement for September and for three months, with comparisons, follows: Gross earnings, $1,100,000; net earnings, $700,000.

Philadelphia—Flour slow and prices unchanged. Wheat quiet; rejected in grain elevators.

It has been a general belief here that the receipts in the Northwest will let up, but instead the arrivals, if anything, are heavier than they have been.

ANOTHER ACREAGE SALE

In the Morningland District—Six Acres on Morningland Avenue Bring $37,000.—Good Prices Paid for Residence Sites and Residence Properties.

Another sale of acreage located in the Morningland district has been closed.

Messrs. Piper & Clark sold for Mr. John Fite, of W. J. Fisher, five lots in his Morningland district property.

The work of removing the machinery and remodeling of the interior of the Penn mill property at North Highland avenue, corner Rippey street, containing about three-quarters of an acre of ground with a substantial bit of old-style house erected thereon.

The following permits were issued to-day: H. Moore, five two-story frame dwellings, Mt. Oliver street, near Washington avenue.

TRADE IS FAIR

Along the Mercantile Line, but It is Showing No Big Features—Columbus Day and Politics Will Probably Cause a Decreased Volume of Business.

MONDAY, Oct. 17.

The local merchandise markets began the week quietly and without developing any fresh noteworthy features.

ELECTRIC STOCKS.

Monday, Oct. 17.—(Special)—The latest quotations of electric stocks to-day were: General Electric, 114 1/2; Westinghouse Electric, 100 1/2.

Local bankers continue to take a fairly active money market, with funds plentiful and rates of discount low.

Philadelphia—Flour slow and prices unchanged. Wheat quiet; rejected in grain elevators.

It has been a general belief here that the receipts in the Northwest will let up, but instead the arrivals, if anything, are heavier than they have been.

ANOTHER ACREAGE SALE

In the Morningland District—Six Acres on Morningland Avenue Bring $37,000.—Good Prices Paid for Residence Sites and Residence Properties.

Another sale of acreage located in the Morningland district has been closed.

Messrs. Piper & Clark sold for Mr. John Fite, of W. J. Fisher, five lots in his Morningland district property.

The work of removing the machinery and remodeling of the interior of the Penn mill property at North Highland avenue, corner Rippey street, containing about three-quarters of an acre of ground with a substantial bit of old-style house erected thereon.

The following permits were issued to-day: H. Moore, five two-story frame dwellings, Mt. Oliver street, near Washington avenue.

TRADE IS FAIR

Along the Mercantile Line, but It is Showing No Big Features—Columbus Day and Politics Will Probably Cause a Decreased Volume of Business.

MONDAY, Oct. 17.

The local merchandise markets began the week quietly and without developing any fresh noteworthy features.

ELECTRIC STOCKS.

Monday, Oct. 17.—(Special)—The latest quotations of electric stocks to-day were: General Electric, 114 1/2; Westinghouse Electric, 100 1/2.

Local bankers continue to take a fairly active money market, with funds plentiful and rates of discount low.

Philadelphia—Flour slow and prices unchanged. Wheat quiet; rejected in grain elevators.

It has been a general belief here that the receipts in the Northwest will let up, but instead the arrivals, if anything, are heavier than they have been.

ANOTHER ACREAGE SALE

In the Morningland District—Six Acres on Morningland Avenue Bring $37,000.—Good Prices Paid for Residence Sites and Residence Properties.

Another sale of acreage located in the Morningland district has been closed.

Messrs. Piper & Clark sold for Mr. John Fite, of W. J. Fisher, five lots in his Morningland district property.

The work of removing the machinery and remodeling of the interior of the Penn mill property at North Highland avenue, corner Rippey street, containing about three-quarters of an acre of ground with a substantial bit of old-style house erected thereon.

The following permits were issued to-day: H. Moore, five two-story frame dwellings, Mt. Oliver street, near Washington avenue.

TRADE IS FAIR

Along the Mercantile Line, but It is Showing No Big Features—Columbus Day and Politics Will Probably Cause a Decreased Volume of Business.

MONDAY, Oct. 17.

The local merchandise markets began the week quietly and without developing any fresh noteworthy features.

ELECTRIC STOCKS.

Monday, Oct. 17.—(Special)—The latest quotations of electric stocks to-day were: General Electric, 114 1/2; Westinghouse Electric, 100 1/2.

Local bankers continue to take a fairly active money market, with funds plentiful and rates of discount low.

Philadelphia—Flour slow and prices unchanged. Wheat quiet; rejected in grain elevators.

It has been a general belief here that the receipts in the Northwest will let up, but instead the arrivals, if anything, are heavier than they have been.

ANOTHER ACREAGE SALE

In the Morningland District—Six Acres on Morningland Avenue Bring $37,000.—Good Prices Paid for Residence Sites and Residence Properties.

Another sale of acreage located in the Morningland district has been closed.

Messrs. Piper & Clark sold for Mr. John Fite, of W. J. Fisher, five lots in his Morningland district property.

The work of removing the machinery and remodeling of the interior of the Penn mill property at North Highland avenue, corner Rippey street, containing about three-quarters of an acre of ground with a substantial bit of old-style house erected thereon.

The following permits were issued to-day: H. Moore, five two-story frame dwellings, Mt. Oliver street, near Washington avenue.

TRADE IS FAIR

Along the Mercantile Line, but It is Showing No Big Features—Columbus Day and Politics Will Probably Cause a Decreased Volume of Business.

MONDAY, Oct. 17.

The local merchandise markets began the week quietly and without developing any fresh noteworthy features.

ELECTRIC STOCKS.

Monday, Oct. 17.—(Special)—The latest quotations of electric stocks to-day were: General Electric, 114 1/2; Westinghouse Electric, 100 1/2.

Local bankers continue to take a fairly active money market, with funds plentiful and rates of discount low.

Philadelphia—Flour slow and prices unchanged. Wheat quiet; rejected in grain elevators.

It has been a general belief here that the receipts in the Northwest will let up, but instead the arrivals, if anything, are heavier than they have been.

ANOTHER ACREAGE SALE

In the Morningland District—Six Acres on Morningland Avenue Bring $37,000.—Good Prices Paid for Residence Sites and Residence Properties.

Another sale of acreage located in the Morningland district has been closed.

Messrs. Piper & Clark sold for Mr. John Fite, of W. J. Fisher, five lots in his Morningland district property.

The work of removing the machinery and remodeling of the interior of the Penn mill property at North Highland avenue, corner Rippey street, containing about three-quarters of an acre of ground with a substantial bit of old-style house erected thereon.

The following permits were issued to-day: H. Moore, five two-story frame dwellings, Mt. Oliver street, near Washington avenue.

TRADE IS FAIR

Along the Mercantile Line, but It is Showing No Big Features—Columbus Day and Politics Will Probably Cause a Decreased Volume of Business.

MONDAY, Oct. 17.

The local merchandise markets began the week quietly and without developing any fresh noteworthy features.

ELECTRIC STOCKS.

Monday, Oct. 17.—(Special)—The latest quotations of electric stocks to-day were: General Electric, 114 1/2; Westinghouse Electric, 100 1/2.

Local bankers continue to take a fairly active money market, with funds plentiful and rates of discount low.

Philadelphia—Flour slow and prices unchanged. Wheat quiet; rejected in grain elevators.

It has been a general belief here that the receipts in the Northwest will let up, but instead the arrivals, if anything, are heavier than they have been.

THE BEST COUGH-CURE and ANODYNE expectorant, AVER'S Cherry Pectoral soothes the inflamed membrane and induces sleep.

Prompt to Act sure to cure. DANIEL McCaffrey. 238 AND 240 FIFTH AVENUE, PITTSBURGH.

ESTABLISHED 1884. JOHN M. OAKLEY & CO. BROKERS-FINANCIAL.

WHITNEY & STEPHENSON. 57 FORTH AVENUE, PITTSBURGH.