

Show DISPATCH ads to be most profitable to advertisers. Try them.

Show DISPATCH ads to be most profitable to advertisers. Try them.

ALL HUSTLING IN NEW YORK.

The National Engineers Look on While the State Chairmen Work.

VOTERS ABOVE HARLEM

Will Be More Largely Republican Than for Many Years.

CLAM DIGGERS IN SUFFOLK

Say They Will Knife the Democratic Ticket—They Want to Get Square for the Fire Island Indignity—Some Formidable Difficulties Confront Messrs. Harrity and Sheehan—Funds Are Plentiful in the Republican Camp—65,000 All That Is Conceded to Cleveland in New York County—Strict Attention Given to the Registering of Voters—The House-to-House Canvass Started.

ESPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—If outsiders would not bother the political machinists, a visit to the two State headquarters these days would prove an attractive diversion from every day life. These two State headquarters are now practically the points of interest in the great Presidential battle. As New York goes, so goes the election. Everything was at full tilt to-day and the contest between Cleveland and Harrison has narrowed down to the work done at these two headquarters.

A TEMPERANCE MANIFESTO.

Two Ex-Governors on a Paper Denouncing Pledges in Favor of Local Option.

BELLEFOUNTAIN, Oct. 19.—Ex-Governors Curtis and Beaver have put their names to a long paper favoring an enactment of the next Legislature in favor of local option. The paper sets forth that "A majority of the voters in five of the seven counties embraced within the bounds of the Huntington Presbytery voted for the amendment of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and an aggregate majority of 4,382 was given for the amendment." It is, therefore, contended that "It is manifestly unjust that the admitted evils resulting from the traffic in intoxicating drinks should be visited on the localities which desire to be relieved from the burdens thus imposed."

COL. DYER TAKEN OUT.

Tennessee Republicans See No Hope in Fighting Democratic Methods.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 19.—[Special.]—Colonel L. E. Dyer, Assistant Postmaster and the tenth district, comprising the counties of Shelby, Tipton, Hardeman and Fayette, has formally withdrawn from the race, leaving the field to Hon. Josiah Patterson, Democrat, the present member, and Y. V. Neal, Third party.

GEN. SICKLES ACCEPTS.

He Says Gen. Cattin's Action Does Not Alter His Decision.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—[Special.]—General Sickles said this afternoon that he had already accepted the nomination for Congress, and that General Cattin's action would in no wise alter his decision. He said: "The Constitution of the United States provides that no person holding any office under the United States shall be eligible to Congress. I do not hold any such office. I hold the rank, but not the office, of Major General in the United States Army. I resigned from the office in 1869, and General Howard now holds the office. As far as the pension is concerned, that will not interfere with my acceptance of the nomination."

ALDRICH TALKS TARIFF.

He Gives His Views of Protection to the Philadelphia Voters.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—United States Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, spoke here to-night at the Academy of Music before a large audience. Mr. Aldrich's speech was entirely devoted to the subject of the tariff and the benefits of a protective policy over a tariff for revenue only. Throughout it he alluded to the fact that the Rhode Island Senator freely used in support of his views.

VOTERS REGISTERING.

A Great Increase Over the First Days of the Last Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—[Special.]—The total city registration to-day was 110,831, as compared with 80,092 second day last year, and 91,678 in 1888. The total for the two days is 202,275, against 150,846 last year and 167,491 for the two days in 1888.

POKER JACK'S FIAT.

He Will Run the Election in the State of Arkansas to Suit Himself.

SUPERVISORS INSTRUCTED

To Override State Laws in the Interests of Honesty.

HE IS ANXIOUS TO FIND OUT

Whether the Federal Government Has Any Rights at This Time.

ORDERS THAT MAY CAUSE TROUBLE

STATISTICS SHOWING THE DIRECT BENEFIT OF THE PROTECTION OF MANUFACTURES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The Census Bureau has published additional bulletins giving statistics of manufactures. Following are given as the percentages of increase for Memphis, Tenn.: Number of establishments reported, 104.35; capital invested, 232.99; number of hands employed, 128.09; wages paid, 218.23; cost of materials used, 140.21; value of product at works, 133.61.

THE TARIFF TALKS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The Census Bureau has published additional bulletins giving statistics of manufactures. Following are given as the percentages of increase for Memphis, Tenn.: Number of establishments reported, 104.35; capital invested, 232.99; number of hands employed, 128.09; wages paid, 218.23; cost of materials used, 140.21; value of product at works, 133.61.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The Census Bureau has published additional bulletins giving statistics of manufactures. Following are given as the percentages of increase for Memphis, Tenn.: Number of establishments reported, 104.35; capital invested, 232.99; number of hands employed, 128.09; wages paid, 218.23; cost of materials used, 140.21; value of product at works, 133.61.

ADVISE TO COLORED VOTERS.

They Are Urged to Support the Republican Ticket in November.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 19.—The National Colored Protective Association, which has been in session in the city the past two days, to-day issued an address to the colored voters of the United States, advising them to adhere to the Republican ticket in November. Stephen B. Gibson, of Pennsylvania, was elected President of the League.

REPENTED AT LEISURE.

A Pittsburg Courtship That Resulted in a Hasty Marriage Ends Abruptly in New York—Estella Farrington Deserts Her Husband, Samuel Ettlinger.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—[Special.]—Samuel Ettlinger, a salesman, spent nearly all last Wednesday looking at the Columbia parade. When he returned at night his wife and 11-year-old daughter had disappeared without a trace. With all the household effects. Tuesday he found the truckman who carried the furniture away from him. He learned that Mrs. Ettlinger had fled to Jersey City. He went there and found his wife and daughter in the room with Arthur Wheatley, a bill clerk in a Broadway house.

MRS. HARRISON NO WORSE.

Her Loss of Vitality So Gradual That No Change Is Noticed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19.—There was no particular change apparent in the condition of Mrs. Harrison to-day, and she has been since Sunday. The natural tendency of the disease is to a slow but steady decline, and in Mrs. Harrison's case the gradual loss of vitality is so slight from day to day that frequently hardly any change in her condition is noticeable.

A PROSECUTOR FIRED AT.

The Suspected Result of a Foul Between Him and Town Police Officers.

ELWOOD, Ind., Oct. 19.—It was learned this evening that the residence of Deputy Prosecutor W. A. Sprong, of this city, had been fired into about midnight last night by unknown parties. Two shots were fired, passing through the front window and lodging in the opposite wall.

HOOSIERS SHAKEN UP.

Three Distinct Shocks Alarm the Citizens of Martinsville, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—Three distinct earthquakes of from three to five vibrations each were noted in Martinsville this morning at 10 o'clock. The shocks were five minutes apart. The trembling of the earth was plainly perceptible. The people were greatly alarmed, but no damage was done.

HOOSIERS SHAKEN UP.

Three Distinct Shocks Alarm the Citizens of Martinsville, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—Three distinct earthquakes of from three to five vibrations each were noted in Martinsville this morning at 10 o'clock. The shocks were five minutes apart. The trembling of the earth was plainly perceptible. The people were greatly alarmed, but no damage was done.

HOOSIERS SHAKEN UP.

Three Distinct Shocks Alarm the Citizens of Martinsville, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—Three distinct earthquakes of from three to five vibrations each were noted in Martinsville this morning at 10 o'clock. The shocks were five minutes apart. The trembling of the earth was plainly perceptible. The people were greatly alarmed, but no damage was done.

HOOSIERS SHAKEN UP.

Three Distinct Shocks Alarm the Citizens of Martinsville, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—Three distinct earthquakes of from three to five vibrations each were noted in Martinsville this morning at 10 o'clock. The shocks were five minutes apart. The trembling of the earth was plainly perceptible. The people were greatly alarmed, but no damage was done.

TOOK REID TO TASK.

Wayne MacVeagh Scores the Next Vice President for Arraigning Him

BECAUSE HE'S A FLOPPER.

He Says That Thousands Have Done the Same Thing.

EVEN THE OLD-TIME FORCE BILL

Comes in for a Share of His Attention as an Issue of the Hour.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

HE GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE SITUATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, one Attorney General of the United States under a Republican administration, made a Democratic speech in New York in Cooper Union Hall to-night. The hall and the corridor outside were well filled. Before he had spoken five minutes, MacVeagh had attracted the attention of his audience. MacVeagh, who introduced President John H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, as Chairman. Mr. Arnold made a short speech and introduced Mr. MacVeagh, who said:

"I would have preferred in speaking in this great city, the home of the present candidate of the Republican party for the Vice Presidency, to speak in favor of his election rather than against it, for I have been privileged these very many years to call myself the friend of Mr. Reid, and to enjoy under other roofs the same generous hospitality he is now dispensing at Cooper Union. But this morning's Tribune, a newspaper I have been reading all my life, causes me some embarrassment in speaking as kindly as I would wish either of Mr. Reid or of it by arraigning me for the last offense in the world for which he, I thought, would arraign me of believing what the New York Tribune told me. Objected to Being Arraigned.

THE RIVALS SHAKE HANDS AND EXCHANGE COMPLIMENTS.

DRAWBACK ON IMPORTS.

Secretary Spaulding of the Treasury Replies to a Charge That It Is Injurious to American Interests—He Shows How It Acts Beneficially.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Acting Secretary of the Treasury Spaulding has written a letter to the editor of a mining journal in Michigan, in response to recent criticisms on the drawback privileges of the tariff act. The specific charge is that the allowance of drawback on imported material is injurious to the benefit of American interests, and instead of being beneficial to American interests, it is detrimental to them.

TOURGEE DENIES CHARGES.

He Fully Explains the Alleged Frauds of the Society in Mississippi of Which He Is President—Two Cents Magnified Into Two Dollars.

BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 19.—[Special.]—A few days ago a press report from Jackson, Miss., concerning the rice troubles in Coahoma county, stated that the whole trouble had its origin in a secret society organized among the blacks by Judge Tourgee, who, in consideration of $2, of which he retained $1.50, furnished an alleged certificate, guaranteeing the right of suffrage to the holder; that the grand jury of Coahoma county was investigating the matter, and that indictments were likely to be returned. Judge Tourgee denies the fraud alleged in connection with the issue of the certificates. He says that it is true that the colored men killed by the whites were members of the society—"The National Citizens' Association"—but he protests that the association has no local organization, no office or secret ceremonies, and the only funds it has are those of voluntary contribution. The aims of the society are to secure free speech, protection and equal opportunities for the blacks.

300 CHILDREN FALL.

Many Broken Bones—Threats of Lynching the Careless Carpenters.

WEST WINSTON, CONN., Oct. 19.—Eight hundred pupils of the public schools went to the rink to practice chorus singing on National day for Columbus Day. Temporary seats were erected in tiers to the height of 15 feet to hold 1,000 children. The first 400 had been seated in the upper tiers, when the five top rows collapsed. Three hundred children fell to the floor in a heap, and the wreck and their screams caused a panic among the others, while several women fainted.

TO-MORROW NO HOLIDAY.

New York's Court of Appeals Decides That the Banks Close on Their Own Risk.

ALBANY, October 19.—[Special.]—The Court of Appeals decided to-day for itself that Friday, October 21, is not a legal holiday in this State, and that therefore it will sit on that day. This supports the position taken by Attorney General Rosendale, and is in opposition to that of the New York Clearing House.

SPEAK-EASIES HIS GAME.

A Dunbar Counterfeiter Said to Have Victimised Them With Impunity.

UNIONTOWN, Oct. 19.—[Special.]—John Moody, of Dunbar, was arrested and jailed to-day charged with passing counterfeit money. Moody is accused of pushing the "queer" on the speak-easies kept upon the Leisnering road, but the proprietors of these places were afraid to make complaint through fear of exposure of their business. Some of the apertures on the road were on Moody, and it is supposed he has been manufacturing the stuff at Dunbar.

FOLLOWING VENEZUELA.

Argentine Takes Its Turn in the Whirlwind of Southern Revolution.

BRENOVA AYER, Oct. 19.—A revolution has broken out at Santiago del Estero, the capital of the province of the same name, the central province of the Argentine Republic.

SHOT DEAD BY A DOCTOR.

A West Virginia desperado tickles the Wrong Man Near Huntington.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Oct. 19.—[Special.]—At Dunlow, 13 miles in the wild from this place, John Thompson was shot and killed by Dr. Thornbury last night. The affair was the outcome of a family quarrel, and the killing was done in the Doctor's drug store. Thornbury was filling a prescription when Thompson entered, and brandishing a cleaver, called to the Doctor, "Dr.—you, I'm going to kill you."

HOOSIERS SHAKEN UP.

Three Distinct Shocks Alarm the Citizens of Martinsville, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—Three distinct earthquakes of from three to five vibrations each were noted in Martinsville this morning at 10 o'clock. The shocks were five minutes apart. The trembling of the earth was plainly perceptible. The people were greatly alarmed, but no damage was done.

HOOSIERS SHAKEN UP.

Three Distinct Shocks Alarm the Citizens of Martinsville, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—Three distinct earthquakes of from three to five vibrations each were noted in Martinsville this morning at 10 o'clock. The shocks were five minutes apart. The trembling of the earth was plainly perceptible. The people were greatly alarmed, but no damage was done.

HOOSIERS SHAKEN UP.

Three Distinct Shocks Alarm the Citizens of Martinsville, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—Three distinct earthquakes of from three to five vibrations each were noted in Martinsville this morning at 10 o'clock. The shocks were five minutes apart. The trembling of the earth was plainly perceptible. The people were greatly alarmed, but no damage was done.

DRAWBACK ON IMPORTS.

Secretary Spaulding of the Treasury Replies to a Charge That It Is Injurious to American Interests—He Shows How It Acts Beneficially.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Acting Secretary of the Treasury Spaulding has written a letter to the editor of a mining journal in Michigan, in response to recent criticisms on the drawback privileges of the tariff act. The specific charge is that the allowance of drawback on imported material is injurious to the benefit of American interests, and instead of being beneficial to American interests, it is detrimental to them.

TOURGEE DENIES CHARGES.

He Fully Explains the Alleged Frauds of the Society in Mississippi of Which He Is President—Two Cents Magnified Into Two Dollars.

BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 19.—[Special.]—A few days ago a press report from Jackson, Miss., concerning the rice troubles in Coahoma county, stated that the whole trouble had its origin in a secret society organized among the blacks by Judge Tourgee, who, in consideration of $2, of which he retained $1.50, furnished an alleged certificate, guaranteeing the right of suffrage to the holder; that the grand jury of Coahoma county was investigating the matter, and that indictments were likely to be returned. Judge Tourgee denies the fraud alleged in connection with the issue of the certificates. He says that it is true that the colored men killed by the whites were members of the society—"The National Citizens' Association"—but he protests that the association has no local organization, no office or secret ceremonies, and the only funds it has are those of voluntary contribution. The aims of the society are to secure free speech, protection and equal opportunities for the blacks.

300 CHILDREN FALL.

Many Broken Bones—Threats of Lynching the Careless Carpenters.

WEST WINSTON, CONN., Oct. 19.—Eight hundred pupils of the public schools went to the rink to practice chorus singing on National day for Columbus Day. Temporary seats were erected in tiers to the height of 15 feet to hold 1,000 children. The first 400 had been seated in the upper tiers, when the five top rows collapsed. Three hundred children fell to the floor in a heap, and the wreck and their screams caused a panic among the others, while several women fainted.

TO-MORROW NO HOLIDAY.

New York's Court of Appeals Decides That the Banks Close on Their Own Risk.

ALBANY, October 19.—[Special.]—The Court of Appeals decided to-day for itself that Friday, October 21, is not a legal holiday in this State, and that therefore it will sit on that day. This supports the position taken by Attorney General Rosendale, and is in opposition to that of the New York Clearing House.

SPEAK-EASIES HIS GAME.

A Dunbar Counterfeiter Said to Have Victimised Them With Impunity.

UNIONTOWN, Oct. 19.—[Special.]—John Moody, of Dunbar, was arrested and jailed to-day charged with passing counterfeit money. Moody is accused of pushing the "queer" on the speak-easies kept upon the Leisnering road, but the proprietors of these places were afraid to make complaint through fear of exposure of their business. Some of the apertures on the road were on Moody, and it is supposed he has been manufacturing the stuff at Dunbar.

FOLLOWING VENEZUELA.

Argentine Takes Its Turn in the Whirlwind of Southern Revolution.

BRENOVA AYER, Oct. 19.—A revolution has broken out at Santiago del Estero, the capital of the province of the same name, the central province of the Argentine Republic.

SHOT DEAD BY A DOCTOR.

A West Virginia desperado tickles the Wrong Man Near Huntington.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Oct. 19.—[Special.]—At Dunlow, 13 miles in the wild from this place, John Thompson was shot and killed by Dr. Thornbury last night. The affair was the outcome of a family quarrel, and the killing was done in the Doctor's drug store. Thornbury was filling a prescription when Thompson entered, and brandishing a cleaver, called to the Doctor, "Dr.—you, I'm going to kill you."

HOOSIERS SHAKEN UP.