EGAN STRIKES BACK

At MacVeagh in a Manly Denial of the Latter's Lately Restated Charges.

THE FLOPPER IS FLAYED

By the Irish-American Whose Love of Fatherland He Scouted.

THE PROMISED LETTER GIVEN OUT

Without Change, Even if Mr. MacVeagh Pid Anticipate It.

SOME HARD BLOWS FROM THE SHOULDER

NEW YORK, Oct. 24. - Minister Patrick Egan has made his reply to the speech of Wayne MacVeagh in this city, which reflected on the character and official fitness of Mr. Egan. The reply is in the form of an open letter addressed to Mr. MacVeagh, which he placed in the hands of the press bureau of the National Republican Com-

The statement that Mr. Egan would make a reply to Mr. MacVengh's speech had the effect of drawing from Mr. MacVeagh an open letter to Mr. Egan of a caustic nature, which was published to-day. At the Gilsey House this morning Minister Egan

"Mr. MacVeagh acts like a man with a bad conscience, and as soon as the fact is published that I am to reply to his rascally attack on me he rushes into print in an open letter without waiting to see what I would say in reply to his charges. His tactics are those of a police court lawyer, and will not injure me.

Mr. Egan on His Own Letter.

Regarding his open letter, given herewith in full, Mr. Egan said: "In my letter I have endeavored to show that all of Mr. MacVeagh's charges are false. Without resorting to personal abuse I attempt to show -and I think successfully-that Mr. Mac Veagh does not know what he is talking about. Among the glaring inaccuracies of Mr. MacVeagh is his repeated reference to the fund that I handled, and which he claims was never satisfactorily accounted for. He puts the amount of that fund at $120,000, while as a matter of fact it was $1,200,000. That will give you some idea of how little Mr. MacVeagh knows about a how little Mr. MacVeagh knows about a matter on which he presumes to make a public speech and print a public letter.

"As I have said, every single one of Mr. MacVeagh's charges are false, and in my open letter I prove them so by a plain statement of facts and arguments and not by personal abuse. Mr. MacVeagh cannot escape the responsibility of his utterances by saying that he got his information from a paper of which Mr. Reid, the present candidate for Vice President, is the managing editor. I believe my reply will be a complete and effective refutation of all MacVeagh's charges. Regarding Mr. MacVeagh personally, I can only say what I have said before, that the Democrats are to be pitied rather than congratulated upon his entrance to their party."

Egan's Manly Disposal of MacVeagh.

Egan's Manly Disposal of MacVeagh. The following is the reply of Mr. Egan to the Cooper Union speech of Mr. Mac-Veagh:

GILSEY HOUSE, NEW YORK, Oct. 21, 1892. Mr. Wayne MacVeagh, Philadelphia: Sin—I perceive by the daily press that at a meeting held in Cooper Union, under the suspices of the Democratic Chib of New York, you, a renegade from your party, as you are said to be from your people and your creed, attempt to palliate your apostacy by undertaking to do that which the London Times, with its battalion of testimony, chief among which was the notorious. tacy by undertaking to do that which the Loudon Times, with its battalion of testimony, chief among which was the notorious Pigott, failed to accomplish—to besmirch my good name. With the adroitness of a police court pettyfogger you, under the pretext of referring to sometting that somebody else said, assail me: First, as a "swindier" who "failed to account for a very large trust fund placed in his charge," second, you say, "it was well known at Washington, when he was appointed, what the charges were, and that he had fled the country to avoid arrest and trial on a very serious criminal charge;" third, you describe me as "a sham patriot and a fugitive from criminal justice," to which you are pleased to add that you were "greatly surprised and disgusted to find such a man selected to represent the country in a high diplomatic post," and that you not only reasserted your statement "that my appointment was an insult to Chile," but that you considered it "also an insult to every self-respecting Irishman in the United States."

Why Any Answer at All Is Made.

Why Any Answer at All Is Made. I should treat those coarse and cowardly insults, coming as they do from one of the last stragglers of the retreating Know Nothings who find that there is no place for them in the Republican party, with the same contempt that I have shown for all attacks contempt that I have shown for all attacks made in the English and American proBritish press, were it not that they were spoken at a meeting at which flaured as Vice Presidents such names as T. F. Gilroy, William E. Grace, J. J. O'Donoghue, John D. Crimmins, John C. Sheehan and others, and that it is reported that your words were received with "joud cheering."

I would neither be surprised nor annoyed that you should launch out into those ignorant calumnies, on the contrary, under ordinary circumstances. I should feel greatly entertained, but I am amazed and pained to think that the Gilroys, the Graces, the O'Donoghues, the Crimmins' and the Sheehans should have meanly say in Cooper Union and patiently listened to you.

I am convinced that in the entire ranks of the Republican party there could not be found a single man who would make upon the character of any Irish-American so wanton, foul and unfounded an artack as you have made upon me, and if such a one could be found, and he should, under similar circumstances, assail, in a like manner, in my presence, any of the gentlemen I have named, I will simply say that there would not be in New York City any hall sufficiently large to contain him and me. I would publicly bring him to order, and either he or I should leave the building.

How the Trust Fund Was Handled.

How the Trust Fund Was Handled. In your great desire to assail me you have been forced, I perceive, to fall back entirely upon my connection with the national movement in Ireland. To the Irish race here and in the old land, my course of con-duct in that connection needs no vindicahere and in the old land, my course of conduct in that connection needs no vindication; to my maligner on either side of the Atlantic I make no explanations. In my entire connection with Iriah affairs there was not one act that I would take back, not one that I have to apologize for.

For the information of my American friends who may not be an convan: with the matters to which your standerobs attacks refer, I will say, first: the "very large trust fund" that you mention, and in connection with which you dare to apply to me the term "swindler," was the Land League Fund, which amounted to $1,250,000, of which, from 1879 to the end of 1822, I had the distinction of being the treasurer. Upon resigning the position and turning over to my successor the balance of the funds to the auditors, Mr. John Dillon, M. P., Rev. Eugene Sheehy and Mr. M. Harris, M. P., in their joint report, after stating the particulars of the accounts, said: "We certify that every item of said expenditure has been fully and satisfactorily vouched, and we have pleasure in bearing testimony to the systematic and strictly business-like manner in which the accounts and records of said fund have been kept by Mr. Egan." In addition to the balance of the principal, I turned over to my successors the sum of £4,400, 15 shillings—about $20,000 which I had realized as interest and profits on investments, while giving my whole time for two years gratuitously to the on investments, while giving my whole time for two years gratuitously to the league.

No Formal Charge Ever Made. Second—There never was a formal charge made or a warrant issued against me by the English Government, the only "criminal charges" being those made by the hostile press, based upon the Pigott forgeries.

Those "criminal charges" were fully investigated by the Parnell Times commission in 1888, with the result that Pigott confessed to the forgeries and committed suicide, and an accomplice of his the next day, when hearned of the fate of his principal, dropped dead in the streets of London. The Attorner General and Sir Richard Webster, as leading counsel for the Times, on the Tith of February, 1889, withdrew, and apologized for the forgeries, and the Times next day, in the course of a leading article, apologized for their publication in the following terms "Mr. Parnell having in the witness bottated that the letters attributed to him were forgeries, we accept in every respect the truth of the statement. In these circum stances we deem it right to express our rogret most fully and sincerely of having been induced to publish the letters in question as Mr. Parnell's, or to use them in evidence against him. This expression of regret, we need hardly say, includes also the letters falsely attributed to Mr. Egan, Mr. Davitt and Mr. O'Kelley." The London Times lost by this entire transaction, in dam ages and costs, the enormous sum of £216.000 —$1,100,000. Three months afterward Mac Donald, the principal of the Times syndicate, died from worrying, and for two years the "Thunderer" paid no dividend to its stockholders.
A TOTAL OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR

A Plea of Guilty on One Charge. Third-With regard to being "a sha Third—With regard to being "a shamocrat" and a "fugitive from criminal justice," I am fullly content to leave the first past of this charge to the judgment of my Irish-American fellow-citizens, and to the second part I plead guilty. Yes, I was at one time a fugitive from "criminal justice," in the same way precisely as were Thomas Addis Emmett, Richard MacNevin, Richard O. Gorman, Thomas Francis Meagher, John Mitchell, and so many others, and I am sincerely proud of having been so. It will doubtiess be news to you to learn that, very soon after my arrival in this country "as a fugitive from criminal justice," I was elected, at a convention held in Fancuil Hall, Boston, to the honorable position of President of the Irish National League of America, which organization, during my term of two years, sent to Ireland the sum of $350,000, and that from Ireland there was forwarded to me to the United States, in 1883, a presentation of a costly service of silver, accompanied by a flattering address signed by Charles Stewart Farnell, Justin McCarthy, Michael Davitt, John Dillon, W. A. O'Brien, and by all the other leaders of the Irish National party, and all this, too, after "I had fled the country to avoid arrest and trial on a very serious charge," and had "alled to account for a very large trust fund placed in my charge."

The President's Opinion Quoted. crat" and a "fugitive from oriminal justic

The President's Opinion Quoted. In contradistinction to those Mugwump opinions of yours, which were reported to have been so loudly cheered by the Democrats at Cooper Union, permit me, in con-clusion, to quote for you the sentiments exclusion, to quote for you the sentiments expressed by President Harrison upon the Irish love of their native land, which you consider such a grave offense against "oriminal justice." In addressing a delegation of Irish-Americans he said: "You are Americans-Irish-Americans—and though you have given the concentrated loyalty of your honest hearts to the starry flag and your adopted country, you have not forgotten, and you ought not to forget, to love and venerate the land of your nativity. If you could forget Ireland, if you could be unmoved by her splendid orstory, unsympathetic with her horoes and marryrs, I should lear that the bond of your new citizenship would have no power over hearts so cold and cousclences so dead. What if a sprig of green was found upon the bloody lacket of a Union soldier who lay dead on Alission Ridge? The flag he died for was his flag, and the green was only a memory and an inspiration." Your obedient servent,

ALL who are exposed to the weather should keep Dr. Buil's Cough Syrup handy.

Miss M. O. Elliott, of Redstone, Fayette county. Pa., was the holder of registered card No. 3053, entitling her to the elegant new Singer sewing machine that has been exhibited at the Exposition this season.

The drawing was conducted in the presence of a large number of people, who were very much interested as to the result.

The Singer Company has, for each of the past four years, given away a fine machine, and the large number of names entered on their register indicates the popularity of the Singer machine with the public.

Consumers know exactly what they are eating. It is the strongest of all pure cream of tartar powders.

A rounded teaspoonful will do as much as a hanging one of any other.

Food raised with it does not dry up quickly, as when made with other powders.

It is more convenient and more economical than the ordinary cream of tartar and soda.

The latest official reports show it to be first class, and first in its class.

The U. S. Government buys it for the Army officers.

Government Chemists, State Assayers and other official authorities testify to its superiority.

Writers on domestic science, as Marion Harland, Mrs. McBride and Mrs. Parker, endorse it.

Teachers of cooking, as Mrs. Lincoln, Mrs. Rorer and Mrs. Dearborn, prefer it.

These are some of its points of excellence; others may have occurred to some of the thousands of women who are using it every day. Other facts are given in our cook book. Mailed free.
