

COOK HALL ATTACKED.

His Evidence Against His Pals Declared Unworthy of Belief.

INTERESTING LAW POINT RAISED.

The Penn Bank Bobs Up Again, This Time in the Supreme Court.

A MAN CONVICTED OF STEALING GAS

The trial of Hughes and Coleman for post-office robberies was brought to a close yesterday, the case being given to the jury at 3:20. The jury had not brought in a verdict when the court rose. Nothing of profound interest was developed in the closing of the case for the prosecution, but Mr. Breene's powerful plea for the two prisoners made a marked impression.

Mr. Breene called no witnesses for the defense, but asked the court to instruct the jury in accordance with 18 points which he submitted. Most of these instructions were aimed to impeach the evidence given by Cook Hall. Mr. Breene contended that Hall, as a convicted murderer and an accomplice of the defendants, was open to grave suspicion in all his testimony, which would require corroboration by other competent witnesses.

The Charge Favors the Prisoners. Judge Buffington subsequently in his charge practically instructed the jury as desired by Mr. Breene. Mr. Breene's closing speech was an admirable effort, and included everything possible to be said for the prisoners.

District Attorney Lyon's address to the jury was brief and dwelt most heavily upon the circumstantial chain of evidence corroborative of Cook's testimony.

Judge Buffington charged the jury chiefly upon the law in the case, and was assisted by the prisoners' counsel to be as fair and impartial as could be wished. The prisoners' attitude was one of anxious anticipation, and Cook Hall's eagerness while Attorney Breene was lambasting him excited remark. Hall sat at the counsel table with his hat on his knees, his hands loosely clasped, and his eyes fixed on the jury all through the closing session.

THE PENN BANK AGAIN.

Argument in the Supreme Court on exceptions to the Auditor's Report—A Suit Against the Royal Arcanum—Other Allegheny County Cases Heard. The defendant Penn Bank bobbed up in the Supreme Court yesterday. The appeal of Jacob N. Walters from the decree of Common Pleas Court No. 1, of this county, was argued. This is an appeal from a decree, dismissing the exceptions filed on behalf of the appellant to the report of the auditor appointed to distribute the funds shown by the account of Assignee Henry Warner, of the Penn Bank. The substance of those exceptions was that the auditor had erred in reflecting the claim of Mr. Walters for $2,300.30, said to be due to him as a depositor in the Penn Bank.

The case of Lenora A. Hamill against the Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum was argued. It is an action to recover $3,000 insurance on the death of plaintiff's husband, who was a member of the order. There was an argument in the case of Clara R. Beatty against the Supreme Council, mandamus: United Order of the Golden Cross of the World, a foreign corporation, an action to recover $2,000 on a benefit certificate.

The libel case of Joseph Jackson against the Times was argued. This was a case based on certain publications in the defendant paper concerning Jackson's action while on duty as First Lieutenant of Company G, Fourteenth Regiment, N. G. P., at Johnston during the first week in June, 1889.

BEAT A GAS COMPANY.

Got a Supply of Fuel Through a Little Gum Hose. In Criminal Court yesterday Jacob Mosberger was convicted of stealing gas from the Philadelphia Company. Mosberger lives on Miltonberger street and it was proven that he had connected the company's supply pipe with the fixtures in his house by means of a gum hose, and had used gas for several months.

Anton Blume, charged with felonious assault and battery by Charles T. Dougherty, of Lawrenceville, was found guilty. Mary Lee, charged with malicious mischief by Ann Connelly, of Sharpburg, was acquitted. A verdict of not guilty was rendered in the case of W. C. Wentz, charged by A. A. Alles, the Southside real estate agent, with larceny.

James Hunter, charged with felonious assault and battery on L. Smerlock, was found guilty of simple assault. Joseph Song, charged with the same offense by Thomas Koch, was found guilty of simple assault and recommended to the mercy of the court.

To-Day's Trial Lists. Criminal Court—Commonwealth vs David and Hannah Grassman (murder), Nicholas Augustine, James Murray, William Hughes, Jean Baptiste, Alfred Danvaran, Fritz Ruthcamp, Henry Geiss, Dallas Evers, Lizzie McGarvy, Christ Hauk (3), Lehana Steele, John Kurrdorfer, John K. Shuman, Charles W. A. Lennon, Orville A. Meredith, Grace Brown, Harvey Graham, William Lodge, James Jones, John Burt, Henry Buss, George Marling, Dr. James A. Taylor, Samuel Weimer.

The Hum of the Courts.

The suit of Fritz Badel against George Reagma for false arrest resulted in a verdict of $25 for the plaintiff. The jury is out in the case of Dr. J. H. Leyda against William Precott to recover a bill for medical attendance.

A verdict of $30 for the plaintiff was given in the case of Edward Finch, agent, against Thomas Carter, an action on an account. DAVID AND HANNAH ROSSMAN, charged with the murder of their child on July 21 at McKeessport, will be placed on trial in Criminal Court this morning.

THE TOWN CLOTHING WILD.

People From Everywhere Flooding to the Corner Grant and Diamond Streets—The P. C. C.—All Anxious to Get Some of the Big Bargains. This section of the country seems to have gone wild. The crowd, in one long stream, is headed toward the P. C. C. corner Grant and Diamond streets, and never before have so many people from out of town bought their clothing in Pittsburgh. Last week five big wholesale clothing manufacturers sold out their entire fall and winter production to two large retail concerns; the leading American clothiers, H. H. King & Co., of New York, and the P. C. C. of Pittsburgh (whom all know well), were the buyers. It took 30 carloads to bring the stock here, and the bills of lading showed that the P. C. C. had the possession of the enormous amount from Naumburg, Kraus, Lauer & Co., 657 Broadway; Hornbush, Weisman & Co., 670 Broadway; H. & R. Brown, 724 Broadway; Steinhart Heideleber, 725 Broadway; and Hymas Bros. & Co., 629 Broadway—all makers of fine clothing. Everyone in the area considers it the biggest deal in clothing ever heard of. This enormous amount is now being disposed of and the sale will proceed from day to day until everything is sold. This gives the public a chance to buy at wonderful low prices at the P. C. C. overcoats, ulsters and suits for men and boys at next to nothing. You may as well get the benefit of this great opportunity—others have already supplied themselves. Be on hand today and you'll see the largest stock of clothing in Pittsburgh and secure the greatest bargains of your life. Here are a few sample specimens. They'll walk up the men who want to save money and make all others who try to quote bargains to match these take a back seat. More overcoats and ulsters in this sale than is contained in all the stores of Pittsburgh combined.

Men's blue and black double-breasted cheviot suits, sizes 34 to 42, worth $15, at $7.50. Men's overcoats, blue, black and drab, lined with cassimere cloth, also silk velvet, mid coat, worth $15, at $7.50. Men's long-cut cassimere overcoats, well made, worth $10, at $5.00. Men's elegant fall overcoats, in all patterns to choose from, all sizes, regular price $16, at $7.50. Men's elegant fall overcoats, in blue, Oxford, tan, brown and gray, silk faced and silk sleeve linings, worth $18, at $9.00. Long-cut ulsters, made up of chinchilla and Shetland, great cold weather garments, worth $15, this sale $7.50 for.

Men's heavy beaver and chinchilla overcoats, fine goods, black, blue and brown shades, worth $25, at $10.00. Men's fine ulsters, extra long cut, big collars, cassimere cloth lined, worth $15, during this sale at $7.00. Men's fine overcoats, made of the best cloth, elegantly lined and designed, equal to merchant tailors' make, worth $20, at $10.00. Men's fine suits, in black goods, silk mixtures, wales and clay diagonals, tailors charge $25 and $35 to make, our price $10.00. Men's fine Prince Albert suits, pants, suits and coats, or, different if preferred, regular price $25, now $10.00. Besides the above bargains many others we display a wonderful line of the choicest high grade overcoats and ulsters ever shown in this city. The finest imported kersey, melton and fur beaver, silk and satin-lined, and all at the lowest of prices.

Boys' double-breasted suits, sizes 4 to 14, worth $2.50, at $1.25. Boys' neat cassimere suits, pleated or plain, sizes 4 to 14, at $1.40. Boys' all-wool suits, double-breasted, nice patterns, worth $4, at $2.00. Boys' long pants suits, sizes 4 to 14, $3.50 and $4.00. Men's worsted pants at $1.75 and $2.50, equal to the $4 and $5 usual qualities. Remember that this is the greatest chance you ever had to buy fine, well-made clothing at such extremely low prices. Nobody should miss it. In addition to the people living out of town may have the same benefit of our great sale as those residing in Pittsburgh and Allegheny we will refund your rail fare on every purchase of $10 and over. Don't miss it. Sale now on at the P. C. C. Clothiers, corner Grant and Diamond streets.

Whatever You Do.

Look over your fur now. While you can be served on short notice now, such cannot be the case later on, when the rush has set in. Bring your fur without further delay. I will clean, repair, or simply clean them, whatever is needed. But they will look like new garments again, and it will cost you only a trifle. W. M. GRABOWSKY, Practical Furrier, 707 Penn. ave.

Daniel Webster Is a Good Cook. Daniel Webster is a colored cook, who is chef, porter and waiter in Austin Corbin's suspicious private car, the Oriental. It is as a cook he has won his laurels. It is not known whether he uses Camellia Hour or not, but as he makes the best bread on the road, it is fair to suppose that his favorite brand, as it is with all good bread bakers.

Don't Take the Risk. Of fire or thieves, but keep your valuable papers, bonds, etc., in the safe deposit vaults of the Farmers' Deposit National Bank, 65 Fourth avenue. Boxes rented at $5 a year and upward.

Looking After Your Furs. Pays handsomely. If they show signs of long service bring them to No. 707 Penn. avenue, where they can be resanned, re-dyed, cleaned, etc., and all this at a small outlay of cash. Your garments will look as good as new after they have handled them. W. M. GRABOWSKY, Practical Furrier, 707 Penn. avenue.

WHAT TO EAT

is a difficult problem with many people because but few articles of food agree with them. The doctor says AVOID GREASE and the result is unpalatable food. The reason the physician objects to grease is because lard is the article most used, and every physician knows that hog lard in any shape is unhealthy and indigestible.

which is composed of pure cottonseed oil and pure beef suet—nothing else—not even salt. It is better than either lard or butter for all cooking uses, and one pound of Cottolene will do as much as two pounds of lard or butter, and it costs less than either.

Every housekeeper that tries Cottolene will find it is just what she wants. Beware of imitations—get the genuine of your grocer.

FALSE WORKS GIVE WAY.

Hurling a Train 60 Feet into a River at a Sacrifice of 12 Lives. SPOKANE, WASH., Oct. 25.—A dreadful accident occurred on the construction line of the Great Northern Railroad yesterday, resulting in the death of seven of the men, the fatal injury of five more and the serious injury of six others. The dead are: John Leonard, conductor, of St. Paul; John Johnson, James Wright, Daniel Walkuhr, Nels Nelson, J. Brady and A. Olsen. The fatally injured are: J. Gilmon, back and both legs broken; J. Robertson, skull fractured; J. Nelson, chest crushed by timbers and both arms broken; J. J. Campbell, struck in abdomen with steel rail and hor-ribly injured; J. Linville, head crushed and body terribly lacerated.

The track-laying crew had finished work up to Wenatchee river, and yesterday morning started to lay rails across that stream. The east approach and the first span were crossed safely, but when the middle of the second span was reached, the false work under the bridge collapsed and the track machine, together with two carloads of ties and three cars loaded with rails, fell into the river, 60 feet below. The men were thrown in every direction, and some of them buried under ties and rails.
