

BOTH SIDES CERTAIN.

Republicans and Democrats Claim the Important States.

MEASURES TO PREVENT FRAUD

Adopted at a Conference of the Protective Party Leaders.

PREPARING FOR THE COMING MEETINGS

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—An important conference was held this afternoon at the Republican headquarters, and the situation in New York was the matter under discussion. Senator Quay, Chairman Carter, General Clarkson, Secretary McConna and Mr. Manly were present. Those participating went fully into details, and Mr. Quay gave some valuable advice and his plans for the future, and particularly the means he had adopted to prevent fraud at the ballot box and for watching the Democratic workers. During the balance of the campaign Senator Quay will lead his valuable services and advice to the committee.

Ex-Governor Cheney, of New Hampshire, said today: "The electoral vote of our State will be given to Harrison. We expect to elect our Governor by popular vote, but will do so anyway in the Legislature. The two members of Congress we regard as sure, and in fact the entire general ticket. We have some terrible old fellows up there, and as a rule don't know where we stand until the vote is counted. The money and free trade plank in the Democratic platform are receiving earnest attention from business men and wage earners who have formerly supported the Democratic ticket, and while many will not vote outside party lines, they do take much interest, and I expect a great number will not vote at all on this account."

Hiscock Thinks Look Well.
Senator Hiscock was closeted with several members of the committee today, and regarding the situation said: "I have been in different sections of the State, and the interest is increasing everywhere. In my judgment we are going to poll a full Republican vote. Things look fully as well in the interior as in 1888, and the unusually large registration is decidedly in our favor."

The news of Mrs. Harrison's death was received with general regret at headquarters and a very quiet day followed in consequence. The committee had issued a notice to the effect that, out of respect to the memory of Mrs. Harrison, it was the wish of the National Committee, that all street parades and campaign demonstrations be deferred until after the funeral of the late Mrs. Harrison. The individual members of the committee made haste to extend to the President and family expressions of sympathy, and a number of telegrams were sent.

Business Men Want No Change.
Hon. Charles E. Coon, candidate for Congress in the Tenth district against General Sikes, said he expected to be elected, and the general feeling among Republicans was of confidence. He said he expected no changes and would support the ticket in every way possible.

Linna Harbanti, who has been speaking in the interior of the State, said: "I have no signs of the apathy complained of. Last night I addressed a meeting at Manuet in Democratic Rockland county; they raised the first Republican banner there ever seen in the town, and the meeting was large and enthusiastic. The State bank issue is working largely in our interests, and old-time voters have very unpleasant memories of the money and, and ways demonstrate it when the matter is referred to in a speech. I have met many Democrats who will vote with us this year all over the State and the farmers are unusually interested and will poll a large vote on our side."

The Big Meeting of To-Day.
The big business men's meeting of to-morrow promises to be most noteworthy, and the great parade of Saturday, which is expected to have 75,000 men in line, will be reviewed by Mr. Cleveland and General Stevenson at Madison square.

The many heartfelt expressions of sympathy heard to-day at headquarters from prominent Democrats for President Harrison and his afflicted family were very noticeable, and business was practically suspended. The great Tennessean demonstration to-night practically overshadowed politics for the time being and but little else was talked of in political circles and among the many who were present at various headquarters in and about the city.

Mr. Boyd Winchester, of Kentucky, ex-Minister to Switzerland returned from Cleveland, has just returned from an extended campaign tour through the West and South-west, and is now on his way to Connecticut and Massachusetts where he will speak this week. Regarding the situation generally he seemed to consider it a sure thing for the ticket, and said in Tennessee, where he spoke a few days ago, he had an immense audience in the Republican stronghold, Knoxville, and was told that Cleveland would receive many Republican votes there, enough, so that the party movement represented by Governor Buchanan would not take away at the most more than 10,000 votes, and leave the Democratic plurality this year at least 25,000.

Claiming States for Cleveland.
In Kentucky he claims the State by 30,000, and every Congressional district but one, which was left Republican in the apportionment, but a vigorous fight was going on there and the Republican plurality of 11,000 would be very much reduced.

"New York, in my opinion, will go Democratic," said ex-Governor Campbell of Ohio. "I am just from the battle grounds of that State, and after a careful study of the situation there I am convinced of Cleveland's victory. In New York City all differences have been adjusted. In my trip about the State, during which I made a number of speeches, I found the Cleveland sentiment strong. We are saying nothing regarding Ohio. We hope for the best. I am sure, however, that the success of the Democratic ticket in Indiana and Connecticut."

Needs assistance. It may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and genuine remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Looking After Your Furs.
Pays handsomely. If they show signs of long service bring them to No. 707 Penn avenue, where they can be re-shined, re-dyed, cleaned, etc., and all this at a small outlay of cash. For fur garments they look as good as new after this treatment.

SPOILS A DEED FOR A LOT.
Effect of a Supreme Court Decision on the Vacation of Castleman Street.

The vacation of Castleman street, from Amberson avenue to Bidwell, which caused so much discussion when it was done three years ago, is again in dispute. D. D. Bruce, S. S. Marvin and others claim that the striking down of the old street laws by the Supreme Court invalidated the vacation proceedings, and they have petitioned for a board of viewers to reopen the street. E. M. Ferguson and others oppose Mr. Ferguson has sold a lot which includes part of the street, and if the new proceedings are carried out cannot give a clear title. A lively hearing was had in the case yesterday, but it was not settled, and is not likely to be except by the courts.

Thomas Haley was before Judge McKenna yesterday for disorderly conduct. He fell on his knees before the Magistrate and begged that he might go to Latrobe and die. He claimed he had heart disease, and wanted to go there so he could be interred by the side of his father and mother. His wish was allowed.

Will Get Into Trouble.
Those two liquor dealers who are buying up the empty bottles and refilling them with inferior whiskey and selling it as Silver Age Rye, will get into trouble if they do not stop it now. They forget that the word is hyphenated and the metallic cup stamped with my monogram trade mark. It won't do, boys, the goods are too well known. Silver Age is a household article and sells everywhere at $1.50 per full quart. Headquarters, 82 Federal street, Allegheny, Pa.
