C'DONNELL WRITES A LETTER.

He Says the History of Homestead Strike Will Make Interesting Reading. Hugh O'Donnell has written a letter to Baltimore friend. The letter is dated at the Allegheny County Jail, Pittsburg, Pa. After dealing with personal matters, Mr. O'Donnell speaks of the Homestead strike as follows: "You know how we were on that morning in welcoming the troops that were afterward used to aid the Carnegie Company to defeat us. Nearly half a regiment of these same troops were scarcely on the field ere they cast aside their muskets and took our positions in the mill. Was that honorable? And they were aided and abested by their superior officers.

When the true history of the Home stead lockout is written it will make 'mighty interesting reading.' Outside of a few hot heads the conduct of our men has been most magnificent under all the trying circumstances that have surrounded them. There have been just 47 desertions out of a total of 3,800 men. The situation has not materially changed; the same firmness that characterized them at the beginning is still

CHOICE PROPERTIES

BEECHWOOD PARK PLAN.

These lots front on Shady, Denniston and Linden avenues, the latter paved, and on the beautiful 80-look boulevard, known as Beechwood avenue, now being surveyed by the City Engineers, which, when completed, will connect Highland and Schenley Parks, the two beautiful garden spots of which Pittsburgers feel so justly proud.

These lots certainly commend themselves to the attention of careful investors for many reasons. For instance, they lay beautifully, command views that are unsurpassed in the whole East Liberty Valley, are in an elegant, first-class neighborhood, and are the most convenient plan of lots in this coming field to cable and electric cars.
