TWELVE PAGES

A DEMOCRATIC DISCOVERY.

A striking example of what one of Captain Marriott's nautical characters terms "flapdoodle"—the stuff they feed fools with—is afforded by the New York Morning Journal, in its comments on the heinous offense of Watson, the People's party Congressman of Georgia, calling for Federal supervisors at the polls in his district.

The People's party is serving the Democratic cause. That is the only possible result that can come from any success that it can win.

AN ORGANS EVASION.

There is a striking confession in the following excuse of the New York Evening Post for refusing to publish an advertisement of the biography of Gilyroy, the Tammany candidate for Mayor, which it had previously given in its columns when fighting Tammany.

A PERTINENT EXAMPLE.

The Midland puddlers have just submitted to a reduction of wages which makes the price of puddling $1.81 per ton.

DIFFERENCE IN LABOR COST.

The New York Times has been attacking Senator Sherman for defining in a recent speech the purpose of protection to be to cover the difference in labor cost of the various industries of this country and those of Europe.

It simply amounts to persistent misrepresentation. The "wages paid per ton for converting iron into steel rails" is not much more justly the labor cost of the product than the sewing of the buttons on a coat represents its entire labor cost.

This is, therefore, simply misrepresentation by resorting to the old trick of balancing the wages in a final process of manufacture against the entire duty.

A specimen of free trade logic, however, is presented by the Times' assertion "that a duty which exceeds the entire value of the selling price of the product must exceed the labor cost of that product."

There is little to choose between the wisdom of the man who votes for Mr. Cleveland and the folly of him who votes on his success.

A VOICE FROM WALES.

We have received a copy of the Llanelli and County Guardian of October 29, with an intimation accompanying it that the editor would be pleased to have an article on the timplat question noticed in THE DISPATCH.

Our Welsh cotemporary with a long name starts out with the point that its town is the pioneer and center of the English timplat industry, and "is known as the Timplat of the World."

THE CONTRIBUTION ROERBACK.

The favorite Democratic pastime this year is to credit certain millionaires with pouring immense sums of money into the coffers of the Republican campaign committee.

CAMPAIGN NEWS AND COMMENT.

It is now practically conceded that the Republican majority in Philadelphia will be 10,000 or possibly 20,000 larger than in 1888.

MAJOR GOURLAY'S vetoes and Pittsburgh streets are apparently both regarded by Council as something designed to be overridden by traction companies.

POLITICAL MAGNATES who are busy distributing betting tips to their friends and supporters are laying up trouble for themselves. To begin with, it is a trifle ungentlemanly to engage in such a practice.

PRE-ELECTION utterances are all concerned with public principle. Post-election actions not uncommonly depend upon private interest.

ON the assumption that "to the pure all things are pure," there cannot be a superfluity of purity among the politicians who charge one another with using campaign funds for corruptive purposes.

THE abolition of grade crossings in Allegheny, like the burying of wires in Pittsburgh, is of an importance proportionate to the persistency with which its performance is postponed.

MASTERS OF MEN.

JOHNATHAN REEDY, living in Berks county, Pa., in 1788 and now living near Millmont, Union county, that State, was the first Federal vote for James Monroe in 1820.

THOMAS LINCOLN, who lives in Fountain Green township, Illinois, is a cousin of the late President. He is more than 80 years old.

THE TAYLOR HOSPITAL OPNS.

It is now claimed that the Democrats of Michigan were not to have a part in the Miner law which will give them a portion of Michigan's electoral vote.

ART AND MUSIC.

Combine to Make a Pleasant Evening at the Pittsburgh Club Theater.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—A local paper has the following: "New York and Philadelphia are strident in the sugar trust, but the World's Fair City will not be bulldozed a cent."

REBATE PLAN proposed at the national meeting of the wholesale grocers in New York last June, and would have been adopted had it not been for the active opposition of Chicago.
