

A WILD SPANISH MOB

Smashes Windows of Conservatives and Cry for a Republic.

COLUMBUS DECORATIONS RUINED

Because the Queen Regent Refused to Attend the Celebration.

OFFICIALS SCARED INTO RESIGNING

MADRID, Nov. 3.-The populace Grenada were greatly disappointed at Queen Regent Christina's refusal to visit the city with King Alfonso after great preparations had been made to receive them. The feeling of disappointment changed to one of anger, and a large mob went about the city and destroyed the handsome triumphal arches that had been erected. They set fire to the octrol officer and stood by while they burned. Then the mob proceeded to the stand that had been erected for the use of the royal party during the unveiling of a statue of Columbus, and completely destroyed it, together with a platform built for public use.

Finding no new mementos of the Columbus celebration on which to vent their anger, the crowd assailed the houses of the leaders of the Conservative party with stones, smashing the windows and doing other damage. While attacking the houses someone in the crowd started the cries of "Down with the Government;" "Long live the Republic." The cries were taken up by the mob, and for a time it looked as if a serious emeute would occur.

The revolutionary cries attracted the attention of the Civic Guard, as the rioting had not done, and a body of them made a charge upon the people, slashing right and left with their swords. A number of the rioters were quite severely injured. The mob made no resistance, and all who could do so made off at the top of their speed. Thirty of them fell into the hands of the Civic Guard and were locked up.

In consequence of the disturbance the Mayor of Grenada has resigned. The Minister of War, Minister of Public Works and Minister of Justice, who had arranged to go to Grenada to assist at the unveiling of the monument, have decided to postpone their journey, as they fear a hostile demonstra-tion. A third of the Grenada municipal authorities are republicans.

The absence of the Queen Regent is due to her desire to spare King Alfonso fatigue after his recent illness. The Civil Governor of Madrid has resigned in consequence of the recent ricting in the prado, growing out of the authorities' prohibition of an open-mir concert. It is expected that the Mayor will also resign to-day. The public is still highly excited because of the stoppage of the concert.

MRS, SMYTH PRODUCES WITNESSES

To Prove That the Disputed Brooch Was Really Her Own.

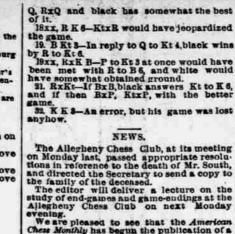

LONDON, Nov. 3.-The defense rested at the conclusion of to-day's session of the slander trial against Mrs. General Smyth. Major General Smyth testified he believed the brooch produced in court was his wife's. She had often worn it. Mrs. Smyth's daughter gave similar testimony. Mr. Astley, a jeweler, identified the brooch as one he had sold Mrs. Smyth. Mr. Currie, a casemaker, testified that the case in which Mrs. Leader said she kept the case had never been made for it. It did not fit. No jeweler would put the brooch in such a case. Mrs. Smyth's parlor maid and house-keeper both testified as to Mrs. Leader's visit to Mrs. Smyth in her bedroom at noon on September 21. Miss Ethel Wheeler, who had been in Cairo with Mrs. Leader, was then called. She said she did not remember seeing Mrs. Leader wear such a brooch. Sir Edward Clarke again called Mrs. Leader and pointed out to her the discrepancy in her testimony when she said Captain French had sent her the brooch, saying he had been on a Black Mountain expedition, whereas, as a matter March, 1891. This closed the case for the defense, and Sir Edward Clarke began his argument in behalf of Mrs. Smyth. Atter the argument of Mr. Lockwood in behalf of Mrs. Leader the court adjourned for the

NEW GUIDE TO THE GAME.

LEES, THE NOTED ANALYST AND REVISEB OF DRUMMOND'S WORKS, THE AUTHOR.

LEES, THE NOTED ANALIST AND REVISEB OF DRUMNOND'S WORKS, THE AUTHOR. Mr. J. Gould, of Middlesbrough, has just issued a work by Mr. James Lees, of Dai-mellington, which alike for quality and quantity surpasses any thing yet published, even from the press of Mr. Gould, whose "Froblem Book" and "Memorable Matches" are known the world over. This "Guide to the Game of Draughts," it may be briefly stated, embraces 40 different openings, and gives over 1,300 games and variations, be-sides many notes pointing out wins, draws, and notable play. For the benefit of the strongest lines of attack and defense in each of the openings. In addition to what is usually found in other books, a chapter of tregular and reak openfings is given. This is a novel feature, and fine play sigven on the "Laird and Laity Relused," "Wagram," "Waterloo," and other bizarre openings not to be found in the books. That the play selected is the best may fairly be expected, seeing it is complied by such a talented analyst and writer as Mr. J. Lees; and a hurried run over shows that it introduces much that has never before been published. A section is also devoted to useful posi-tions, all of which are of stech importance to the game that they ought to be known by every player. Notes to the stam, with solu-tions, are also given. In the arrangement of the play Mr. Lees hadouted the system first used by Mr. Hill in his "Synopsis"-the handlest for ref-printed and Dound in cloich; and the price-ntis era of cheap books. The publisher. Mr. J. Gould, 'A South Street, Middlesbrough, will send it to any address on receipt of is 20.

This is rather severe criticism on such expert editors as Denvir, Ciouser, DeFeest, McAteer, Stearns, Calvert, Hull, etc. The death is announced of James Watson, an old Secretary of the Aberdeen Draughts Club, on Thursday, the 13th ult. The world's champion keeps up his great record of winning nearly all the games he plays. His total score in Glasgow was: Games played, 702; won, 626; lost, 2: drawn, 54. Mr. A. J. ## DUSTER AT M'DONALD.

Dry Hole Reported on the McDonald Bros. Property-An Improvement in a Well at Gregg Station-Wells on Top of the Sands at Undercliff.

The only well reported yesterday as completed was the Devonian Oil Company's No. 3 on the McDonald Bros.' property at McDonald. Several days ago it was reported to be showing light, and yesterday it was known to a certainty that it would not make an oil well.

The People's Gas Company's No. 157 on the McMurray property at Gregg station, which was reported some time ago as good for only 20 barrels a day, is putting out 180 barrels only 20 barrels a day, is putting out 180 barrels every 24 hours, and has been averaging al-most that amount since it was drilled in. They were cleaning out their No. 156 Mc-Murray yesterday afternoon. This is the well at which the rig was burned while they were dropping a squib to put off a shot. As there is some doubt as fo whether the shot has been exploded the men were proceeding very cautionsly with the work. The Wheeling Gas Company's No. 4 on the Richard Gladden farm was on top of the 50-foot sand last evening, in which they ex-pect to get a gas vein. This company has located No. 2 on the Griffith and No. 1 on the John George farm, both of which are located near Venice, five miles south of Mc-Donald. Knox Bros. & Co.'s No. 2 Scott, two miles bonald. Knox Bros. & Co.'s No. 2 Scott, two miles southwest of of McDonald, is down 2,150 feet. They were expecting the 50-foot yesterday, in which a big gasser is a probability. It is being drilled by Morrissey Bros., who have averaged 100 feet a day, which, they claim, is the instest time ever made in the field. They expect the fifth sand at 2,530 feet. The Forest Oil Company will reach the Gordon sand Monday, with good luck, at their No. 1 on the Wailace farm. Their well on the Turner lot east of Oakdale is due in the fifth to-morrow morning. They have started to drill at No. 10 on the Herron farm. The Forest's No. 6 on the Clever farm in northest McCurdy was making 35 barrels an hour yesterday. an hour yesterday.
