Before he could answer a well-dressed woman among the spectators jumped to her feet and exclaimed that she had a knife and if he said he had not he told what was not true. Judge Ewing ordered the woman brought before him, and when, looking very much frightened, she was led in front of the bench, he told her an officer would conduct her out of the court and she was not to come back until she learned to behave herself like a lady.

HEBER NEWTON CLEARED.

The Episcopal Commission Deems His Utterances Not Exactly Orthodox, but Ascribes Them to His Moods—The Church Broad Enough to Tolerate Him.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The commission appointed more than 12 months ago by Bishop Potter to investigate charges of heresy against the Rev. Dr. Heber Newton, has reported the charges as "not proven." The commission has been engaged ever since its formation in hearing evidence, but after several meetings, when the testimony of witnesses was taken, they decided "that the catholicity of the Episcopal Church was broad and sufficiently large to allow a man to preach according to his moods. The utterances of Dr. Newton must be ascribed to his mood, and we trust that he, upon consideration, will see his way clear to revoicing the utterances in question."

This verdict, which was signed by all the commission, was handed to Bishop Potter two weeks ago, but has not been made public by him. Dr. Newton has been informed of it, and now that the cloud that has been hanging over his head for 12 months has been removed, he has asked his congregation for a 12 months' leave of absence in order that he may have complete rest and change. It has been said that the commission was disposed to be friendly to Dr. Newton on account of his illness. This is emphatically denied by C. E. Peters, Bishop Potter's private secretary.

"The charges were heard fully and impartially," he said, "and the commission was composed of men of too great integrity to be swayed, even by feelings of friendship for Dr. Newton. Some of them were opposed to him, so far as theological thought is concerned, and would have brought in a verdict of 'guilty' had they been so impressed by the evidence brought before them."

THE IRISH FUND IN PARIS.

American Bankers Will Feel Perfectly Safe Before They Give Up the Money.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—John Munroe, the head of the American banking firm of Messrs. Munroe, speaking of the Irish funds for his firm, said today that it was quite true a letter had been received from Justin McCarthy, asking what formalities the firm would require in order to allow the Irish funds to be withdrawn.

"We replied that we would refer the matter to our legal adviser," said Mr. Munroe. "This we have already done. As to the other statements in the English and Irish press as to the political side of the question, we have nothing to say, as that does not concern us. We are simply bankers who hold money in trust. We do not intend to give it up until we are assured by our legal advisers that we can do so with perfect prudence, without danger of having to refund it twice over."
