

THE LAW ALL RIGHT.

Philadelphians Universally Admire the Baker Ballot System, and It BRINGS OUT A BIG VOTE.

The Fine Weather and Curiosity Work to a Very Good End.

A FULL EXPRESSION OF OPINION And a Fair One, Under the Secret Manner of Casting a Vote.

ELECTION DAY IN THE QUAKER CITY

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—The day was fair and warm.

It was the first election held under the new ballot law, and as had been expected, there was some delay early in the day in explaining the system to those who had not informed themselves beforehand.

The duties of their positions had been thoroughly explained to the election officers, and as the voters presented themselves at the booths they were furnished with a ballot, went to one of the stalls, marked it as they wished and deposited it in the box.

The business men showed a remarkable familiarity with the new law, and in the downtown wards there was no friction. In the outlying wards and in those portions of the city inhabited by a foreign element, the election officers experienced some considerable difficulty during the earlier hours of the morning in explaining the new ballot law.

The voting commenced early and continued active from the start.

At noon the vote was nearly twice as heavy as that of the same time in prior years, and by 3 o'clock in many districts the vote was all in.

Few Ballots Improperly Marked. How many ballots were improperly marked cannot be told.

At 8 o'clock the vote was nearly twice as heavy as that of the same time in prior years, and by 3 o'clock in many districts the vote was all in.

It HAS COME TO STAY. Everybody at Harrisburg Pleased With the New Law.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 8.—[Special.]—The sentiment of the voters of this city, with a few exceptions, is in full accord with the declaration recently made by Governor Pattison, that the new ballot law has come to stay.

At no time were the polls uncomfortably crowded, and half of the booths in position would have been sufficient to meet the requirements of the day.

Mr. Jacob H. Walter, ex-Prothonotary of the county and at present marine clerk for this internal revenue district, is lying at his residence in Springdale suffering from a broken leg and dislocated ankle.

Two Local Scrapers Indulge. Jack Tobin and Pat Farrell, local pugilists fought to a finish in an alley off Penn avenue Monday night.

A Fortune Teller in the Role of Detective. Harry Newman, of Carpenter's alley, is charged by his grandmother, Wilhelmina Moninger, with stealing her gold watch.

This is the season of colds. Fortify the system with Klein's Silver Age Tonic, $1.50 per quart.

Dewey's Little Early Risers. No griping, no pain, no nausea; easy pill to take.

A BOY MURDERER'S FATE.

Peter Schultz, Aged 16, Must Die in the Electric Chair—The Youngest Victim of Electroecution New York Has Yet Had—He Killed a Mere Baby.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Peter Schultz, the 16-year-old boy who was convicted of the murder of the 3-months-old child of Mary Wertheimer, last week, has been sentenced to death.

Schultz, you are tried and fairly convicted by a jury selected mostly by your own counsel, and nothing remains now but for the Court to pass the only sentence which the law provides for murder in the first degree.

The death warrant was signed and handed to the Sheriff, who is reported to be trembling back to his cell.

The horrible crime for which Schultz was sentenced has been fully told. Hitherto the prisoner has evinced absolutely no feeling in regard to the crime or his own fate.

Schultz will be the youngest victim to suffer death by means of the electric chair, unless he is granted clemency by Governor Flower.

The Strike More Frenzied Than Ever—The Mayor Throws Up His Hands in Despair, and the Governor Can't Do Anything—Workers in Session.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 8.—The strike is today giving way to election. The effect of the strike is apparent principally in the dropping of the labor vote.
