FIGURES ON THE SENATE.

Both Parties Claim It, and the Populists May Hold the Balance.

Possibility of Five Independent or Weaver Senators-Incomplete Returns From Far Western States Delay the Exact Determination of the Result-Democrats Surely Gain Senators in New York and Wisconsin, and Perhaps in California and Montana.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] NEW YORK, Nov. 9.-The landslide has carried with it a Democratic majority in the Lower House of Congress second only to that secured in the clean sweep of 1890. The most conservative estiheard places the Democrats mate over the Republicans at 75. There is much speculation as to the Senate, and the weight of opinion is that the Populist Senators will hold the balance of power in that body. Some Republican leaders think the party control of the Senate may be maintained by a narrow margin.

The Sun sums up the situation thus: It is probable that the Democrats will have a majority in the United States after the 4th of March next. The present Senate is divided as follows: Republicans, 47; Demoerats, 39; Independents, 2. The result of Tuesday's election is the probable loss of eight Republican Senators, one each in the State of California, Kansas, Montana, Nebrasks. Nevada, New York, Wisconsin and Wyoming. The Republican Senators thus retired are Messrs. Felton, Perkins, Paddock, Stewart, Hiscock, Sawyer and Warner.

The result of the election in Montana is still in great doubt, with indications favoring the Democrats and the retirement of Senator Sanders, which would be a loss of eight Republicans. In California, New York, Wisconsin and Wyoming Democrats will succeed these Republicans Senators whose terms expire, while in Kansas, Nebraska and Nevada the Populists will each gain a Senator.

It is likely that Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, at present a Rupublican Senator, while be chosen to succeed himself, and will be classed as a silverite. He will, however, be apt to vote with the Populists, as he and Francis G. Newlands, of Nevada, who has been elected to the House as a silverite, indorsed the Alliance platform in order to carry the State against Harrison. In Kansas and Nebraska straightout Populists will be elected and in the former State Charles Van Wyck, the defeated Populist candidate for Governor, will probably be chosen Senwill elect the successor to Senator Dawes. ator, as he has been in charge of the Alliance campaign in the State.

Rhode Island; Allen, Washington; Dawes, Massachusetts; Felton, California; Hale, Maine; Hawley, Connecticut; Proctor, Ver-mont; Quay, Pennsylvania; Sherman, Ohio, and Warren, Wyoming. Recently arrived indications from Wyo-ming are to the effect that Senator Warren will probably be defeated. The eight Re-publican seats which were some time ago regarded as doubtful, are those of Senator Casev, of North Daketa; Senator Paddock, of Nebraaka; Senator Hiscock, of New York; Senator Sanders, of Montana; Sen-ator Sawyer, of Wisconsin; Senator Stockbridge, of Michigan; Senator Stockbridge, of Michigan; Senator Davis, of Minnesota. Of these Senator Hiscock will certainly be succeeded by a Democrat, and there are strong chances that a like fate may befall Senator Paddock. Senator Stockbridge is almost certain to His Porch Broken Down by the Crowds Stevenson and his family retired after carefully watching the returns and receiving the great multitude of visitors who called to extend to him their congratulations upon the Democratic victory. Every foot of room was jammed with people crowding in to grasp General Stevenson's hands. Those upon the outside who could not get in crowded up as close as possible to the house. Such a number got upon the front porch that it gave way, and this morning the doorvard is all trampled as if by droves of wild buffalo. as if by droves of wild buffalo. General Stevenson arose at an early hour this morning, to get what additional returns were procurable, and spent the day at his home, receiving visitors and their congrat-ulations and telegrams. Hundreds of tel-grams have been pouring in upon him from all parts of the country. This afternoon General Stevenson sent his congratulations to ex-President Cleveland. Among the congratulatory telegrams to General Steven-son were the following: The First Time the Democrats Elect State Officers Since 1882, HARTFORD, Nov. 9.-[Special.]-The Democrats swept this State clean in yesterday's election. Cleveland's majority in the State four years ago was 326; this year it is over 5,000. Besides, the Democratic State ticket is elected throughout by the people, for the first time since the election of Governor Waller in 1882. The vote on State officers varies little from the vote for President. In previous years the Democratic State officers have received pluralities, but as a majority is necessary to elect in this State the election has been thrown into the Legislature which, as a Republican body, has chosen Republican State officers. This year all the Democratic State officers have large majorities and all the Legisla-ture will have to concern itself about will be the election of a United States Senator. The State Senate wil be a tie, with a Demo cratic Lieutenant Governor casting the deciding vote. The House of Representatives will be Republican by 14 majority, thus insuring the return of a Republican United States Senator. Democrats elect three out of four members of Congress; Lewis Sperry, in the First District; James P. Pigott in the Second, and R. E. De Forest in the Fourth. Charles A. Russell (Rep.) is returned in the Third district.

Complete figures on Connecticut: Harri-son, 76,989; Cleveland, 82,406; plurality, 5,-417. For Governor, Morris (Dem)., 82,269; Merwin (Rep)., 76,402; Morris' majority over all, 1,115.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.-[Special.]-Governor Russell has again proved the strength of the popular favor by winning the Gov ernorship in a Republican State in a Presidental election. It is a great triumph for him personally. It is nothing else. Aside from the election of Governor the Democrats have lost heavily in the State. It was expected that the Republican plurality for the national ticket would be smaller than it was four years ago. But the State repudiated the wave of free tradeism which swept

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 9.-United States Senator David B. Hill was waited upon by a reporter of the Associated Press, this evening, and asked to give his opinion on he results of the general election held yesterday. Senator Hill said:

"I am reluctant to be interviewed for wo reasons:

"First-Ever since the Chicago Convention I have adhered to the rule to confine my political utterances to my public speeches. A few bogus interviews have appeared, however, to which I paid no attention, not caring to dignify them with a denial.

"Second-After a successful election it seems to be the fashion for everybody to rush into print and claim some share of the credit for the victory. It was so in 1890, when we swept the country, and it will probably be so now. I prefer not to indulge in any such unseemly scramble, where those who do the least valuable work before an election usually shout the loudest afterward. Nevertheless, I am willing to say a few words in regard to the great victory, lest my silence might be misconstrued."

"Did the result please you, Senator?" sked the reporter.

As Happy as All Good Democrats,

"Every good Democrat will heartily reoice over the return of the Democratic party to power in the nation," he replied. 'The victory is most overwhelming and gratifying. It is not only a personal tri-umph of ex-President Cleveland, and a just tribute to him, but it is a vindication of the Democratic principles which he cham-ptoned. The people were opposed to a force bill and desired tariff reform, and upon those two issues we have won the victory. Unquestionably the Federal election issue kept several Southern States with us which might otherwise have gone for the Third party. I trust that our victory will carry with it the control of the United States Senate, which will enable us to place Democratic legislation upon the Federal statute books. We will then cease to be a mere opposition party, and can secure the remedial legislation which the people demand, and that op-portunity will build up the Democratio party and make it strong. We must carry out our pledges by reforming the tariff and reducing Federal taxstion, not by harsh and extreme measures, but upon the conservative lines indicated in our platform and in the speeches of our candidate. If we shall secure the Senate we can show the neople the beneficent results of Democratic policies, and the good that we can accomplish will ensure us the power for many years.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] COLUMBUS, Nov. 9.-"Keep your eyes on Ohio," remarked ex-Governor Campbell at the National Democratic Convention at Chicago in response to a demand for a speech.

The figure which the Buckeye State will cut in this year of grace 1892 on the Presidental results promises to be the most sensational and acrobatic in its history. For the first time since the existence of the Republican party the result on the Presidental electors is in doubt. For the first time since Ohio gave Lincoln a plurality of nearly 35,000, in 1860, will the Republican plurality be less than 1,000, if there is any at all.

Waiting on the Official Figures.

The situation, just 24 hours after the polls have closed, is that it will require the official count to determine the result in Ohio. The official returns from nearly all of the 88 counties have been received, and it is anybody's race at this stage of the game. The case has become so grave that the Harrison electors would find cause to congratulate themselves if they had a safe plurality of 1,000, while Hon. S. M. Taylor and the rest of the Republican ticket will. as the jockeys say, have to make a desperate finish under the whip to win.

The country may also be treated to the spectacle of the election of the Presidental ticket and the defeat of the State ticket. It is more than likely, however, that the S ate ticket will be secured if the Harrison electors are chosen.

A Surprise All Along the Line, The Republicans met with a regular ground swell as regards the results on Congressmen. The Democrats have captured 11 of the 21 Congressmen. Colonel C. L. Poor- they think the official returns may vary the amall packages of express matter, Should the Legislature of Montana have a Democratic majority the Senate after the 4th of March will probably contain 39 Republicans, 45 Democrats and 5 Independents, including Kyle, of South Dakota, who styles himself an "Indecrat." If Montana succeeds Mr. Sanders with a Republican'there will be 40 Republicans, 43 Democrats and 5 Independents.

The returns from California, Kansas and Montana, however, are still incomplete, but should the claim of the Republicans be made good in those States the prospective majority of the Democrats in the Senate would not be imperiled, as the body would then contain 42 Republicans, leaving the combined opposition of Democrats and Independents 46 votes. A Complete List Not Ready.

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington says: Because of the lack of re-turns from all of the Congressional districts in the country it is yet impossible to make a comple list of the membership in the next House of Representatives. From the information at hand there

It looks now as though after the 4th of March next there will b 43 Republicans, 43 Democrats and 2 Farmers' Alliance representatives. One of these-Senator Peffer, of Kansas-would probably vote with the Republican party. Should Senator Kyle insist on being on the other side of any momentous question. there could easily be a tie, and this would have to be broken by the casting vote of the Vice President, who would necessarily vote with the Democrats.

The terms of 29 members of the Senate will expire March 3 next. Eighteen of these are Republicans and 11 are Democrati Of the latter there was some doubt as to the return of three-Faulkner, of West Virfeiding Turpie, of Indiana, and Gray, of Delaware. Figures already in would seem to snow quite clearly that Senator Faulkner will undoubtedly be re-elected. It is possible that the same disposition may be male of Senator Gray's case, but nothing definite can be assumed until the political status of the State is made more clear. If it is true that Indiana has gone Democratic, Turpie will probably succeed himself. Mr. Some Sure of Re-Election.

CALIFORNIA'S MIXTURE.

The Legislature Very Close-Democrats Elect Four of Seven Congressmen.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.-The California Legislature consists of 120 members-40 Senators and 80 Assemblymen. O these Republicans have 14 hold-over Senators and Democrats 6, leaving 100 mem-bers of the Legislature to be voted for. Republicans must elect 47 to control on joint ballot, and Democrats must elect 55. Incomplete returns from 19 out of 20 Senatorial districts, indicate that the Republicans elect 51 and the Democrats 14 senators. The complete returns from 73 out of 80 Assembly districts indicate that Repub licans have elected 35 and Democrats 36, and non-partisans 2 Assemblymen making 54 nembers of the Legislature for the Reput licans and 56 Democrata. Of eight Legislative districts not yet heard from, the Re publicans must obtain seven and the Demoerats five to control on joint ballot. One thousand two hundred and sixty-six precincts out of 2,199 in California, including the entire Sau Francisco vote, gave Harrison 87,559; Cleveland, 88,693; We 15,352. According to present indications representation in the House of Representapublicans, with Democrats pushing the Re-publicans closely in the districts in which Republicans are slightly in the lead.

INDIANA IS DEMOCRATIC.

The Latest Returns Give the State to Grove by About 8,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 9. - [Special]-The returns continue to come in slowly, and especially from Southern Indiana. Seventy-three counties have reported, and Cleveland and the Democratic State ticket have in those counties about 7,200 plurality. The other nine counties are expected to give a net Democratic gain of 1,000. The Legislature will be Democratic by a big najority on joint ballot.

as follows: First district, A. H. Tavlor; second, John L. Bretz; third, Jason B. Brown; fourth, W. S. Holman; fitth, George W. Cooper; seventh, W. D. Bynum; eighth, E. V. does not describe the situation. The supporters of Mr. Cleveland point with pride reduce their vote. The Democratic leaders re preparing for a demonstration in honor of their distinguished summer resident and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland.

Wareham, the sister town adjoining, where Mr. Cleveland's influence is felt as people of the United States would vote with the Democratic party upon the issues of this campaign, and recorded my opinion that their verdict on election day would be rendered in accordance with that senti-ment. The leading issues of the contest, from first to last, have been the tariff and the force bill. The Democratic current has reached not only the States of the South, New York, New Jerser, Connecticut, In-diana, Wyoming and Michigan, but has added to them at least the great State of Illinois, with its 24 electoral votes. The President and Vice President chosen yester-day will receive the votes of not less than 265 electors, with the probability of more from Michigan and possibly nine votes from Californis, which would raise the to-tal number of Democratic electors to 279. Without California Cleveland has a major-ity of more than 100 votes in the electoral college, backed by a larger majority of the popular vote the Democratic nominee has received during more than 40 years. With one exception, General Harrison's electoral vote is the smallest given to any condidate of the Democratic or Republican party during that period. Of course the members of the Democratic National Committee are proud of this result, and appreciative of the Commenda-tion of their efforts by Mr. Cleveland, when notified of his election at an early hour this morning. We have done our best in a fair and open fight, endeavoring to avoid being made, the victims of delusions, and never seeking to delude others. We think that some mistakes to which there was great temptation have been avoided, and that some good points have been opportunely made. good points have been opportunely

THE KANSAS LANDSLIDE.

Weaver Electors Elected by 2,000-Five of Eight Congressmen Populists.

TOPEKA, Nov. 9.-It looks like another Third party landslide in Kansas. With only a few back counties to hear from, the returns already in show that Weaver has carried the State by about 2,000; that Lewelling, the Fusion candidate for Governor, will have a majority over Smith (Rep.), of about 1.500; that Harris, the Fusion candidate at large for Congress, will beat Anthony (Rep.) by 1,000 majority, and the pressional delegation will stand five Fu-Populists and three Republicana. Congre sion Broderick (Rep.) is re-elected in the First district by a good round majority of at least 2,500. Funston (Rep.) in the Second dis-trict, has about 500 majority, and Curtis (Rep.) in the Fourth is elected by 3,000 majority.

Humphrey, at present Republican Gov-ernor of the State, is beaten for Congress in the Third district by Hudson (Fusion Populist.) Baker (Fusion Populist) Sixth is re-elected by 2,500 majority over Pestana, (Ren.) and, to cap the climax, Jerry Simpson is returned in the big Seventh by about 2,500, a reduction of his majority of two years ago by 3,500 votes. The Legislature-elect will choose a successor to Senator Perkins (Rep.) and will probably be anti-Republican.

many Hall chieftant: I cannot retire without expressing to you my sincere and profound appreciation of your untring devotion to the national ticket, and of your sleepless vigilance and enthusiastic, earnest and painstaking care of its interests throughout the campaign, extending from the nomination at Chicago to its triumphant close. I know well that the result so largely due to you and to loyal Tammany Hall gives to you as much as to any man in the United States unalloyed pleasure, and I congratulate you. North Carolina solidly Democratic.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 9.-[Special,]-

From returns, official and unofficial, received from every Congressional district in the State to-day, it is assured that the Dem-ocrats have elected the entire delegation of nine Congressmen, with the possible ex-ception of the Fiith district, but it is be-lieved that Hon. A. H. A. Williams, D., has been re-elected in that district also. The Democratic Congressmen elected from the other eight districts are as follows: W. A. Branch, F. A. Woodward, B. F. Grady, B. H. Bunn, S. B. Alexander, John S. Henderson, W. H. Beaver and W. T. Crawford.

A Vigorous Policy Preferable.

"I think the Democracy would prefer a vigorous and aggressive policy, and to that and the existing Federal law should be repealed. It is a vexatious, arbitrary and unnecessary measure, capable of great injus-tice and abuse, and in the hands of unprincipled officials may become an instrument of aggression. The manuer in which it was sought to be used against us by our oppo-nents on election day furnishes an abund-ant argument for its repair."

"Senator, what do you think of the result in New York?" was asked.

"I am particularly gratified with the glo rious result in this State," he replied. "The State organization of the party, as well as the organization in nine-tenths of the counties, were in the hands of my friends-those who loyally supported my claims at Chi-cago-and I was extremely desirous that an excellent showing should be made, and I am more than satisfied. The organizations everywhere supported Mr. Cleveland with great earnestness and good faith, and with he same loyalty that has ever characterized their political actions toward Democratic can didates.

Regrets for a Few Countles.

"The Democracy of the Empire State is proud of its intrepid and matchless organization, which is now well nigh invincible. A few counties did not do as well as expected, but such results are only exceptions to the the general rule, and are incident to politics. I regret that Chemung county, which, with hard work, maintained so excellent a record for so many years, should not have done better, but local causes arisng out of last spring's municipal election, the Republicans, and some vhen Independents, so called, unexpected-ly carried Elmira and secured control of the city in their hands, with all its patronage, combined with an immense Republican corruption fund expended this fall against the whole ticket, national as well as local, led to the defeat of both tickets in the county, the local ticket faring no better than the national ticket. But aside from a few places, every locality did reasonably well, and Democrats of all factions nobly did their duty and tried to win

"I am of course delighted with the mag-nificent work of Tammany Hall and the Kings County Democracy. Their praises are upon everyone's lips to-day, and they have endeared themselves to the Democracy of the whole country by their loyal devotion to our cause in this crisis."

Hundreds of Telegrams to Hill.

"Have you received any telegrams con gratulating you upon the victory in this State, Senator," was the next question. "Yes, hundreds of them, from all parts of this State and from many other States." "May I see them?" was the closing question. "Please excuse me, I prefer not to fur-nish them for publication. I am a Demo-erat, and simply did my duty in the cam-paign, and elaim no especial credit for any-thing which I may have done to aid the grand result. The gratification of winning, together with the good opinion of mv Dem-ocratic friends in this and other States, is enough for me. Let all the credit be given
