

LOTS TO TALK ABOUT

The Election Furnishes Food for Comment of All Kinds by Partisans.

WATERSON IS DELIGHTED And Wades Through a Slaughter House of Language While

CELEBRATING THE BIG VICTORY. He Predicts a Gradual but Positive Rejection of the Tariff.

WHAT SOME OTHERS FIND TO TALK OVER

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 11.—The Democrats had a monstrous meeting here to-night, the Governor of the State and half of the Legislature coming from Frankfort to take part in it.

The principal speech was made by Mr. Waterson. "If," he began, "if I were a Republican, I should be like the gentleman who, returning from his club, suddenly found his way blocked by a tree. He recoiled and took another angle, but with the same result. Finally, when that had happened three or four times, he folded his arms, sat down upon the curbstone, and in despairing tones, exclaimed: 'Lost in an impenetrable forest.'"

Not Exactly an Inactive Politician. The speaker then proceeded to pay his respects to those who had accused him of inactivity in the campaign, declaring that he had been steadily at his post of duty, and then addressed himself as follows to the general situation:

There is no doubt meaning to the vote of Tuesday. It sounds like the death knell of the protective system. The robber baron in his castle hears it, and amid the cheers of emancipated labor he orders his secretary to meet the inevitable. The money-devil—a bully always, yet ever afraid of his shadow, and who would, if it so suited him, knock speechless and can only gasp for breath. The sham heroes of "puck" parties, who make talking rebels and traitors in impossible places, have no business to be in business in pursuing the old flag and a pension, already see their occupation gone. The able statesmen and lawyers who furnish such an astonishing likeness between the Democratic tariff plank and the Confederate Constitution, have abandoned to the knowledge of the fact that it is not the Confederate Constitution, but the Constitution of the United States that will be referred to, and that has been vindicated by the people at the polls.

WATERSON'S RESPECTS TO DR. DEPEW.

The only cheerful note which can be heard on any side comes from that Mark Twain of Republicanism, the excellent, prosperous and genial Chauncey Depew, who, because I extolled the greatness and glory of the country at Chicago, thought I was making a Republican speech, which now proves me to be the better Christian of the two, since I ascribe everything to God which he ascribes to the Republicans—and Chauncey, abandoning the high-toned notes of the advocate and discarding the dark features of the patriot in a crisis, now says, like a sensible man, "I have not a word to say in praise of the high-toned notes of the patriot in a crisis, now says, like a sensible man, 'I shall remain disappointed for an entire day.'"

WE SIMPLY MEAN TO REVERSE THE MOVEMENT

which has been made in this country. We mean to do what the Republicans promised to do in the enactment of the tariff. We mean to force it to a peace footing. We mean to proceed with this work like statesmen, not like mountebanks and revolutionists.

TELLER TELLS WHY IT WAS.

He Thinks the Force Bill One of the Most Potent Hoodlums.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 11.—[Special.]—Senator Teller this afternoon talked freely with a reporter about Tuesday's election. He attributes the Republican Waterloo to that party's endorsement of the force bill. In Colorado the Republican party was defeated on the silver and other financial questions. In the East thousands of votes were lost in the agricultural sections, while, had the advice of the leaders been taken at Minneapolis, Blaine would have been nominated and Republican success assured.

NOT A FAKE TIN PLATE MILL.

A Brooklyn Plant That Will Be Used in Spite of the Election.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 11.—[Special.]—Somers Brothers' tin plate mill here has been the subject of a good deal of discussion during this campaign as a fake of the "tin plate liars." The proprietor told a reporter to-day that in spite of the elections the mill would go on as long as there was a profit in making American tin. One of the firm said: "We could go on making tin plate under a slight reduction of duty, but I don't care to fix the limit. We put $200,000 into our plant here, and expect some consideration."

PERKINS HAS HIS SAY.

He Thinks the Republicans Were Admitted Too Much to Rainbow-Chasing.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 11.—United States Senator B. W. Perkins this afternoon, in an interview with an Associated Press reporter, said: "I believe our defeat is due to the rainbow-chasing of the Republican National Committee. Instead of giving their attention to the Republican section of the country they neglected and overtook the Republican States almost entirely. They dissipated and wasted their efforts where there was no reason to expect Republican success. Instead of aiding Kansas and the Republican States of the Northwest and looking after Western New York and Ohio, they wasted their strength in Tennessee, North Carolina, Alabama, West Virginia, Delaware, New Jersey and Missouri. The result of this is the election of Cleveland."

THEY WILL KEEP UGANDA.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—It is understood that as a result of a long Cabinet council to-day the British Government has decided to retain possession of Uganda. The East Africa Company will withdraw in March, but LONDON, Nov. 11.—No event in the history of the Conservative party approaches in importance the adoption of the new programme by the conference of Conservative associations just held in Edinburgh. The platform is frankly democratic. It even goes beyond the Newcastle programme of the Liberals in admitting popular control of party legislation, and, further, it contrasts favorably with the Liberal Federation's policy as allowing greater independence of opinion among the adherents of the principles of unionism.
