"Hegarding the proposed Hall and Firz-simmons contest, I sim of the option that it is a very suspicious affair. It is very curlous that Firzsinmons declines to fight in the East for $45,000 and acrees to go to a club that is not yet organized, and is only mythi-cal, to fight or $5,000 less. This is very strange, and is something that I cannot un-derstand. Why the difference, $5,000, is an amount that Hall and Firzsinmons and many others would have been gliad to fight for not very long ago, and maybe again very soon. Meet Amid a Display of Lurid Rags to Honor the Chicago Martyrs. NEW YORK, Nov. 11 .- Again the 3,000 malcontents and Anarchists who greeted the notorious firebrand, Johann Most, upon his release from Blackwell, assembled tonight in Cooper Union to participate in commemoration of the Anarchists hanged in Chicago. The platform was decorated. as is usual on such occasions, with red flags. These were waved when anything fiery was said, and the audience, taking the cue, applauded with vehemence.

A huge placard, reading "In memory of the Auarchists of Chicago," informed the curious of the object of the gathering of long-haired men, and short-haired, but dangerous, female agitators. Another placard read: "1887-Remember the 11th of November-1887." The singing societies were represented in full force, and they all seemed to honor Herr Most. The meeting was called to order by a man named Ullman, who appointed himself Chairman, and, as there was no protest, acted as such throughout the whole of the proceedings.
