

THE RUSH FOR GOLD.

Dr. Talmage Denounces the Worship of the Idol of Our Times.

WORSHIPERS IN WALL STREET

Make Inhuman Sacrifices on the Gorgonean Altar of Mammon.

A TIME OF RECKONING COMING SOON.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISSENT: BROOKLYN, Nov. 13.—The subject of discourse chosen by Rev. Dr. Talmage for his first sermon after the national election, was one peculiarly appropriate to the money-making spirit of the times.

"People will have a god of some kind, and they prefer one of their own making. Here come the Israelites, breaking off their golden carriages, the men as well as the women, for in those times they were masculine as well as feminine deities."

"Put aside this curtain and you see the golden calf, made out of stocks or stone, for it has no sensitive nerves, it cannot hear the whispers on Wall street and Third street and State street, and the foothills in the Bank of England, and the flutter of a Frenchman's heart on the Bourse."

"The golden calf of the text has its right front foot in New York, its left front foot in Chicago, its right back foot in Charleston, its left back foot in New Orleans, and when it shakes itself it shakes the world."

"But every god must have its temple, and this golden calf of the text is no exception. Its temple is vaster than St. Paul's. Standing at the head of the temple, as the presiding deity, are the bookmakers and slanders and eyes and ears and nostrils of the calf of gold."

"Further: every god must have not only its temple, but its altar, of sacrifice, and this golden calf of the text is no exception. Its altar is not made out of stone as other altars, but out of the room devices and fire-proof safes, and it is a broad, long, a high altar. The victims sacrificed on it are innumerable. It is to this altar that the gold comes from the groans and struggles of the victims before it."

"The golden calf of the text is no exception. Its altar is not made out of stone as other altars, but out of the room devices and fire-proof safes, and it is a broad, long, a high altar. The victims sacrificed on it are innumerable. It is to this altar that the gold comes from the groans and struggles of the victims before it."

"The devotees of the stock exchange. Still the degrading worship goes on, and the devotees kneel and kiss the dust and cross themselves with the blood of their own sacrifices. The number of rolls on under the crosses is made of clinking silver and clinking gold and the rattling specie of the banks and brokers' shops and the voices of all the exchanges."

"I speak stands open day and night, and there is the clinking gold with like feet on broken hearts and there is the smoking altar of sacrifice, new with every moment on it and there are the kneeling devotees; and the dexterity of the worship rolls on, while death stands with mortality and she takes its beating time for the chorus—More! more! more!"

"But my text suggests that this worship must be broken up, as the behavior of Moses in my text indicated. So, my hearers, you may depend upon this: that the golden calf of modern idolatry, and he will compel the people in their agony of mind and despair to worship it as never before."

"Hard Times Are the Best Times. But, my friends, every day is a day of judgment, and God is all the time grinding to pieces the golden calf. Merchants of Brooklyn and New York and London, what is the characteristic of this time in which we live? 'Bad,' you say. Professional men, what is the characteristic of the times in which we live? 'Crisis,' you say. I venture the opinion that these are the best times we have had, for the reason that God is teaching the world, as never before, that old-fashioned honesty is the only thing that will stand."

"We have learned as never before that forgeries will not pay; that the spending of money on country seats and a palatial residence, when there are only $30,000 income, will not pay; that the appropriation of trust funds to our own private use will not pay. We had a great national fever, in the shape of fictitious prosperity. We called it national enlargement; instead of calling it an enlargement we might better have called it a swelling. It has been a tumor and God is cutting it out—has cut it out, and the nation will get well and will come back to the principles of our forefathers and grandfathers when twice three made six instead of six, and when the apples at the bottom of the barrel were just good as the apples on the top of the barrel, and a silk handkerchief was not half cotton, and a man who wore a $5 coat got for more honored than a man who wore a $50 coat not paid for."

"The golden calf of our day, like the one of the text, is very apt to be made out of borrowed money. A great many housekeepers, and just at the minute they expect the help the golden calf tends on them. The judgment of God, like Moses in the text, will break in and break up this worship; and I say, let the work go on until every man shall learn to speak the truth to his neighbor, and those who make engagements shall feel themselves bound to keep them, and when a man who will not respect of his business iniquity, but goes on wishing to sustain his cannibal appetite by devouring widows' houses, shall, by the law of the land, be compelled to exchange his mansion for a Sing Sing. Let the golden calf be a lesson."

"A Day of Reckoning Is Coming. After a while the capitalist wants his money and he rushes upon the wholesale dealer, and the wholesale dealer wants his money and he rushes upon the retailer, and the retailer wants his money and he rushes upon the consumer, and we all rush upon the dealer, that keeps the people everlastingly praying to the golden calf for help."

"But, my friends, if we have made this world our god, demoralized. Ah, my friends, if we have made this world our god, when we will see our feet ground to pieces by our people, and we will have to drink in bitter regret for the wasted opportunities of a lifetime."

"People will have a god of some kind, and they prefer one of their own making. Here come the Israelites, breaking off their golden carriages, the men as well as the women, for in those times they were masculine as well as feminine deities."

Scrofula Humor

"For 4 years I suffered with scrofula. Blisters came out all over my body, and swelling of the right side of the neck, and in less than a year I had lost 40 lbs. I was induced by H. L. Tubbs, our druggist, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the blisters and swelling went away. I can now do any work I please. I was cured. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best family cathartic, gentle and effective. Try a box."

The Great American Hog

Is welcome abroad once more, and abroad he may go. As long as Lard was a requisite in every kitchen, the Great American Hog was highly esteemed at home; but now that modern science has introduced COTTOLENE the new vegetable substitute for lard, poor Piggy's occupation's gone.

The reason for this is threefold. COTTOLENE is cleaner, healthier and much more economical. A trial has convinced thousands as to this. It will convince any "convincible" person. Will you be convinced?

IN THE RACE.

TRUTH wins every time. A plain, truthful advertisement is so rare an article that when discovered it ought to command a premium.

THE newspapers fairly groan under the weight of bold, base fabrications. BRAGGADOCIO, bombast, bosh and bluster are plentiful in this glorious Nineteenth Century. Why, the ordinary clothing advertisement is enough to paralyze the average American citizen. However, be this as it may, we have not yet lost faith in humanity. We firmly believe that sensible people prefer good common-sense talk.

That is evidenced by the result we receive from our truthful announcements. We are selling this week splendid warm Chinchilla Overcoats as low as $7.50—big value. Fine Cheviot, Melton, Kersey or Beaver Overcoats at $10, $12 and $15. This is as certain as truth. Truth wins—win something for yourself by buying our Honest Home-made Clothing.
