Suppose we shuffle the cards of invitation and see what we have held for the past week in the great game of society. We commenced as early as Monday with Mrs, Edmund Russell, who talked to a select, but large audience at the residence of Mrs. C. L. Magee, on that most fascinating subject, "The Art of Expression." There is nothing more interesting than ourselves, and therefore, when she told her listeners about themselves, always in a gently flattering vein, even when she pretended to criticise them, it is no wonder that her lecture was declared remarkably bright and herself the most charming of women. Although this bright woman has had too much experience in society not to know that, when she is in the presence of a company of ladies, she is being examined closely, and every peculiarity she may possess is remarked, she would probably have been amused could she have heard some of the whispered comments while she was speaking. At the end of her lecture she said that she would have been pleased to answer any questson bearing upon the subject of her address that the ladies might like to ask, but that, unfortunately, there was no time for that. Had there been time she would assuredly have been asked why she folded her arms at intervals during her discourse for such sotto voce remarks could be heard for such sotte voce remarks could be heard in different parts of the room as "I wonder why she folds her arms in that manner?" "I wonder whether she considers that grace?" "I don't know whether I like it or not." Then some one said: "Oh, she is lovely, enchanting, divine." And so the busy whisper circled 'round, while Mrs. Russell held an informal reception and then swept from the room still gracefully. There seems to be room still gracefully. There seems to be an impression in Pittsburg that this charming woman is not understood-that she is too advanced in her ideas and 50 years ahead of her time in her esthetic teachings. One interview with Mrs. Russell, and one afternoon spent in listening to her lecture, are enough to remove this impression entirely. No one can see her and listen to her tenchings without being convinced that there is a solid coundation of hard, common sense and practical knowledge of the world underlying her delicate and light touch on the shortcomings of those who have not made estheticism a study.

A number of prominent Pittsburgers left for New York last Thursday. The metropolis has strong attractions for the people of this city just now, the most important, per-haps, being the football game on Thanksgiving Day.

When two young people are about to be married and both possess youth, beauty and a goodly portion of the wealth of the earth, there is nothing for us to conjecture but that they will marry for love, and love only. To-morrow evening there will be such a union, when Miss Lydia Sutton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Sutton, of Ridge avenue, will become the bride of Mr. A. Hart McKee. Miss Sutton is a beantiful girl, but aside from that is far in adally. She has received an excellent education under the guidance of governesses and masters, commenced in Germany and fin-ished in New York. It seems almost unkind to her numerous friends that, Miss Sutton should fly from the schoolroom to the altar. Such is the case, however, for the has only been one winter in society. But then the lovers have been play-mates and friends all their lives, and as "there is nothing to wait for" in their case, they can hardly be blamed for following their their streets in this more following their inclinations in this most important of wordly affairs. The bridal gown, to be worn on the day of days, is of rich white corded silk with a long train. It is low in the neck and trimmed with old point lace. Orange blossoms and a tulie ce veil will complete a sample but hand-some toilette. The couple will be surrounded at the altar by their intimate school friends, including some of the most popular of the younger ladies and gentlemen in Pittsburg society. The maid of honor is to be Miss Amelia Oliver and the bridesmaids Miss Chaliant, Miss Bakewell, Miss Mary Laughlin, Miss Patrick, Miss Hays and Miss Holdship. The best man is to be Mr. Stansbury Sutton, brother of the bride, and Rev. Dr. M. B. Riddle, of the Western Theological Seminary, will perform the ceremony. Last evening Mr. McKee entertained a party of his bachelor friends at dinner at the Duquesne Club.

The Greensburg Club is to give its annual dance Thanksgiving evening, and in-vitations have already been received in this city. The committee in charge of the affair are Messrs. R. A. Fulton Lyon, James K. Clarke, J. Covode Reed, John Barclay, Charles H. Ulery and John M. Jamison.

Although the past week did not afford much in the way of weddings as to number, those that did take place were of a character to command attention and admiration in a high degree. Several of the most important weddings of the season, from a fashionable point of view, have been solfashionable point of view, have been solemnized during the past six days. The marriage of Miss Susan Duff Daizell to Mr. R. F. Jones, Jr., has been looked forward to with fluttering hearts by hundreds of young girls who are disposed to look upon a bride as one possessed of awe-inspiring as well as lovely attributes. Many of these young girls knew Miss Dalzell personally, and her nuptials possessed more than usual interest. So it is no wonder that the immense congregation in the First Presbyterian Church last Wednesday evening was largely composed of the day evening was largely composed of the flower o: Pittsburg's maidenly beauty. A prettier church wedding has seldom been seen than this proved to be. The appointments were perfect, and the grace and love-liness of the bride, and the handsome maniness of the groom were in keeping with the surroundings. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are now in New York, but are expected to return at the end of this week to take possession of their new home, on Lincoln avenue, Alle-

A very enjoyable as well as fashionable reception will doubtless be that to be given by Mr. and Mrs. D. Herbert Hostetter Wednesday evening, November 30. It is to celebrate the fifth anniversary of their marriage. The exact date of their wedding anniversary was two or three weeks ago, but the reception was postponed on account of an important wedding that took place

The dress worn by Mrs. Henry Phipps at-Mrs. Frank Hofstott's reception Thursday has been the subject of a great deal of admiring comment among the ladies of Pitts-burg. One could appreciate the beauty of the gown without being a conseur, for burdly fail to arrest the atlant most careless male eye that ever found its way to an afternoon function. The gown was worn at the drawing room in London at which Mrs. Phipps was presented to Queen Victoria, and is of the regulation court pattern in all essential respects, while preserving an individuality that makes it unique. It is of white brocaded silk with a full train. Pearl embroidery is the principal trimming, this rich material being dis-posed artistically on different parts of the dress, while a bertha of rare old lace is puffed at the shoulders. A girdle and neok-lace of magnificent pearls and a fan of wondrous workmanship complete the toilette.

Mrs. Phipps expects to sail for Europe next Wednesday, although it is her intention to return to Pittsburg next summer.

One of the institutions that brightened up last week for Pittsburgers was the chrysanthemum show. It was the sort of thing that could be enjoyed in conjunction with almost anything, because one could run into the Auditorium at any time, with the feeling that it formed a chain of flowers that linked together all other pleasures of

It will be good news for the many people who enjoy so much the jolly college songs, to know that the Princeton University Glee, Banjo and Mandolin clubs will give a concert January & Last year the club went South on a trip, and so Pittsburg did not hear it. There is no doubt that it will be all the more enjoyed this season, because appearing for the first time in two years. The concert will be given under the au-spices of the Princeton Alumni Associa-tion, and as "Old Nassau" has many admirers out here it will probably be a great

The engagement is announced of Miss Claribel McPherson, youngest daughter of Rev. Robert McPherson, of Elisworth avenue, East End, to Mr. Burtt F. McKee, son of A. B. McKee, editor of the Freeport Journal. The wedding will take place on Tuesday evening, December 27. The young couple will live in their own home in the

A BAZAAR and supper for the benefit of the

Edgewood Presbyterian Church will be held at the residence of Mr. J. H. Orr, Washington street, Edgewood, Thursday and Friday, December 1 and 2. The bazaar will open at 2:30 P. M. and supper will be served from 5 to until 8:50 P. M. The following committees have been formed: Executive, Mrs. J. M. Dickinson and Mrs. M. Bigger; reception committee Taursday evening, Mrs. James H. Orr, Mrs. M. Cadman, Mrs. J. M. Dickin-son and Mrs. M. Cralg; Friday evening, Mrs. Orr, Mrs. Cadman, Mrs. M. McWhinney and Mrs. A. L. Chiids; committee on supper table, first evening, Mrs. M. Mc Whinney, Mrs. J. F. Miller, Mrs. J. H. Harlon, Mrs. H. J. Bigger and Mrs. Frank Gibson; second evening, Mrs. B. F. Dake, Mrs. Frank Shalenberger, Mrs. R. C. Moore, Mrs. George Kappel and Mrs. Thomas Cape; aids for sup-per table, Misses Clemmens, Mursay, Bookstoce, Brown, Thompson, Anderson, Bess and Neil McKelvy, Maud and Byrde Stevenson, Mollie Anderson, Jean Wight, Rose Fiennikin, Lettie Reynoids and Florence Harlow. Mrs. I. K. Becker will have charge of the ice cream and cake table, and will have for her aids India Stevenson and Mary Hill, Alice Kerr and Mary King, Laura Crump and H. Kevan, Nellie Trump and Clara Westinghouse, Mary Cadman and Daisy Dake, Mary Davis and Helen Moore. The fancy table will be in charge of Mrs. A. W. Cadman, Mrs. James Kerr, Mrs. McEiroy and Mrs. J. C. Hill. Committee on common sense table, Mrs. J. M. King, Mrs. Will Anderson and Mrs. Corbett. The domestic table will be in charge of Mrs. E. J. Lloyd, Mrs. Tomb and Miss Emma Craig. Fruit and flowers, Misses McKee, Roberts and Patterson. Committee on doll table, Mrs. W. N. Taylor, Mrs. M. D. McWinney and Mrs. Thorp. Candy table, the Misses Baldwin, Elizabeth Burt and Margritta Alexander, Committee on lemonage, Nellie Becker and Carrie Fienniken. Supply room; Miss Anderson and Mrs. Robert Collins. Mr. E. J. Lloyd will nave charge of the music. Cloak room, Cauman, Orr. Doorkeepers, Mr. J. M. King, Mr. W. Anderson and Mr. Frank Gibson. The indies of this church are noted for the taste and skill with which they manare their social affairs, and since this bazaar is for a worthy otiget, there is no doubt that the attendance will be very large. and Nell McKelvy, Maud and Byrde Steven

HOURS OF PLEASURE.

Features of the Past Week in Which Many Were Interested.

Miss G. Hendricks was given a pleasant surprise party at her home on Bond street Monday evening in honor of the anniversary of her birth. The hours were deligntfully spent in cards and dancing, after which an elegant innoheon was served. Those present were: The Misses Margaret Gray, Gertrude Gray, Bessie McCiaren, Saliy and Hattie Jamison, Elizabeth Lingo, Alice Friton, Becky Forrester, Alice and Lou Gilt, Mame Gillespie, Mazie Graham, Bessie Wallace and Messers. Will Gilt, Edward Wagner, Arm Hugnes, Will acateer, O. S. Sanders, Anson and Bhair Hanna, J. S. Hendricks, Joe Cotrall, Frank Adams, Frank White, Howard Lingo, Daniel Fulton, Alva Trig, Claud Gray and John H. Giniff. sary or her birth. The hours were delignt-

On Thursday evening, November 17, T. V. McKee, M. D., and Miss Mrry Biaucae Wayman were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents, in Ford City, by Rev. J. H. Sutnerland, assisted by Rev. Hall. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. M. D. Wayman, a member of the Pittsburg Plate Glass Company, and Superinten-dent of Construction at the Ford City works. The groom is a rising and talented young physician, and has been located at Ford physician, and has been located at Ford City for the past two years. The bride is a most charming and beautiful young lady, and presented a lovely appearance as she entered the parlor of her father's residence leaning on the arm of her soon-to-be husband. She was preceded by her little twin sisters and two prettily dressed flower girls and followed by Seth Jessop, M. D., and Miss Maime Popler, and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Wayman. The Kittanning Orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Charles Neubert, rendered the wodding march. As the young couple reached the center of the room they were met by Rev. Sutheriand and Rev. Had, and in a few minutes the impressive words were uttered, Rev. Sutherland and Rev. Hall, and in a lew minutes the impressive words were uttered, the response given, and the two young persons were pronounced man and wife. After congratulations had been extended supper was served, after which dancing was indulged in until the 2.20 train was due, when Mr. and Mrs. McKee, in company with a number of triends down the road, lett.or Pittsburg. The young couple departed for Washington City, D. C., Fortress Monroe and other points Wednesday morning. The large number of costly and elegant presents bestowed by friends indicated strongly how highly esteemed both Dr. and Mrs. McKee are by all who know them.

Probably the most brilliant church wedding that has been celebrated in Braddock this season, and a notable society event, was that in which the nuptial service joined the lives of Miss Anna Marie striebich, of West Braddock, and Mr. John M. Kelly, of this city. It was solemnized in the St. Joseph's German Catholic Cauren at Braddock at 4 o'clock Thursday morning. The bridal party moved into the church to the strains of Lobengrin's wedding march. A lew mo lasted one hour, solemn hish nuptial mass being celebrated by the officiating priest, Bey. Father A. A. Wertenbach, and sung by the full choir of the church. The bride was attended by her younger sister, Miss Rosa Marie Striebich, and the groom's best man was Mr. Harry Kelly, his brother. The ushers were Mr. Daniel A. Kelly and Mr. Joseph A. Striebich, brothers of the groom and bride respectively. The bride's brunette beauty was added to by an exquisitely made gown of Nilegreen crepe du chenc, and she bore a bouquet of white rosebuds. Her maid wore pink crepe du chenc, with flowers and roses, harmonising in colors. Fellowing the ceremony the bridal party was taken to the home of the bride's parents, on Fourth street and Braddock avenue, West Braddock, where they received congratulations from friends and were given a reception. A wedding dinner followed. Later Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left on a wedding tour of two weeks, to be spent in the South. They will reside in this city on their return.

The ladies of the Holy Cross Church, Southside, are making great preparations for their annual supper, to be given in the nterest of the church Wednesday evening. November 23, at Turner Hall, South Thir teenth street. The supper tables will be in charge of the following ladies: No. 1 (white), Mesdames D. McCann, James charge of the following indies:

No. 1 (white), Mesdames D. McCann, James Walls and Miss J. O'Hanlon.

O. 2 (blue). Miss B. Doran and Mesdames E. Nicholas and B. A. McGinty. No. 3 (olive), Mesdames John Burke, John Murphy and William Sullivan.

No. 4 (salmon), Mesdames Thomas Masterson, William McNamara and John Cunningham.

No. 5. (cardinal), Mesdames D. Coughlin, Thomas Freeborn and Thomas McCartan. No. 6 (orange), Mesdames D. Hagan, P. Boyle and P. Magorien. No. 7 (heliotrope). Mrs. Mary Larimer, Sarah Arbogart and John Charles. No. 8 (pink), Mesdames Thomas Pierce. Ed Dascubach and E. McCielland.

No. 9 (lavender), Mesdames Ed Dickson, M. Loughran and Martin Nold. The lemonade booth will be in charge of the Misses Alice Spratt, B. Hogan and Grace Fagan. The Misses Alice Coughlin, Maggie Havey. Bridget Murphy and Annie Carnery will sell flowers, and the Misses Mary Doran, Ella Coughlin and Katle Burns will look after the fancy work. The Misses Annie Dickson, Bridget Burns and Mary Mungavan will have charge of the common sense booth.

On Tuesday last Miss Mary Stucky was surprised at her home on Thirteenth street. It proved to be one of the most successful parties ever held on the Southside. Those parties ever held on the Southside. Those present were the Misses Susie and Lavina Jones, Alice Sneilshauer, Carrie Crehan Carrie Weidman, Lida Acklin, Emma Kraft, Emma and Annia Rectanns, Aggie Gallagher, Lillian McCoy, Katie Gaub, Emma Bisier, Itertha Krugh, Blanch Gue, Susie and Mattie McGown, Amelia Siebol. Carrie Wilhelm, Miss Bludinghauser, Messrs. William Fitzpatrick, Joe Miller, Thos. Bingey, Andy McGown, Alex. Hoerr, Mat Miller, Thos. Springer, Chas. Owens, Henry Wilhelm, Andy Kuzelman, Dan Hannan, John Wilson, George Kay, Wru. Spreen, Dan McAfee, Wm. Atkinson, and Mr. Hartman.

The Ladies' Volunteer Corps of the Sandusky Street Baptist Church will give an old-rashioned Thanksgiving dinner and supper in the old Pittsburg postoffice. The menu includes roast turkey, cranberry menu includes roast turkey, cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, stewed tomatoes, stewed corn, green peas, celery, plum pulding with tasty sauce, mince pies, pumpxin pies, doughnuts, small fruits, coffee and tea, Bosion brown bread, white bread, biscuit, small cakes. The dinner will be served hot from 12 to 2:30 r. M. The menu for supper includes: Fried oysters, cold sliced turkey, ham, tongue, vealicar, biscuit, brown bread, white bread, cake, celery, coffee, tea, grapes and bananas. The young ladies will serve ice cream and chocolate and candy in the afternoon and evening.

The Laurel Valley Social gave a surprise party at the residence of Mrs. Brady in bonor of her daughter Monday evening last. Those present were: Messrs, Harry Martin, Charles Bahl, Charles Martin, Louis Bahl, Ed Miller, Bahl, Charles Martin, Louis Bahl, Ed Miller, Barney Miller, Andrew Breicht, Michael Weise, Clarence Richey, Frank Miller, Andrew Stagerwalt, James McAleer, Curist, Roda, Hugh McAleer, Thomas Ward, John Mercer, John Watson, William Brady, James O'Neal, Ed Gass, Pail Schnoble, Christ Hartman, Joe Scheller, Christ Kensel, Jaka Heartman, Rachel Schnobel, Clara Bantt, Maggie McCroery, Flo Richey, Rosy Hartman, Minnie Hartman and the Misses Mame Rault, Annie Martin, Clarah McKinney, Mary Bahl, Sallie McAleer, Emmie Bahl, Annie Mercer, Mary Me Aleer, Amelie Roda, Clara Mercer, Ella O'Neal.

A surprise party was tendered Miss Florence East at her home, Lincoln avenue, Bellevue, on Friday evening. The amusements consisted of vocal and instrumental solos, recitations, charades, dancing, etc. At If o'clock lunch was served. Among those present were the Misses Bessie Spangler, present were the Misses Bessie Spangier, Gretta Williams, Ida Cameron, Flora Young. Edith Irwin, Olive Anderson, Mazie Alston, Nellie Hunnings, Mattle Hunter, Ella Pollard, Tillie Burger, Effic Finley, Lena Rhodes, Ella McIntosh, Elizabeth Elliott and Messrs. Robert Hunter, Frank East, Robert Gibson, James Graham, Fiake Irwin, Percy Stackhouse, Fred East, Harry Boyle, George Finley, George Boardman, Henry Burger, James Irwin, Jr., Frank Burger, Will Anderson, George Campbell, Arthur Bowman and Frank Bowman.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Charles St. Clair to Miss Florence E. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams, of Harrison avenue, Allegheny. The event takes place on Thanksgiving evening at 6 o'clock. After the ceremony evening at 6 o'clock. After the ceremony and supper, the happy pair will leave over the B. & O. R. R. for Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia, where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair will take up their home in Indiana, a., where there awaits them a pretty home. Mr. St. Clair enters the groc, ery business in partnership with his father, who has a flourishing trade in that vicinity. All who know them will join in their congratulations for a long and happy life.

The Magnolia Euchre spent a very enjoyable evening at the residence of Miss May Wheeler, Meyran avenue, on Thursday last. Those present were: The Misses Tillie and Those present were: The Misses Tillie and Gussie Nickel, Carrie Schentz, Anna Brown, 1da and Millie Mangold, Emma Nickel, May Wheele: Nellie and Clara Siemon and Messrs. Otio Octing, William Kaiser, Ernest Nickel, George Ede, Otto Demmier, James Mathews, A. Goertner, Sidney Siemon and Robert Klein. The head prizes were carried off by Miss Gussie Nickel and Robert Klein, while the booby prizes fell to the lot of Miss May Wheeler and Sid Siemon.

A pleasant affair during the week in Allegheny was the party at the residence of Mr, Koeb, West Diamond street. It was the 50th anniversary of his birth and the following anniversary of his birth and the following friends gathered to celebrate the occasion: John Kroedel, John Block, Charles Heilman, Christ. Deitz, Frank Kurtz, Henry Smidt, Joseph Lennzer, San Aester, Peter Arens, Allen John, Al Storms, William Fisher, Aton Thompson, Mr. Bruck, Anna Standt, Frankie Ruth, Bertha Amman, damie Ruth, Marie Buttner, Marie Smidt, Barbara kurtz, Lelia Bruck, Barbara Werner, Lizzie Hack, Emma Schmilzer and Joseph Roeser.

The members of the Crystal Euchre were pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Ella McFadden, Reed street. The head prizes were won by Miss Gressand Mr. Conley, and the booby prizes by Miss Crane and Mr. Gress. A dainty luncheon was served. Those present were: Misses Jennie and Lizzie Irwin, Torley, Lizzie and Rose Kaiser, Ruckman, Grace, Sadie and Mame McFadden, Messrs, Alberts, Evans, Moorhouse, Kaiser, Huston, McGreary, Elder, Irwin and Early McFadden.

lancing were enjoyed, after which a delight ful lunch was served. Among those present were the Misses Sara D. Ewing, Nora L. Ellott, Marion Rea, Alice Thomas, Bessie Holly and Messrs, Walter Burns, James Mc-Clelland, Charles Holly, Charles Thomas, A. Miller and J. L. Young.

Mr. Jesse Colbert, of Copelend, son of Mr Thomas Colbert and Miss Mary Hoover, of North Braddock, were married in St. Brendan's R. C. Church, West Braddock, on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, by the rector, Rev. Father P. Molyneux. A large number of invited guests witnessed the ceremony. A reception was given at the home of the bride following the ceremony. A short trip was taken.

Mr. Joseph E. Anderson, the popular young chemist, formerly of Allegheny, and Miss Minnie McElwer were united in matrimony on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Franklin street, Alle-gheny, by the Rev. Joseph Kyle. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Ander-son will reside at Sharon, Pa.

The Young People's Dramatic Society, of St. John's Church, Lawrenceville, will give an entertainment on Thanks, iving evening in Union Hall, Thirty-second and Liberty streets. The affair is for the benefit of the church. The entertainment will be under the direction of Prot. Byron King and it will, no doubt, be a success.

Miss Lillian Taylor, of the West End, and Mr. John W. Cable were united in marriage Saturday, November 12, Rev. Mr. Donohus officiated, at his residence in the West End.
After the ceremony the counterreturned to the bride's residence, where an enjoyable evening was spent among their numerous triends.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Wilkinsburg Presbyterian Church will follow the very successful social held recently by an entertainment to-mor-row evening. The society has secured Mr. Charles Underhill, the celebrated elecutionist, and an enjoyable entertainment is ex-

Mrs. Joseph Robbins, of Robbins station, entertained at her elegant home, on Thursday afternoon, from 1 to 5. The guests of honor were her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Caro-thers, of Braddock, just returned from her wedding tour, and her friend, Miss Lena Sloan, of Cleveland.

Miss Minnie Witherspoon, of North Brad-dock, was married to Mr. John H. Eckley, a prominent young business man of McKees-port, Thursday evening, at the First Chris-tian parsonage, West Braddock, Rev. F. V. Brown officiating, An Eastern wedding trip followed.

A very enjoyable surprise party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Briggs, Webster street, Allegheny, last evening. The many triends of the couple had conspired to surprise Mrs. Bri.gs on her birthday, and right royally they did it. The German Library Association will hold a lair at its hall, 303 Penn avenue, from November 21 to November 26. It will be open every evening during next week, and on Thursday from 5 to 8r. M., a Thunksgiving dinner will be served. Burgess Thomas G. Aten and wife, of West Braddock, entertained about two dozen guests at their home on Thursday night to a delightful progressive euchre, and later by serving an excellent supper. Rev. Dr. T. N. Boyle, the former popular pastor of the First M. E. Church, Braddock, now of Uniontown, visited his many triends in Braddock the past week. He returned home yesterday. Mr. Frank Shearer, of Braddock, and Miss Minnie Kuhn, of McKeesport, will be mar-ried in St. Peter's R. C. Church at that place on Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Ada Sloss, formerly of Braddock now of Turtle Creek, was wedded at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening to Mr. Norman McCollum, of Nineveh.

Invitations are out for an evening party to be given by Miss Anna Fix, at her home, Ross and Water streets, Wilkinsburg, next Wednesday evening.

Personal Paragraphs. Mr. D. F. Dible, of Murraysville, is visiting his son, Mr. W. J. Dible, of Braddock. Miss Ida Oliver, of Braddock, returned yesterday, after four months at Washing-ton, D. C.

Joseph Stevenson, of South Negley avenue, East End, has returned from a hunting trip

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Larkin, of West Braddock, left on Wednesday for a visit to New York City. Mrs. Harry Holdane, after a delightful visit to ner Allegheny friends, has returned to her home in New York.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Douthett have returned home from New York, where they have spent the last two months. Miss Hallie Whiting, of Canton, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. A fred Huntington, of South Highland avenue, East End.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jackson, of Cleveland, O., formerly of Pittsburg, have returned home atter a pleasant visit to their friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Jope, of Wylie avenue. Miss Katherine Huntington, of the East End, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Rob-inson, of New York, where she will remain for the football game on Thanksgiving Day. Mrs. William Johnston, of Main street, and Mrs. W. J. Hammond, and Mrs. George V. Milliken, of Nezley avenue, left Thursday to visit friends in Philadelphia and New York.

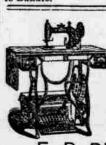

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Frowenfeld, nee Mor-ganstern, are spending Sunday with their mother, Mrs. M. Mor. austern, Fulcon street, Allegheny. They leave to-morrow for New York City.

Mrs. Dr. G. W. Brooks, of Baltimore, and Mrs. William Walsh, of Cumberland, Md., wife of the late Congressman Walsh, are visiting their brother, Mr. George Shane, of West Braddock.

Miss Agnes Jones, of Lawn avenue, Oak-land, leit inst Wednesday on a four weeks' visit to Cincinnati. Sne will be the guest of Captain D. J. Jones, or East Third street, and will also visit friends in Onio and Ken-

A Sewing Machine Free Our improved oak or walnut $65 machine placed in your home to use, without cost of one cent to you. Cut this advt. out and send with address to-day. Address Alvah Manufacturing Co., Chicago, Ill.

Pittsburg & Lake Erie R. R. Three hours and thirty-five minutes to Cleveland. Eight hours and twenty minutes to Buffaio.

$5 Will buy a good sec-ond-hand Sewing Machine at THE Domestic Office.

E. R. BROOKS,

Miss Margaret Taylor, of McClintock avenue, Allegheny, entertained a few of her friends Tuesday evening. Card playing and paired. Domestic Sewing Machine and Domestic Patterns. Sewing machines of all makes repaired.

A FAMILIAR FACE

Is the face of this can of the old

GAIL BORDEN 'EAGLE' BRAND

Condensed Milk. For 30 years the leading brand of condensed milk in America. Used for general cooking purposes. It's the best made. Your Grocer and Druggist sell it.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

ANNEXATION AND REALIZATION SALE.

A new annex to be added in the near future to our present large rooms compels a reduction of stock.

OUR GOODS CONQUER --- OUR PRICES CAPTURE

The goods enumerated comprise the choice of staples sought for daily, and it will be to the interest of buyers

....to attend the sale.....

This shoe is a fine bright kid-of high grade-foremost in style--no venture in the purchase---but a clear saving of ONE DOL-LAR on each pair. All sizes and widths---from AAA to D.

For Cloth Tops---Kid Button, Plain or Tipped---The offer is on . a shoe worth $2-in all the shapes, widths and sizes. It is a sacrifice that will no doubt find an echo with many.

BUTTON

are the finest weather protectors we know of---our seamless kid

OUR LADIES' CORK SOLE

flannel lined is the very essence of comfort as well as style--a combination seldom united. The felt upper and felt sole is a soother for frosted feet. Needs no special mention---yet to bring them to notice of the many who cherish them beyond price we still quote them at the low figure of $3.

LADIES' SLIPPERS.

Misses' and and Children's Shoes.

School, Dress

Party Shoes.

Party demands one kind---Toilet another---Every shade is represented in this display. reach popular appreciation, we offer elegant lines from 75 cents upwards.

This department reaches out to supply School, Dress and Party Shoes in an unlimited selection. We have reason to know that our standard makes from $1 and upwards are very satisfactory. Hunt where you please no such values are visible.

A Gallery of Art would not inspire you any more than our Men's Department. Sole and substances---features requisite for Endurance.

$1.00 buys a good grade Men's Balmoral. $1.50 buys a shoe of great merit---double or tap sole. $2 buys better in lighter weight upper. $2.50 and $3 excellent values. Cork soles at $3. Bluchers at $3. Finest goods $4, $5 and $6.

A mirror could not reflect to a better advantage than our Patent Leathers---shapes decidedly pretty---fine combinations. Visit us for perfect footwear. Every foot fitted precise.

HIMMELRICH'S

BRADDOCK HOUSE 916 BRADDOCK AVENUE.

N N E

FELT AND FLANNEL LINES. These

 ${f R}$ E

O

N