The Emperor of Germany and the Monarch of Saxony Fall Out

ALL ON ACCOUNT OF BISMARCK.

Fome Signs of a Better Feeling Among the BERLIN, Nov. 19.—The Reichstag will when Tuesday with the party groups in such a state of variance that it would be such a state of variance that it would be futile to attempt to predict how they will ultimately rearrange themselves. The Centerists are, in the meantime, split into two sections, one of which is uncompromisingly opposed to the army bill, while the other will openly support the Government if it can obtain concessions widening the Catholic privileges. The Conservatives are lukewarm over the army bill, and they will require skillful Ministerial handling to induce them to support it with the whole strength of the group. The Polish party continues to hesitate in its allegiance to the Government. Only the Reichstag partie will go solid with the whole branch with Chancellor von Caprivi. The Emperor's speech opening the Reichstag, and the subsequent statement of the Chancellor on the new loans to cover the military expenses, will be the earliest factors in regulating the positions of the groups.

The Bill Safe in Its First Stage. Whatever adverse criticism the army project may receive in the Reichstag, German bankers and members of the Bourse are ready to fully cover the loans. The bill is certain to pass its first stage in the House, and will be then referred to a committee.

In the meantime, the opponents of the Government circulated endless rumors regarding dissensions in the Bundesrath, the approaching fall of the Chancellor, etc. Chancellor von Caprivi's latest named successor is General von Loc, Commander of the Eighth Army corps. He certainly is more likely to get the post if General von Caprivi is ousted than either Count von Eulenberg or Herr Miquel.

A sensation has been caused by the abrupt departure of the King of Saxony from Pots-dam, where he was visiting Emperor William. The sudden ending of the visit caused a report that the Emperor and the King had quarreled over the army measure. Some sudden rupture had undoubtedly occurred between the sovereigns, but as the Government of Saxony some time ago assented to the military reorganization, the rupture could not have happened over the army

Bismarck Was the Bone of Contention. Members of the diplomatic circle credit another report which has it that the difference arose over the Emperor's proposing to prosecute Prince Bismarck, whose latest revelations, showing he precipitated war with France by falsifying the famous Ems dispatch, are felt in official quarters to justify any measure that may be adopted to silence him. The King of Saxony, it is said, not only opposed Prince Bismarck's prosecution, but urged the Emperor to make the first advance toward a reconciliation with Bismarck.

Whatever occurred, it is a fact that after the private conference, which lasted two hours between the monarchs, the King of Saxonv cut short his visit, made a brief call on the Chancellor and quitted Berlin without any court official doing the usual honor of accompanying him to the railway station. The Emperor, who had received him at the station in full uniform and surrounded by the officers of his household, entirely ignored his departure. The inci-dent will not abate the determination of the King of Saxony to prevent the Emperor

A Better Feeling Among the Empires. Grand Duke Vladimir, of Russia, who has been hunting with the Emperor at Goerhae, was suddenly recalled to Paris to-night by news of the illness of his wife. He did not return to Potsdam to bid farewell to the Emperor, but proceeded by a direct train for Paris. His visit, though it had no special political object, has signifireception by Emperor Francis Joseph, as it proves that more friendly relations exist between the Imperial families of Germany, Austria and Russia.

The failure of the negotiations for a commercial treaty with Russia is not final. The St. Petersburg Bourse Gazette to-day says that Eussia, though unable to sacrifice her coal and iron trades in exchange for a reduction in the German corn duties, will resome negotiations on more favorable economic lines. If the German Government did not oppose Russia's obtaining a loan in Germany it would render the St. Peters-burg treasury an essential service. The Gazette illogically concludes that the loan has nothing to do with the commercial treaty, though everybody knows that improved trade relations are closely associated with facilities for Russian loans.

What the Socialists Are Doing. The Socialist Congress this afternoon quietly disposed of all amendments to the party programme by passing to the order of the day. Throughout the Congress the reds and the Anarchists have been unheard. Many of the country delegates seized the occasion to bring their wives to Berlin, and have done much sight-seeing with their families. This, probably, assisted to make the Congress the most peaceful gathering of Socialists ever known. Some of the partisans of the extremists, Werner and Wilden. berg, were among the delegates, but they seemed overwhelmed by the humdrum character of the debate, and were most silent.

To-day the Frankfort and Wiesbaden delegates asked the Congress to establish a central organ of the party at Frankfort. The rejection of the proposal, by a vote of 118 to 110, did not disturb anybody. About half the delegates were absent to-day, finishing the week in a festive manner. The reds used strong language concerning the Burgeois moderation of the members of the Congress. The Extremists generally are having a bad time with the police. The arrest of Hermann Leimert, editor of the latest Anarchist journal, has been followed by the arrest of a number of others here and in Weissensu. A Clergyman in Trouble for Libel. Rector Ahlwardt will be tried for libel November 29. His prosecution relates to his pamphlet in regard to rifles fur-nished the War Office by the Hebrew man-ufacturer, Herr Loweve. The War Minis-lister and a number of high officers will be

The Government of Baden has publicly warned the people against eating raw American pork, and has ordered that all American meat brought into the Dutchy be re-examined, even though accompanied by an American certificate of inspection.

The delegates to the International Monetary Conference at Brussels, who represent the Latin Union, held a meeting to-day to discuss the proposals of Italy concerning the circulation of copper coins within the nations belonging to the Union, with a view of remedying the meonvenience felt by reason of Italy's lack of small coins. The deliberation on this subject has no bearing on the General Conference.

VATICAN ARCHIVES AT THE PAIR.

The Pope Cannot Send All of Them Owing to the Quirinal's Opposition.

ROME. Nov. 19 .- Mr. Curtis, in the name of the United States, has presented a letter to Cardinal Rampolla, asking that the Pope send to the Chicago Exhibition all the documents and archives in the Vatican library relating to the United States. Cardinal Rampolla has promised to send copies of some of the documents and photographs of some of the documents and photographs of others, but it will be impossible to send that with everyone who takes them.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint

"SAXTON, PA., Feb. 5, 1892. "DEAR SIRS-I have been a great sufferer for the past eight months with indigestion for the past eight months with indigestion and liver complaint, caused by irregularity at my meals. In that time I lost 62 pounds and my strength left me so that I was a carcely able to be about the house. I was a misery to myself and all about me. Everyone who saw me thought and said I could not live louger than spring. Indeed, I thought so myself. I lost as high as

18 to 20 lbs. per Week

I doctored with some of our best physicians, but to no avail. Then I went to Huntingdon and tried two there, but with no better results. I became very low, had been confined to the house some two months, when one of the doctors recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla. It had done me good before, so I concluded to give it a fair trial again. I commenced using it about January 1, 1892. In six days I began to relish food, and fr. m that time on I gained rapidly. I have not quite taken my second bottle. I have gained 28 pounds in 24 days. I feel almost as well as I ever did. Can cat well, sleep good, and don't have

That Tired Feeling In fact, I am a new man. My neighbors cannot talk enough about the change they see in me, and all to be attributed to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

I want the people to know what it has done for me. I cannot recommend it too highly." HARRISON HOUPT. "P.S. The following are names of our
