RIVAL ATHLENIC CLUBS.

Two of Them at New Orleans Promise to Make Things Lively.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20 .- Unless the combiation of athletic clubs is soon brought about the fighters will soon be getting $100 . 600 for going into the ring. Last night the Olympic Club directors held a meeting and accepted the resignation of President Cluries Noel, electing Alderman Charles Dickson to fill the vacancy. Mr. Dickson was heart and soil with the old board, and position which sprang up within the club after the recent triple event. Now, howover, that he is a rival President, he is deermined to maintain the supremacy of the Olympic Club, and will not be outbid by the vent in the market. Said the new Presi-

Greggains in Good Form,

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.-[Ssecial.]-Alex Greg-gains, who will face Buffalo Costello on the night of November 28 at the Coney Island Athletic Club, is, according to a letter roceived by Johanie | Eckhardt, rapidly approaching good form under the watchful eye of his trainer, Martin Murphy, at Sangus, of his trainer, Martin Murphy, at Sangus, Mass. He has reduced flesh considerably and finds that he can get to the specified weight, 156 founds, with comparatively lit-itle inconvenience. His road work is done principally around Revere, and his tall figure can be seen plodding industriously along the roads about the Middlesex Falls every morning bright and early.

New York Chub's Difficulties.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.-[Special.]-It has been figured that a 10 per cent assessment would wipe out this indebtedness and J. W. Spaiding, E. B. Talcott, E. A. McAlpin and F. E. Robinson are perfectly willing to meet such a call, but the other holders of stock do such a call, but the other bolters of stock do not regard it with favor. The club is capi-talized at $250,000, and a single assessment would place the club on a good financial fooring. The big men in the club feel pretty warm over the action of the little fellows, and unless they meet their obligations there will be some finale baselinging. will be some lively hustling in order to dis-

General Sporting Notes. Tuts will be a great football week.

YALE is not such a big favorite now for Thurs day's game. MR. BUCKENBERGER is the recognized President of the local ball club.

EASTERN critics seem to agree that Cornell has the best half-back player now in Osgo od.

ACCORDING to custom Relily and Ward should resume their wrestling contest to-day. LAWLOR and Casey, the handball experts, are matched to play for the championsh p at Brooklyn shortly.

LOCAL patrons of football are extremely anxious for another football game between the P. A. C. and Three A. teaus.

Fr is stated that Byrne, of Brooklyn, is the only member of the Rules Coumlities who favors the 93-foot diamond notion. IF baseball has to be successful next season the magnates must start at once and have a good feel-ing established all round.

ED REILLY gained one fall in his wrestling match with Ward at Beaver Falls Saturday and the contest was adjourned.

THE Sewickley Junior football team want to play any local team whose average weight is not more than 95 pounds. Address J. N. Burrows, Sewick-ley, Pa.

A NEW meeting has been arranged in London between Stanton Abbott and Sam Baxter, who de feated Abbott when Austin S. Gibtons was unabi-to go on. The men are to fight at 128 pounds early in January.

At Marcus Daly's Riverside Farm in Montana there is now being constructed a covered half mile training track which is to be lighted by electricity and kept in condition for both work and trials at any time of the yrar. The storms will thus be kept out, and early training cau be commenced under favorable conditions. Tavorable conditions. THE New York State Road House Association will urge the next State Legislature to provide good roads and plonty of them. Robert E. Bonner, C. J. Hauslin and a half a dozen other prominent horse lovers are the promoters of the society, Good roads are considered necessary to the attainment of a high grade of trotters.

A BOARDING HOUSE MUDDLE.

The Landlady Atleges Disorderly Conduct

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 20 .- Prof. C. E. Rostell and his wife, who recently came conspicu ously before the public by their marriage on the stage, caused the arrest yesterday morning of their landlady, Mrs. E. C. Foster, and her sister, Miss M. J. Cane, on the charge of grand larceny. The result of these arrests was the arrest last evening of Prof. Rostell, was the arrest last evening of Prof. Rostell, his wife and her mother, Mrs. Emma Deven-stedt, on the charge of disorderly conduct. For several weeks Rostell and his wife and mother-in-haw have been boarding with Mrs. Foster. They claim to have lost a number of valuable articles from their rooms. The other side of the story is that the actor and his young wife have been boarding without paying all that they should. Mrs. Foster says a suit was threatened and she ordered them to leave the house. They were not allowed to enter the dining room.

THE Little Fred left on Saturday night and the Joseph Nixon was preparing to leave last night for Louisville after an empty tow. Alle Seven Sons arrived from Cincinnati yester-day morning with six empty barges. She left for Liverpool again at noon after empties. The new packet Sunshine arrived from Wheel-ing at midnight Saturday, leaving for that place again at 12 o'clock yesterday with a good trip. THE Herron Hill Rod and Gun Club have hired the City of Pittsburg for an excursion up the Monongahela on Thursday. She will be towed by the Lud Keefer. The Mayflower was expected in from Cincinnati with empty barges last night. The Cyclone, with Captain Lud Keefer in command, weut down to help her up with her tow. THE Little Dick started for below Saturday night to meet the Belia McGowan, and will return with her tow of 14 empty barges. The latter boat will then return to Louisville after more empties. CAPTAIN PERRY BROWN, who died recently at his home at Rochester, was buried yesterday. Capitald Brown had not been in active service for some years. The last boat he commanded was the Hard Times. He was 72 years of age and highly respected. respected. CAFTAIN ROBERTSON, of the Seven Sons, said jesterday that he had more trouble with rifles on Saturday when returning with the Seven Sons than he has had for 25 years from that source. strike off. So far as can be outlined, there will be a further report of the Committee on Cor-ation. The Committee on the State of the Or-der will report, and there is likely to be a long discussion over the suggestion to sell the general headquarters at Philadelphia. The question of the formation of an Em-ployes Guarantee Company to furnish money to injured workinguien to carry on suits for damages against employers will causa a lively debate. The Committee on Legislation will furnish a few sug-restions to Congress as to what the Knights want in the way of national laws: also reports from several special committees, notably on the advisability of sending delagates to the world's Fair Labor Congress and on the questions submitted by the National W.
