GRAVE ROBBERS IN INDIANA.

The Remains of a Young Girl Taken Fron the Coffin at Cloverland. BRAZIL, IND., Nov. 21.-The little town of Cloverland, this county, is excited over a systematic series of grave robberies that have been going on for several years. Yesterday workmen opened the grave of Mary West, the 16-year-old grave of Mary West, the 16-year-old daughter of George West, a wealthy and prominent merchant, with a view to moving the remains, which were buried there several years ago. When the coffin was reached they were horrified to find it empty and turned over.

This brings to mind the fact that at times suspicious looking characters have been noticed toltering about the cemetery, and it is now believed that they have been robbing the graves of wealthy deceased immediately after burial, and, after robbing the bodies of jewels, sold them to medical institutes. Investigation will be made to learn if other bodies are missing. bodies are missing.

QUAKER CITY TEACHERS ORGANIZE An Educational Club Admitting Male

Members of the Profession. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.-What is regarded among teachers in Philadelphia as one of the most important of recent educational movements connected with the public school system, is the formation of a new school system, is the formation of a new organization among the male teachers, known as the Educational Club of Philadelphia. The first public meeting will be held next Friday.

The new club admits to membership only men engaged in the work of teaching or of superintendence in the public schools of the city. The object is to further the professional status of teachers by the consideration of important educational topics at the regular monthly meetings.

MARRIED AFTER SIXTY YEARS,

An Old Man Who Deserted His Sweetheart

Returns and Weds Her. MONROE, GA., Nov. 21.-Near Jefferson, in Jackson county, John McCabe married Mrs. Toom yesterday. McCabe left Jackson county in 1835 when 18 years of age because of jealousy of his sweetheart, Jessie Carmichael. He married, but his wife died, and Saturday he returned to his home after an absence of 60 years, and finding his old love a widow, married her yesterday.
