SUSTAINED THE GUARDIAN.

Mrs. McIntosh's Objections to Living on a Back Street Are Overruled-Oleomargarine Dealers Plead Guilty-The News of the County and United States Courts. In the Orphans' Court an order has been made dismissing the petition of Mrs. Mary E. McIntosh, who asked for the removal of D. Howard Brown as guardian of her three minor children. She had claimed that he wanted to make her live on Auburn street, a back street, and objected to her living on Ellsworth avenue, a front street; that he would not allow her sufficient for the children's support out of their income, and that he had threatened to remove the children from her and had thereby injured her health. A hearing in the case was had and it resulted in the court sustaining Mr. Brown, the guardian, in all the matters in which complaint had been made against him, and dismissing the petition.

STOPPING THE NOTES.

Application for an Injunction Upon a N tional Bank.

A bill in equity was filed in the United States Circuit Court vesterday by C. M. Lyman, surviving partner of the firm of Lyman & Taylor, of New York, against the First National Bank of Bradlord, John A. O'Dell and N. W. McCourt. The suit is brought to restrain the bank from disposing of promis-sory notes, aggregating $8,450, made payable to the firm of Lyman & Taylor and held by the bank, also a morigate given to the firm the bank, also a morigare given to the firm by O'Dell & McCourt. The notes and mort-gage, it is stated, were given to the bank by Taylor, of the firm, who owed the bank money on an individual account. Though the notes and mortgare were partnership property he indorsed the firm name and gave them to the bank. After Taylor's death Lyman discovered this and now wants the bank compelled to turn them over to him.

A Dissatisfied Partner.

Ernest M. Hirsch entered a suit vesterday against W. S. Zahniser and others, asking that a receiver be appointed to wind up the affairs of the United States Sa etyFire E-cape Company of Pittsburg. Hirsch entered the Company of Pittsburg. Hirsch entered the partnership concern with the understand-ing that he was to have charge of the Pitts-burg office at a salary of $75 a month, $60 of which was to be paid monthly and $15 placed to his credit for a year, when it should be paid to him in a lump. This acreement has not been lived un to and Mr. Hirsch seeks to have the partnership dis-solved solved.
