DAVENPORT'S BILLS

Will Be Paid by Secretary Foster When They Are Audited.

A CURT LETTER SENT TO FITCH

Who Has Requested That Payment Be Suspended Awhile.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM OF POLITICS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Secretary Charles Foster has written a letter to Representative A. P. Fitch, Chairman of the Congressional Committee investigating election methods in New York, in regard to the accounts of John I. Davenport, Chief Supervisor of Elections in New York, in which he says:

In reply to your communication of the 21st inst. I have the honor to say that John I. Davenport, the Chief Supervisor of Elections for the Southern district of New York, has not presented to the department his bills for services alleged to have been rendered in the recent election, amounting to $50,000 or any other sum. That he has demands against the Government for services rendered at such election, and that he contemplates presenting such demands within a reasonable time, I have no doubt. Your request that when such bills are presented payment be suspended until such time as the committee of Congress, of which you are Chairman, can have an opportunity to verify and examine such accounts, I fear cannot be granted within the law.

The act of February 22, 1875, contemplates a hearing in open court on the question of the accuracy of accounts of chief supervisors when they are presented for allowance, and that, if you see proper and desire to be heard on that question, you should be present at the hearing, and that the finding of the court allowing the claim is so far conclusive to the Treasury Department that it would not be warranted in suspending payment until your committee has an opportunity to verify and examine the accounts, unless some evidence of fraud or clear and unequivocal proof of mistake on the part of the court is pointed out. Be assured, however, that any courtesy consistent with my duty under the law will be extended to your committee.

CALIFORNIA'S COUNT SUSPENDED

While a Test of the Australian System Is Made in the Courts.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Judge Lawler last night granted a temporary injunction restraining the election commissioners from proceeding with the official canvass of the vote cast in this city at the recent election. The suit is brought by James Welsh, who alleges that the Australian ballot law prevented him from enjoying the secrecy of the ballot, as guaranteed by the constitution, and that therefore the law is unconstitutional.

Welsh avers that he is partially blind and he couldn't vote under the Australian system without assistance. Welsh's attorney says the result of the National election may be affected by the suit, and the Legislature and municipal elections will be invalid if sustained in his client's favor.

FELTON'S SUCCESSION IN DOUBT.

The Third Party Controls the California Legislature This Time.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—It appears by the full returns that the Third party will hold the balance of power in the next Legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Felton. The Democrats are five short of a majority, while the Republicans require seven to control the Legislature on joint ballot.

This throws the balance of power into the hands of seven Independents, and as their choice on the Senatorial question cannot be obtained, it leaves the matter of succession very much in doubt.

A Blow at the People's Party.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 24.—The Fulton County Alliance, one of the largest and most influential in the State, passed resolutions to-day that it will hereafter be non-partisan; that all political discussions be prohibited and that efforts be made by the order to educate the people so that they may become more proficient in agricultural and mechanical arts. This is intended as a blow to the People's party, which has control of the Alliance.

An Escort for Stevenson.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Nov. 24.—The Democrats of this city and vicinity are making arrangements for escorting Adlai E. Stevenson to Washington on the occasion of his inauguration. A special train of parlor cars has been secured, and will go via Chicago over the Alton and Pennsylvania lines. It has been secured for six days, and will thus give the travelers three days in Washington.

Weaver Gets One Oregon Elector.

SALEM, ORE., Nov. 24.—The Secretary of State is in receipt of the complete election returns from all the counties except five. The returns show that Pierce, the Fusion elector, has a plurality of 829 over the highest Republican elector. The five counties to hear from will increase Pierce's plurality. The electoral vote of Oregon will stand: Harrison, 3; Weaver, 1.

Senator Kyle With the Democrats.

SIOUX CITY, IA., Nov. 24.—In a published interview Senator Kyle, of South Dakota, is quoted with saying that he will act with the Democrats on the tariff question, and will vote for "any judicial measure, that will be a step in the direction of tariff reform."

Planning to Divide Kansas.

TOPEKA, KAN., Nov. 24.—A meeting has been called by the leading politicians of Western Kansas, at Hutchinson, Friday, to map out a campaign for the division of the State, to be laid before the Legislature and Congress this winter.

CALLED TO NEW YORK.

J. M. Guffey Goes East to Confer With Boss Croker, of Tammany.

J. M. Guffey left for New York last night in answer to a telegram sent him by Richard Croker, of Tammany Hall. "There is no political significance attached to my going to New York," Mr. Guffey said. "Mr. Croker is a warm personal friend of mine, and it is highly probable he is calling me to New York on some business matter."

"Have you made up your mind in regard to the mayoralty nomination?"

"No, I have not. My business interests are demanding my individual attention just now, and I have not been thinking much of the mayoralty contest. My friends are anxious that I should enter the fight, but I hesitate before taking the important step. There is plenty of time yet in which to decide upon a candidate."

Senator Brown in Pittsburg.

State Senator-elect John H. Brown, of Westmoreland county, was in Pittsburg yesterday in conference with political and personal friends. Senator Brown is a farmer. He was Chairman of the Republican Committee of his county for two years and he is generally looked upon as the leader of his party in his district. He received the largest vote ever polled by any Republican in Westmoreland county, and while Westmoreland county was carried by the Democrats by majorities ranging from 22 to 560 votes, Senator Brown was elected by a majority of 15 votes.

NEWS OF THE STAGE.

THE programme describes Dan Mylrea in "Ben-My-Chree" as Mr. Barrett's "original creation." Having assisted Mr. Hall Caine in the dramatization of his novel "the Deemster," on which "Ben-My-Chree" is built, it is but natural that Mr. Barrett should find in this play the background that is best suited to his histrionic powers. Dan Mylrea is a young fisherman who in self-defense kills the brother of the girl he loves, the brother wanting to avenge his sister, as he thinks Dan has wronged her. Dan's father, who is a bishop, saves his son from the gallows by virtue of his clerical authority which on the Isle of Man, where the play takes place, is superior to a civil tribunal, but condemns him to live in constant silence, never exchanging a word with his sweetheart. The Governor of the Island, however, who is the rejected lover of Dan's girl, prefers charges of immorality against her, and as Dan is the only person who, by his evidence, can save her, he breaks his vow of silence for her sake and consequently must suffer the penalty of death. The plot is straightforward, logical and simple and gains much in effectiveness by being vitalized on the stage. As Dan, Mr. Barrett shows himself possessed of much more emotional power than his previous performances have warranted; in the scene where his father, The Bishop, pronounces judgment upon him and he realizes that forthwith he has to live the life of a hermit, the still resignation with which he accepts his fate is truly touching. Equally impressive is his sorrow over having killed young Ewan Mylrea, and the noble, self-sacrificing spirit, that in spite of all Dan's faults, is a predominating feature of his character, is admirably portrayed and feelingly suggested. Miss Maud Jeffries gives to the part of Mona Mylrea a very sympathetic tinge and rises to considerable height in the strong scenes. In the ungrateful part of The Deemster Mr. McLeay was very good and Mr. Melford gave a true picture of the heart-broken Bishop. The staging of the play was carried out to the minutest detail, and considering that the performance all around was such a success that several curtain calls were demanded after each act, it is to be wondered that "Ben-My-Chree" was not played earlier in the week.

A SPLENDID performance of George H. Boker's tragedy "Francesca Da Rimini" was given at the Alvin Theater last night. Frederick Warde as Lanciotto, Louis James as the Jester and Miss Edythe Chapman as Francesca were excellent. The whole production, however, was upon a really grand scale of art. The superb color of the Italian background was preserved always in scenery and costumes alike. Nothing finer in its way has been seen upon our stage than the cathedral scene, with its stained glass windows apparently casting a rich glow upon the lighted altar. Luckily the theater could hardly find room for the crowd that flocked there last night, and if this picturesque play of intense interest, well acted and splendidly staged, does not draw as great an audience to-night it will be a pity. Messrs. Warde and James deserve the success they are meeting with.

"THE LOST PARADISE" opens a two weeks' engagement at the Alvin Theater next Monday. "The Lost Paradise," Henry C. De Mille's latest play, is purely American in theme, in locality, in character and in treatment. He has woven about the much discussed labor question a love story of powerful interest and invested it with strong, forcible and graceful dialogue. As in his other successful plays, Mr. De Mille has selected a subject of real life, one that enlists the strongest sympathies and he has worked it out with a high moral and humane purpose. Mr. Charles Frohman has selected an excellent cast for its proper presentation, which will include Forrest Robinson, Frank Dayton, Meriam Bruce, Charles Hokes, S. S. Wilisie, Esther Lyons, Virginia Marlowe, Frances Lander, and others.

CHARLES H. HOYT's apology for having written "A Trip to Chinatown" which appears at the Duquesne Theater next week, is that whatever the play may be it is all that is claimed for it. The company that appears here next week embraces many members of the New York cast, including Burt Haverly, George A. Beane, Jr., Richard Karl, Gus P. Thomas, Lillian Swain, Harry Gilfoil, W. D. Lewis, Caroline Boelen, Grace Kensington, the McCoy sisters, Patrice and Laura Bigger. The musical numbers which have already become so popular that they are played on nearly every piano throughout the land embrace, "Out for a Racket," "The Pretty Widow," "On the Bowery," "Push Dem Clouds," Crisp Young Chaperone," "The Waiting Maid" and some extraordinary whistling.

"FANTASMA" will be presented at the Grand Opera House next week with a good company and with all the novel and ingenious mechanical effects and surprises that have made it one of the most popular attractions of recent years.

TO-NIGHT Mr. Wilson Barrett will produce "Pharaoh" with a wealth of splendid scenery. The play is said to be powerful and Mr. Barrett's performance in it is quite beyond the ordinary.

ALL the theaters had standing room only last night, and the matinees were well attended.

N. S. Wood, a great favorite at Harris' Theater, is booked there for next week.

Douglas & Mackie's, 151, 153, 155 Federal Street, Allegheny.

Bargain seekers should not fail to call at Douglas & Mackie's, 151, 153, 155 Federal street, before finally making their purchases. These three large stores are fairly bristling with the most fashionable and seasonable goods in every department, and at the lowest prices known. The ladies will be attracted by the splendid department of dress goods, where imported stuffs and the choicest American novelties are found in very large selection. The space devoted to black dress goods contains a fine selection of henriettas, serges, novelty goods, including whip cords, burmahs, matlasse, etc., etc.

For household uses a very tempting array of linens, towels, table linens and damasks, embracing the best things from Germany, Ireland and Scotland, are on sale, at prices to gladden the housewife's heart. Blankets from the all wool country to the finest Californias are here in abundance, alongside elderdown quilts and covers. The cloak department is as large as some entire stores, and is replete with bargains in every style of materials and shapes of wraps, jackets, garments, capes, muffs, boas, etc. On the same floor is a fine selection of ladies' suits, wrappers and tea gowns.

To enumerate the lines of other articles would be impossible here, but these stores are complete and prices so low that a visit will be amply repaid in the saving on purchases.

Sick Headache
21 Years Suffering Ended by One Bottle of HOOD'S

The intense misery of those who suffer with sick headache is beyond description. The wonderful success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in curing this trouble warrants us in urging all who are afflicted by sick headache to give this medicine a trial. Read this:

"Few people suffer as much as I have with sick headache. I have had it by spells for 21 years, sometimes as often as

Three Times a Week

I would get up with it, suffer all day, go to bed with it, and have it all night. I tried everything that was recommended, but never was cured until about a year ago, when

My Mother-in-Law

Persuaded me to try one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am glad to say that it cured me, and I have not had a sick headache since I took the first bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has done me a great deal of good in other ways, and has increased my weight from 122 to 142 pounds. I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough." MRS. ED. SWAN, Duncanville, Ill.
