Chief Bigelow's Formal Withdrawal of His Opposition to THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL PROJECT.

NATIONAL GUARD'S CLAIM UPON THE FIFTH AVENUE MARKET.

A CONFLICT BETWEEN CITY CHIEFS

At a lively meeting yesterday of the committee on Public Works Chief Bigelow withdrew his opposition to locating the Pittsburgh High School in the Fifth Avenue Market House.

At a lively meeting yesterday of the committee on Public Works Chief Bigelow withdrew his opposition to locating the Pittsburgh High School in the Fifth Avenue Market House.

The explanation was unsatisfactory. The explanation did not satisfy Mr. Wilson, and he said that he knew there was a conflict between the Chief of the Department of Public Works and the Chief of the Department of Public Safety on the question.

Chief Bigelow, who was present, said that Mr. Wilson need have no fear that the Central Board would not get their share of the Fifth Avenue Market House property.

CANNOT DECIDE THE QUESTION.

Lawrenceville Strikers in a Very Unsettled Frame of Mind on the Strike.

The Lawrenceville strikers yesterday held a long and secret meeting. They are in a very unsettled frame of mind.

IVES WAS ABSENT.

The Young Napoleon of Finance Failed to Show Up and His Suit Against the Callery Estate Was Continued—News of the Courts.

The $20,000 damage suit of Henry S. Ives, the "Napoleon of Wall street," against the executors of James Callery, deceased, was called in Judge Ewing's Court yesterday, but as the plaintiff did not put in an appearance, the case was postponed until Monday.

The affidavit of claim states that on May 5, 1888, James Callery, deceased, gave the plaintiff an option on 1,000 shares of the capital stock of the City Savings Bank of the par value of $25.00 for the sum of $24,000, said option to be good until May 5, 1889, and for which he paid $10,000; that on May 5, 1889, plaintiff tendered to said James Callery the full amount of money called for in the option, and demanded the stock, which said Callery very refused to deliver to the plaintiff, and he, therefore, claims $20,000 damages.

Heavy Damages for Injuries. In the suit of Miss Barbara Reich against the Philadelphia Company for damages for injuries caused by an explosion of natural gas on Smallman street a verdict was given for $22,000 damages for the plaintiff.

Drove Away His Tenants. Owen McCusker yesterday entered suit against the Citizens' Traction Company for $30,000 damages for injury to property fronting 90 feet on Penn avenue, between Thirty-second and Thirty-third streets.

The Hum of the Courts. A VERDICT OF $475 for the plaintiffs was given yesterday in the case of Mellon Brothers against A. E. McCandless, an action for damages resulting from a Sheriff's sale.

John Newell, the restaurateur, has sued Henry Levy for damages for injury to Newell's Turkish bath establishment on Diamond alley by reason of bad floors, which compelled him to move out. Levy had previously sued Newell for two months' rent.

A FETTERION was filed yesterday for a writ of habeas corpus to secure the release of Lloyd Jamieson from the workhouse. He was committed by Magistrate Grigg October 29 for 90 days on a charge of disorderly conduct. It is claimed his commitment was illegal.

A BILL IN equity was filed yesterday by S. Raekus against Thomas McGuinness, A. M. Spurr and the W. L. Mellon Pipe Lines. The suit is brought to secure the defendants' credit to the plaintiff the value of a certain share in oil run from a well in Robinson township. It is claimed the value of the share is $1,155 more than his pro rata share of the cost of drilling the well.

Baron Fava's Strange Countryman. A young Italian, 25 years of age, having two perfectly developed heads with all the faculties of each in perfect form, mind, strength, etc., was brought to the city by a perfectly developed shrewder, having four perfect arms and hands, two stomachs, hearts, four lungs, etc., and two brains. The young man is named "The Toco" or "Two-Headed Boy," and, it will be remembered, was at this home last January—consequently the accuracy of the above description can be vouched for. Never has such a strange and singular being been born to man since the creation of the world, and, perchance, never will again, at least during the present era.

George O'Dell Arrested as a Boarding House Thief. George O'Dell, of Troy, N. Y., was arrested Thanksgiving as a boarding house thief. He is a civil engineer and a nephew of General Manager O'Dell, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

After the National Encampment. A meeting of the Grand Army Day Committee of Allegheny county will be held in Council Chambers, Municipal Hall, this afternoon for the purpose of discussing the matter of trying to secure the meeting of the National Encampment of 1894 for Pittsburgh. The importance of the subject will probably cause a large attendance of the members.

Killed by a Wagon. John Kuhn died at the West Penn Hospital yesterday morning. Last Tuesday he was run over by a wagon of the Pennsylvania Salt Company. The inquest will be held to-day. He was 57 years of age.

Steam Pipe Bursts. W. H. Anderson, of 77 South Twenty-second street, was terribly scalded yesterday by the bursting of a steam pipe at Fisher's laundry. His recovery is doubtful.

MUSICAL MATTERS.

CARL STASNY, SOLOIST, AT THE SYMPHONY CONCERT.

Another Instance in Which the Artist Grand Henry F. Miller Piano Divided the Honors With a Great Pianist and the World-Renowned Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Boston, Oct. 23, 1922.—Director Nikisch gave the symphony concert patrons ample food for thought last evening as he presented a programme of three works, all of which were unfamiliar to local musicians.

The overture to Reinecke's opera, "Mandragora," opened the programme, and had a first hearing here. It is certainly an excellent composition in the modern style, which does not bear the impress of Wagnerian tendencies, the ideas having in some ways the characteristics of Schumann in his clearer and most melodious mood.

The piano solo selected by Mr. Carl Stasny for his first appearance here with orchestra, and the remarkable success attending his performance justified his choice of it. In his playing Mr. Stasny was aided in his efforts by a fine "Miller Grand," and proved himself a singularly clear and intelligent interpreter of this brilliant French composition.
