social purity bill, which is called the lex Heinze, from the notorious Heinze case, which exposed the vices of Berlin, will now be expedited toward its passage. The Emperor is greatly interested in this measure, and he wants no delay in its being made a law.

Hard Feelings Between Two Statesmen.

The Lower House of the Prussian Dict is absorbed in the discussion of the question of Minister Miquel's reform. The spectsele of Minister Herrfurth denouncing his former colleagues is almost an unknown event in the history of the Landtag. His speeches have caused several rows. Count justified. Limbourgsturm upbraided Herrfurth for assuming an attitude unworthy a statesman who had just quitted office. He seemed ng by this reproach. He replied that he had been obliged to resign because, while he was Minister of the Interior, he refused to submit to the demands of the Bavarian during the next four or five months party, claiming that their interests were protected at the expense of others. Minister Miquel's proposals, with some minor amendments, were to-day referred to a committee. The Diet then adjourned sine die. Diplomatic circles here are excited over a report that the Czarewitch, during his recent visit to Vienna, paid marked atten-tions to Princess Maria Annunciade, daughter of Archduke Karl Ludwig, brother of Emperor Francis Joseph. Princess Maria will be only 17 years old on the next anni-versary of her birth. She has lived a lite of seclusion, having been educated at Castle Riechenau. Her mother, Princess Maria Theresa of Braganza, who is the third wife of the Archduke, is a close friend of the Czarina. By the consent of their parents the Princess and the Czarewitch met at every lete given to the latter in Vienna.

More Signs of a Possible Betrothal

The Empress of Austria, who had ab-stained irom taking part in every official function since the tragic death of Crown Prince Rudolph, was present at two of the dinners given in honor of the Czarewitch. The reluctance of the Russian heir apparent to marry, which was greatly troubling the Czar, is now believed to have been overcome. The question of difference of re-ligion, according to court talk, would be no bstacle to the marriage of the Princess and Cnarewitch.

A secret struggle is proceeding between a group of German financiers and a French syndicate over the construction of a canal system to link the Danube with the Oder and the Moldau with the Elbe. An Au trian syndicate employed French engineers to survey a route and estimate the cost of a ship canal to the great coal districts of Bohemia, Moravia and Silesia with the Dar the start of the second French calculations are erroneous, and that the ultimate cost of the proposed work will be 40,000,000 florins. As the authorities of Bohemia, Lower Austria and Moravia prom-ise to contribute 12,000,000 florins, there is no doubt that the canal will be built.

Emperor William has at last consented to let a German military band visit Chicago during the World's Fair. The best men will be selected for the purpose from the bands of the different regiments. The men will be divided into two divisions, one group wearing the uniform of the First Intantry Guards and the other wearing the uniform of the Guard du Corps. The band will undoubtedly create a sensation in Scottdale, Pa., says: "Since my four years' service in the army I have had catarth in my head, chronic diarrhœa, rheumatism and liver and kidney trouble. There was not an hour or even a minute when I did not suffer. My head hurt me all the time, and it seemed as though I had pains all over me. My sight was dim and there were floating.

The catarth affected my stomach so that when I ate the food seemed like lead. My sleep was broken and restless, and in the morning I felt more tired than when I went to bed. The rheumatism was in my right hip and shoulders. I spent a great deal of money trying to get well buy a great deal of money trying to get well, but failed until I took

You may think we are putting it strong in saying that this quality is generally sold at $15, and advertised by some houses as worth $20. But you'll think differently when you see it. This Ulster is by far the greatest value ever offered at

You should also see the BARGAINS IN BOYS AND YOUTHS' OVERCOATS AND ULSTERSnothing like them in either city.

We have contracted with the People's National Bank for 10,000 World's Fair Souvenir Coins. You can have one (on their receipt) if you purchase $10 or more worth of goods from us. The first coin that was struck off sold for $10,000. It was purchased by a typewriter company in the East. Ours only cost us $1 each, but there is no telling what they will be worth in six months. You can have one without any cost to you. Simply trade with us to the extent of $10 or more and you are entitled to one. Buy a Carpet and you receive a World's Fair Coin worth the price of the Carpet. Buy a Bed Lounge and get a Columbus Coin that you would not part with for two Bed Lounges. Buy a holiday gift for others and get a gift for yourself. Eighty purchasers have already registered for a World's Fair Coin in three days and many others have signified their intention to do so.

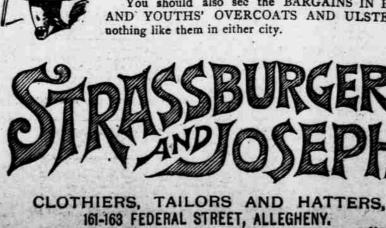

It is not the present value of the coin that we lay so much stress on, but we venture the prophecy that in a year hence you would not take $20 for it. Statistics prove that there are coins of the same character now extant which are valued at $900. Buy a set of Chairs and get the coin. Buy a Picture and you receive a coin on which there is a picture one should never forget. Buy a Parlor Suit, buy a Bedroom Suit, buy anything that has a value of $10 and the coin is yours.

Now, particularly as many will be looking around for Holiday Goods, see the many beautiful, sensible things we are offering for the holiday trade.

Although we have ordered 10,000 Souvenir Coins for distribution among our patrons, it is not saying that we will be allowed that number. In fact, if we are allowed one-half that number we will be thankful, as they will be a very scarce article by the first of May next. As we have already said, that only one is made for each 14 people in the United States, be that lucky one and you'll never regret it. .
