WANT TO FIND RYND.

Several Banks Anxious to Locate the Allegheny Lumberman.

AN ATTACHMENT ISSUED FOR HIM.

Charges That He Forged the Names of Prominent Business Men.

SIDNEY FULLER ONE OF HIS VICTIMS

Several banks in the two cities are anxious to discover the whereabouts of B. F. Rynd, the Allegheny lumber dealer who has been missing for nearly two weeks. There are rumors that he is safely located in Canada, but his attorney says Rynd was taken to an insane asylum somewhere in

Within the past day or two it has been found that Rynd has forged notes on a number of banks in the two cities, the total of which may aggregate over $20,000. The banks are the losers in each case, they having advanced him the money on the indorsements he had forged on the notes. The Central Bank yesterday issued an attachment against him to recover $3,116 06, due on promissory notes. In the suit the bank people say they expect to prove that the signatures of A. M. Bowers, W. G. Anderson, Henry Bakenfield, F. B. Benny, Sidney Fuller, J. W. Gerrard, S. J. Skinner and J. B. Finley are forgeries.

Sidney Fuller, one of those named, is one of the wealthiest and most prominent business men of Du Bois. He has lumber interests there and in this city. Prior to 1882 he had a large lumber yard in Allegheny and for four years Rynd worked for him. Forged Notes Went to Protest.

The first intimation he had that his name had been torged was last Tuesday, when he received word from the bank at Parnassus that a note indersed by him had gone to protest. On investigation he found that Rynd had forged his name to the note and there was about $1,500 more of the same kind of paper at the same bank.

Mr. Fuller came to this city on Friday.

Since that time he has found forgeries of his name alone to the extent of $10,000 and has not yet visited all the banks. In addition to the $3,000 at the Central Bank, nearly $3,000 were advanced by the Alle-gheny National, and nearly $4,000 by the Enterprise Bank on Beaver avenue, Alle-gheny. According to Mr. Fuller, Ryna worked a slick scheme on the Enterprise bank. For more than a year Mr. Fuller's name was regularly forged to notes which were promptly lifted on maturity. The notes were for comparatively small amounts until a short time ago the amount was piled up to nearly $4,000. They have not all matured, but Mr. Fuller thinks the money has been secured.

has been secured. Speaking of the forgeries last night, Mr. Fuller said: "A month ago I was in the office of John Hastings, the Allegheny lumber dealer, when he remarked that I was indorsing Rynd's paper. As I had sold Rynd lumber years before, never receiving any pay for it, and consequently cared to have nothing to do with him, as Mr. Hastings knew, I was surprised at the remark and denied the statement.

Forged $10,000 Worth of Notes. "I have since learned that Hastings had $10,000 in Rynd's notes on which my name had been forged. Hastings, as soon as I leit, went to the bank, stated the case, got the notes and went to Rynd's office. He took Rynd to an upstairs room and charged took Rynd to an upstairs room and charged him with the forgery. He denied it and started to leave the room, but Hastings picked up a shutter and, blocking the doorway, told Rynd he must secure every dollar of the money to him and the bank or he would never leave the room alive. Rynd 'fessed up then and furnished the security. Hastings had no idea that Rynd had been doing the same thing at other banks, and so never said a word about it.

"Mr. Rynd's attorney tells me he is insane. I don't believe it. It looks to me like a scheme to get rid of paying his debts.
He owes one Michigan firm $13,000 for lumber, Cowan, of Allegheny, $8,000, and many other firms smaller amounts. The total indebtedness so far as heard from-will reach $120,000, but his assets will not cover more than $20,000 of it."

The Sheriff's sale of Rynd's lumber yard on Irwin avenue, Allegheny, began yesterday. Hastings and Fuller bought all that was sold. The yard will net about $18,000. Since the court made the rule requiring the Sheriff to produce the money realized on the sale of Rynd's Kensington lumber yard, which realized $6,000, it is probable another sale will be necessary. Mrs. Rynd, to whom her husband confessed judgment for $30,000, is said to have bought the Kensington property in.

MURPHY AT THE HELM.

the Auspices of the Keeley Association at Lafavette Hall-Over 100 Signers Last Night-Broken Pledges Redeemed The Francis Murphy and Keeley Associ ation temperance movement held its first meeting in Lafayette Hall last night. The meeting was fairly well attended and was a splendid one in results, over 100 persons signing the pledge. The singing, led by Prof. Weeden, was one of the features.

During the meeting a man considerably under the influence of liquor staggered in. He would not sign the pledge and made a great deal of disturbance, but the example he afforded was such that it no doubt caused an increase in the number of pledge signers. an increase in the number of pledge signers. Among them was one who was the cause of special comment by Mr. Murphy. He was "Dave" Hall, a well-known Pittsburger. He had broken his Murphy pledge five years ago, but last night he went forward as one of the reclaimed and again signed his name and received the blue ribbon. He related, with a trembling voice, how he had broken his pledge five years ago. He said it was the meanest thing he had ever done in his life. He took a notion one day done in his life. He took a notion one day to go in a saloon to get a glass of lemonade. When he went in the devil, he supposed, got hold of him.

Hall continued that he just ordered a bot-the of wine. He kept tippling and finally got as bad as ever. He had now concluded to try again, and God helping him, he would do better.

Joseph R. Hunter, an old Murphy convert, related a history of troken resolves. He said no man started to drink with the intention of getting drunk, but he got drunk anyhow. He wouldn't take the Presidenoy of the United States or the crown of England to break his pledge.

J. M. Kelly, Secretary of the National Keeley Association, made a snort address. He related his own experience with liquor and his cure by Keeley. He also explained the workings of the Keeley Association, formed to help men receive the cure and aid them afterward to employment.

Rev. George Montgomery, of McKees-port, delivered a short address exhorting men to take the pledge and find true happiness in godliness, purity and righteousness.

The meeting concluded with a brief address by John J. Moore, the reformed sporting man. To-night John Rowe, the actor, who signed the pledge Sunday night, will deliver an address. will deliver an address.

PRICES TO GO UP.

Window Glass Makers Want More Money

for Their Product. The Western Window Glass Association will hold a meeting in Chicago to-day, with the avowed purpose of advancing prices. The rates were recently pushed up from 80, with 20 off, to 85, with 10 off. This price is to be stiffened a little. The Pittsburg members, headed by Secretary Loeffler, left for Chicago on the limited last evening. It is the intention to establish central agencies all over the country. One was started in Muncie last week and an agency will be established here shortly. The brokers have been running down prices and making war on the manufacturers. The agencies are intended to shut them out.

The competition of the wildcat concerns in Indiana and Michigan has injured the business. Small plants started with little capital and with a bonus of land and gas soon go to the wall, and then their glass is sold for what it will bring.

THE BEAVER FALLS MILLS.

The crews have been picked and had no notice of a postponement, so that it is thought the start will be made today or to-morrow. The rod mill is running smoothly and regularly. Superintendent Cooper is getting the mail department in good shape, and a start is expected to made next week. In connection with the nail mill the keg factory is being put in shape to resume operations.

MUSICAL CONSERVATORY OF WEST-MINSTER COLLEGE,

New Wilmington, Penna.

It has been duly recognized that the study of music is inseparable from a modern edu-cation, and everybody who intends to be well educated is obliged to include music cation, and everybody who intends to be well educated is obliged to include music among his studies.

This school of music has always had a high reputation, but under the present management it has been brought to a still higher standard. The present Director, Prof. Christian Thelen, is a graduate of the Conservatory of Cologne, Germany. He has proven himself second to none on the concert stage and a conscientious, able and successful teacher.

Mrs. Thelen, teacher of voice culture, is a pupil of the Katlonal Conservatory of Music at New York, and has also studied with the best French and Italian masters. As a vocalist she is unexcelled, as hus been shown by the sensation created wherever she has appeared. Mrs. Thelen has several engagements to sing at concerts of the best musical societies of the principal cities in Pennsylvania. She has been extremely successful as teacher.

Miss Clara L. Whissen, assistant teacher of piano and teacher of stringed instruments, has held her position at the conservatory for more than three years. She is a very careful and conscientious instructor and has met with the best success.

The conservatory is splendidly equipped; recently two new practicing pianos have been added to supply the increased demand: everything is done to make studying pleasant and profitable to our students. New Wilmington, Pa., is located on the Sharpsville Rallroad, about 50 miles from Pittsburg. It is a very healthy place in every respect.

HIGH SCHOOL WINS

Council Leases the Market House to the Board of Education.

CHIEF BIGELOW WANTS TO SELL

He Proposes a School Site to Be Located

Somewhere in Oakland.

THE GARBAGE DUMPS UNDER FIRE

Common Council yesterday afternoon passed by an easy majority the ordinance leasing the old market house property on Fifth avenue to the Central Board of Education for High School purposes, An ordinance providing for the sale of the market house property was presented to Councils. It was referred to the Finance Committee. The ordinance was prepared by Chief Bigelow, of the Department of Public Works. The Chief contends that by the sale of the market house property the city can realize sufficient money to purchase sites for a High School and an armory. He argues that a bridge is contemplated from the Southside at Twenty-second street and that the construction of bridge at Ben Venue will so enlarge the territory that the High School building should be constructed at Oakland. The Select Branch of Councils did not meet yesterday. A quorum could not be secured and Chairman Ford adjourned the meetiug. Common Council met promptly at 2 o'clock. The ordinance authorizing the Mayor to lease the Fifth avenue market house property to the Central Board of Education for a High School site was called up. On the motion to suspend the rules to place the ordinance on final passage, Mr. Magee demanded a division. President Holliday said he was too late and refused to order the division. A Dispute Over the Signature.

Mr. Wilson moved that the ordinance be sent back to the committee. The property is in charge of the chief of the department and the lease will have to be made by him. For this reason he moved to send it back for correction.

Mr. Flinn and Mr. Ferguson thought the Mayor was the proper person to sign the lease. Mr. Flinn said the ordinance should be passed. The city needs a new high school. This is a good site, and if the property is not given for this purpose another site must be bought. The popular vote would sustain this ordinance. The opposition to this ordinance came from men who were pledged to give this property to an armory. The State should furnish armories. The city furnishes schools, and between bullets and brains Mr. Flinn thought Councils should vote for brains.

The motion to recommit was defeated by a vote of 11 yeas to 21 nays. The ordinance was put on final passage and adopted by a vote of 27 yeas to 11 nays. The Select Council ordinance authorizing the arrest on view of persons depositing garbage on the streets, alleys or other pub-lic places was called up. Mr. Ferguson thought the ordinance should be laid over until provision is made to take away gar-bage. There was no way now to have garbage removed and it would not be right to pass this ordinance at this time. The East End Versus Lawrenceville,

A half dozen men said there were dumo A half dozen men said there were dump boats. Mr. Ferguson said that might be done down town, but how about the East End? Mr. MacGonigle, of the East End, said he paid $1 a month to have his garbage hauled away. Mr. Ferguson said he had never seen a garbage wagon in Lawrence-ville. Mr. MacGonigle suggested that the Lawrence-ville people ate things up cleaner, which care Mr. MacGonigle suggested that the which gave Mr. Ferguson a chance to make one of his speeches about the aristocrats of the East End.

Mr. Bigham, of the Soutistic, said the ordinance was all right and the chair asked Mr. Ferguson if he would call Mr. Bigham an aristocrat. Mr. Bigham said the ordinance prohibited people from throwing filth on the streets or the neighbors' lots, something that no one had a right to do. The dump boats could take care of all garbage.

Then Mr. Ferguson said that he thought there was something about dump boats behind this. He had seen a scale of prices hind this. He had seen a scale of prices and he thought it too high. The city should regulate this.

Mr. Magee thought the ordinance all right and said the city had paid enough to clean streets and vacant lots. Mr. King was afraid the ordinance was so drawn that it would be oppressive. Mr. Flinn said Councils had voted for extra sanitary officers and long age and now; the first sanitary officers and long age and now; the first sanitary officers and long age and now; the first sanitary officers and long age and now; the first sanitary officers and long age and now; the first sanitary officers are long age and now; the first sanitary officers are long age and now; the first sanitary officers are long age and now; the first sanitary officers are long age and now; the first sanitary of the s ers not long ago and now the first sanitary measure proposed is opposed. If the ordinance had been offered last summer it would have been passed without a word.

Afraid of a Monopoly. M. MacHugh said the ordinance called for "authorized places." There is but one authorized place and that is the dump boat at the Point. The moment that boat gets rushed the price goes up at 10 cents a load until it is 60 or 70 cents a load. In the cholera scare the wagons stood there in strings and all sorts of prices were charged. Mr. King said that the boat at the Point was the worst nuisance in the city. Half the refuse was thrown into the river and laid about the eddies. Mr. O'Donnell advocated the ordinance He told his experience in having to clean his property of garbage dumped there by the neighbors. He did not think the dump boat prices too high. He was paying 35 cents a load. The boats were under control of the Department of Safety, which regu-lated prices. He thought, however, the time would come when the city would have to provide other means of getting rid of gar-

Mr. Ferguson moved to postpone action. This was lost and the ordinance passed sec-ond reading. Mr. MacHugh offered an amendment reducing the minimum from $10 to $1, but was ruled out, the time for this having passed. On the final adoption there were 20 ayes and 11 noes, so the or-there were 20 ayes and 11 noes, so the or-dinance failed for want of a legal majority. Council went into committee of the whole to amend the ordinance with Mr. Bigham in the chair. Mr. MacHugh offered an amendment fix-ing the minimum fine at $1 and the maximum fee at $50. This was agreed to.

Mr. King moved to strike out the words relating to unauthorized places. He held that an arbitrary ruling of the authorities could prevents man from keeping a garbage box in his back yard.

Mr. Magee held that this would leave the nuisance in the East End, where every hol-low is a dump, as bad as ever. low is a dump, as pag as ever.

Mr. Bigham suggested that the words be inserted, "or any other premises without the consent of the owner," in the place of the words "authorized places." Mr. King accepted this.

Should Be Moved Every Day.

Mr. O'Donnell opposed the amendment. There were times when garbage should be moved every day, and the sanitary officers should have power to see that this is done.

Mr. Wright moved the reference of the committee to a special committee of five.

Mr. Ferguson again said the ordinance was for the benefit of a dump boat company. Mr. Smith had offered to burn up all the garbage for $8,000 cheaper than the city is now paying, and he didn't know why the offer was not accepted.

Mr. Wright's motion was not considered, Mr. King's motion was lost and the committee of the whole srose. The smendment changing site fine was reported and agreed to. Should Be Moved Every Day.

Mr. Wright renewed his motion to send the ordinance to a special committe of five. Mr. Magee said the committee of the whole had considered the ordinance, every mem-ber had a chance there to amend it then, and it looked like foolishness to immedi-ately send it to another committee. The chair remarked "we do some foolish things
