BRIGGS WINS TESTS.

The Two Heresy Charges to Which He Objects Are Stricken Out.

SMITH, ALSO, GAINS CONVERTS,

fhough the Cincinnati Presbytery le Still Opposing Him. .

LIVELY EPISODES AT BOTH TRIALS

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 .- The first important question which came up in the second day's session of the Briggs trial is the stand which the Prosecuting Committee would deeide to take in regard to Prot. Brigge' objections to the charges, and the demand that Nos. 4 and 7 be stricken out. Dr. Briggs' triends and opponents alike realized that a crisis was imminent.

Moderator Bliss announced that the business before the court was the consideration of the motion to strike out the two charges referred to, and then Dr. Alexander, who offered the motion, had the floor. He said he was willing to yield the floor to the Prosecuting Committee to learn whether it had decided to abandon or to press the charges. Dr. Booth made the point of order that the protest made by Dr. Briggs yesterday was a menace to the existence of the court, and could not, therefore, be considered. The Moderator made no ruling on

Why the Two Charges Should Stand, Colonel McCook then read the opinion of the committee on the motion, and argued of the committee on the motion, and argued that the two charges could not be dropped. In reference to Charge 7, Colonei McCook said that Dr. Briggs' suswer was irrelevant, because although ne had affirmed before the professors of the Union Seminary that he believed that one who died unpenitent is forever lost, he had since promulgated his theory of progressive sanctification in his inaugural address, and it is on the address that the charge was founded. The fourth charge could not be dropped, because Dr. Briggs' denial of the fulfillment of the details of prophesy is a denial of the the details of prophesy is a denial of the truthfuiness of the Bible and an impeach-truthfulness of the Bible and an impeachment of the omnipotence of God.

Dr. Briggs took the floor and said that one of Colonel McCook's points was based on a typographical error in the printed copy, and must be dropped. He declared that the offers made yesterday to waive nis objection to the six other characs were made conditionally. Dr. Robiason, the great hymn writer, wanted to know what the conditions were. He was answered by Dr. Van Dyke, and coproborated by the defendant, that the condition was that the charges which embodied two separate counts should be embodied two separate counts should be divided

Dr. Briggs' Cause Championed. Dr. Alexander's motion to strike out

Charge 4 was taken up. Prof. Brown, of the Union Seminary, foremost of Dr. Briggs' supporters, took the floor. He said the Prosecuting Committee had acced untainly in quoting part of Dr. Briggs' statements and taking them out of their proper connection. "Any minister," he said fervently, "could be proved heretical by this course."

Fifteen minutes were taken up by Dr. William G. Shedd, who defined the meaning of the word "disclatmer." A laugh was precipitated by his statement that Dr. Briggs is not guilty or laisenood, but of self-contradiction.

Dr. Hastings, the venerable President of the faculty with which the de endant is connected, did not mince words in claiming that the charge contains new matter. Said he: "The change made in the charge is radical. It gives the lie direct to Dr. Briggs, and there is no getting around it by casulstry." uistry."
"I call Dr. Hastings to order," exclaimed
William P. Worrall, Colonel Saepard's

private secretary.
"I don't want to be interrupted by that young man again," exclaimed the doctor.

Dr. Briggs Wins Two Test Votes. The effect of Mr. Worrall's point was that Dr. Hastings was cautioned to use milder language. He continued by affirming that Dr. Briggs should be his own interpreter, and, as he has disclaimed the charge, the charge should be dropped. A vote was taken, and the motion was carried by the decided vote of 70 to 49. The seventh charge suffered the same into by about the same vote. Colonel aicCook asked that an excep-tion to the court's action be emerced on the record in behalf of the Prosecuting Commit-record in behalf of the Prosecuting Committee.

Just before adjournment Dr. Briggs called attention to the fact that the court must diminish in numbers daily unless provision were made for permitting those nece sarriy absent at one or more sessions to retain their privilege of voting. Otherwise, he said, "we shall dwindle into a rump court, so small that its verdict will be received with no respect." Lawyer McCook answered that the court must abide by the provisions of the Book of Discipline. He was willing to accept any limitations of time in presenting his case that might be fixed by the Presbytery, provided the same restrictions were put upon Dr. Briggs. The latter declared such a proposition to be unfair, as he did not know what arguments might be used against him, and he must be accorded an opportunity of meeting them. The court then took a recess till to-morrow afternoon.

The Merits of Smith's Case Discussed.

The Merits of Smith's Case Discussed. The entire forenoon session of the Cincinnati Presbytery was spent in a discussion of the sufficiency in form and legal effect of the third charge and specifications agains Prot. Henry P. Smith. Yet, as in nearly all the preceding discussions, the speakers have wandered from the form to the sub-the preceding discussions, the speakers have wandered from the form to the substance. Dr. Roberts, with the main question evidently in his mind, said with emphasis that there is a crisis in the Presbyterian Church of the gravest nature. There is an attempt to force a theory of inspiration upon the church.

Prof. Smith asked if he meant that he, if sustained by the I reshytery, would bring those to trial who did not agree with him. Dr. Roberts replied that he referred to a forcing of a theory by other methods than judicial process. The doctor went on to explain his view of the inspiration of the Scriptures by saying he did not believe is a verbal inspiration, but in a plenary inspiration. He did not believe, as Prof. Smith apparently taught, that the Scripture contained the word of Godas water is contained in a dollar—every grain silver. He quoted from the hanguage of the ordination vow and from the basis of reunion of the oid and new school churches, the declaration that "We believe the Scriptures to be the word of God, not to contain the word of God, and and the whole Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, was inspired according to the inndamental doctrines of the Presbyterian Church."

Smith Wins Over Two Converts.

At the afternoon session, after two hours more of discussion, a yea and nay vote was taken on the question of sustaining the sufficiency in form and legal effect of the third charge. It showed what had been foreshadowed in the debate, that at least two members of the court had come over to the members of the court had come over to the side of the accused. One was the Rev. Hugh Glichrist, pastor of the church in which the court sits, and the other was Rev. C. E. Walker. The latter, in his remarks on the discussion, said that if ministers holding the views which Prof. Smith has taught are to be subjected to trials, the Presbytery will have enough heresy trials to keep it easy for three years. The sufficiency of the third charge was sustained—yeas, 40; mays, 22.

When it came to approving the first specification, the Prosecuting Committee asked to amend by inserting an additional condition from Prof. Smith's pamphlet. Prof. Smith objected that this deprived him of his right of ten days' notice of charges and specifications against him. Some heated debate followed as to whether this was not evidence of which the accused was not entitled to notice. During its progress, Prof. McGiffert, a young member of the court, who is a pronounced champion of Prof. Smith, asked the Prosecuting Committee when it discovered that this addition was necessary.

A Titt of Words and an Apology. Dr. McKibben, of the committee, with some sharpness asked, "What do you mean by that question?" Quite as sharply Prof. McGiffert retorted, "I mean just exactly what I say." McKibben-The question is impertinent. McGiffert-Then the committee's request s impertinent. The Moderator declared both out of order, The Moderator declared both out of order, but Prof. McGiffert held the floor long enough to say that if Prof. Smith has made his response to the charges and has lost the floor, the committee brought in new matter, it is unjust, and he would make complaint at the proper time. Sabsequently Dr. Mc-Kibben publicly asked pardon or Prof. Mc-Giffert and of the body for the language he had used, and said he had exerted himself so much to keep on friendly terms with the accused that he had overlooked the Court. Prof. McGiffert said he accepted the apology of Dr. McKibben with thanks.

"But do you apologize?" asked the Moderator. "I declared you both out of order." McGiffert—I said, if my question was impertinent, the committee's request was also. I have no apology to make, except to the court.

Court. *
This episode happily ended, the amendment was not allowed and the specifications were all approved. The Court is now ready to begin the formal trial.
