MORE NEW PLAYERS,

Manager Buckenberger Doing

Some Quiet but Effective Work

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Manager Buckenberger is not making much noise but he is working like a Trojan in trying to get a few more first-class ball players for the local club for next season. He is inclined to think that Abbey, the young man who was secured from the Washington club to pitch here next sesson, will not be here. This thought is prompting Mr. Buckenberger to secure all the good pitchers he can so that he may be able to get one or two first-class men out of the lot. Last evening the manager said: "Abbey notified us that he would have to be paid some advanced money by us. We told him that he could not get a cent and then he informed us that he would have to start and teach school and that he would not quit to come and play with us. He has, I suppose, commenced to teach and, therefore may not come here. We do not mean to pay out advance money and if Abbey will not come without it he'll have to stay awav.

"But I have Pitcher Gastright's name on my list for next season. He is a big and poweriul man and a great pitcher. Last year he was badly out of form but I know that he is all right again. He has pitched for several seasons. Last spring he was with the Washington club and was sick all the time he was with them. I think that If pitching rules are changed Gastright will be a very effective pitcher. If the pitcher is put back five feet it will need strong men to pitch winning games.

"I am trying to get strong men. I am confident that we will have a better team next season than we had this year. Our players will start out in better condition for one thing. We will have some good pitch-ers and even if I only get one really good one out of the new men I'm after I'll be It is understood that Manager Bucken-berger is trying for one or two more good men. It will not be a surprise if a trade is made whereby a very brilliant infielder will be secured by the local team.

The Two Local Crack Football Teams Can not Agree to Play.

There will be no more games this year between the Three A.'s and P. A. C. football teams. That was settled yesterday. The P. A. C. manager stated to O. D. Thompson, of the Three A.'s, that the former club now admitted that the last contest between the two leams was a championship one, and as it was won by the Three A.'s they are the local champions. This being admitted, Mr. Thompson stated that the P. A. C. team

Talking Loudly of Political Union in Canada-The Loyalists Trying to Ridicule the Movement-What Is Thought of Monday's Meeting.

MONTREAL, QUEBEC, Nov. 29.-[Special.] There is considerable teeling in the city over last night's meeting, at which the political future of Canada was discussed. The comparatively heavy vote polled in favor of political union with the States, nearly 1,000 out of 8,000, was a surprise and the advocates of political union are highly pleased with the result. The young French Canadians who attended the meeting in large numbers are in favor of national independence and cast a majority of votes in its favor, but the vote for political union stood second, while there were only a few votes for the present system and Imperial federation

Ideration. The Loyalists are very much incensed and the papers attempt to ridicule the meeting. An amusing incident, showing the bitter feeling against the Unionists, took place after the meeting. A large num-ber of students and members of the city multiple and members of the city militia corps marched in a body to Victoria Square, where a statue of Queen Victoria stands. Forming a circle around the statue they raised their hands toward the statue and sang, "God Save the Queen." There were threats made against the advocates of union, but iortunately good sense finally prevailed. La Patrie, the Liberal organ, which is openly advocating Political Union with the United States, to-night says:

United Sistes, to-night says: The great voice of the people has spoken. Is has declared that we have had sufficient of the colonial tie, and that Imperial Feder-ation could not rally even the tenth part of those who come with the idea of stopping any demonstration in layor of the suanci-pation of the Canadian people. The defeat of the Ultra Loyalists was overwhelming, and the opinion that our popula-tion was in servitade - an opinion widely circulated by the partisans of perpetual dependence-has received its coup degrace. * * The vote for inde-pendence does not frighten us. We would prefer it to any other system if we thought it practical, but we are convinced that it would inevitably lead to annexation. Those who voted for independence will rally to the cause of Folitical Union as soon as they realize that the former is not practical. The Loyalists intend to get up a counter

AN EMBEZZLER TURNS UP.

He Had Victimized a Pittsburg Insurance Company for Quite a Sum.

CORRY, PA., Nov. 29.-[Special.]-Isaac Kennedy, formerly agent for the German Insurance Company of Pittsburg, was arrested last July charged with embezzlement of between $500 and $1,000. Shortly after the exposure of his delinquencies it was supposed he attempted suicide, as he was near to death from the effects of a great quantity of laudanum, so much, in fact, that the overdose was what prevented a fatal outcome. Before he fully recovered he escaped the authorities and has been in hiding ever since. To-day he was discovered and captured while hiding in a small house in the woods a tew miles north of this place. He was brought here in custody, and thus far has been unable to secure bail.

JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 29 .- [Special.]-Frederick Kistozervia, a young German, has sued Bertha Ludzik, a comely lass of the same nationality, for breach of promise. At the preliminary hearing the young man swore that the courtship and engagement to marry had progressed through the usual stages to the point where he had procured a marriage license. Then the girl had reoudiated the contract.

The pretty defendant alleges that .her ardent lover was too intense in the prosecution of his suit, threatening to make her either his wife or an angel. She was afraid
