THE COST OF A SPARK.

Heavy Damage Suit Against the P. & L. E. R. R. Co. for the

DESTRUCTION OF A FACTORY.

Suit for an Interest in 17,000 Acres of Valuable Timber Lands.

THE NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

A big damage suit was entered against the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railway Company yesterday by the Braddock Glass Company, limited. The plaintiff's factory was destroyed by fire on the 25th of March last, and it is claimed that a spark from an engine of the defendant company ignited the buildings. It is alleged further that the engine had no spark arrester or shield over the smoke stack or the fire might not have occurred.

The glass company places its loss at $50,000, which it seeks to recover from the railway company.

Two Suits for Divorce.

Two suits for divorce were entered yesterday. Attorney Billows filed the case of John Cain against Jenetta Cain. They were married March 11, 1881, and, it is alleged, she deserted him in March, 1884. Attorney A. E. Anderson entered the suit of Mary M. Loughay against Theodore Loughray. They were married July 31, 1861, and, it is alleged, he deserted her in November, 1890. Mrs. Loughray lives in Shaler township.

Tramped All Over the Plaintiff.

F. E. Nier yesterday entered suit against Frank, Thomas, Lawrence and Mary Bryan, of Chartiers borough, for $10,000 damages for injuries. He alleges that on January 20, 1891, the defendants assaulted and beat him. They locked the door of the room they were in, threw him down and kicked and beat him, tramping on him and injuring him so that he has been disabled ever since.

Sues for False Arrest.

Frank McKeage, aged 18 years, yesterday entered suit against James Hay for $5,000 damages for alleged false arrest. The defendant, on July 12, sued McKeage before Mayor Kennedy, of Allegheny, for the larceny of some articles. Upon a hearing he was discharged and he now wants damages.

Going to the Supreme Court.

W. H. McGary, attorney for Angelo and Joseph Zappe, convicted of murder in the first degree, will appeal the case to the Supreme Court. An attempt will be made to show that the stabbing was done by Angelo, and that Joseph was not near the murdered man at the time.

To-Day's Trial Lists.

Common Pleas No. 1—Beinhofer vs Loeffent et al. Owens vs Kingsbacher, McBride vs O'Connor, Bovaird et al vs Fulton, Mucele vs Kane, Simpson vs Gray, Tarr vs Brown, Hartman et al vs Pittsburg Incline Plane Company, Dorsey vs Spang et al, Millagan vs Reformed Presbyterian Church, Dunlap vs Byrne et al.

Common Pleas No. 2—Safe Deposit and Trust Company vs Kelly, same vs same, Barnes vs Eicke et al, Dungan vs Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, Farnan vs Booth, Blythe & Co. vs Flick, Sadler vs Binger, Godfrey vs Beatty, Heinour et al vs Jones, Mellon Bros. vs Moll et al.

The Hum of the Courts.

A VERDICT of $10 35 for the plaintiff was given in the case of Samuel Parks against J. C. Sheehan an action to recover a milk bill.

IN the suit of James Benney, receiver of the Squirrel Hill Railroad Company, against L. T. Yoder, to recover unpaid subscriptions to stock of the railroad company, a verdict was given for $542 50 for the plaintiff.

JAMES K. FORRESTER entered a suit against the Pennsylvania Railway Company yesterday to recover $125, the value of some window glass shipped from New York to the plaintiff at Pittsburg, which it is claimed was never delivered.

A BILL in equity was filed yesterday by Roger Hartley against the Manufacturers' Natural Gas Company asking for an injunction to restrain the defendants from boring a gas well through a vein of coal owned by Hartley in Scott township.

JUDGES KENNEDY and McClung yesterday reversed the decision of Alderman Negley in the case of a Fifth avenue traction car conductor named Yoder against W. L. McCullough, in which McCullough was fined $3 and costs for disorderly conduct.

Realistic Achievements.

As a work of realism in the portrayal of the human form, the painting called "Nana," which was placed on exhibition at Edmunds & Perrine's art gallery, Smithfield street, yesterday, is unsurpassed. For those who believe that the aim of art is to delineate the beautiful wherever it is to be found, this painting, in its lifelike reproduction, must appear a marvelous achievement. From canvas and paint man's skill has produced that which by the aid of artificial lights and shades is as near an approach to life as is possible. On those who disapprove the reproduction in painting or sculpture of the human form divine or nature unadorned, the work will be thrown away. But among the many who enjoy a thing of beauty wherever it is found, this picture must come as a revelation of the possibilities which are within the range of man's powers.

A good thing for ailments—Klein's Silver Age Rye Whisky.

Holiday Porcelains.

Our stock is now open and we can offer the finest and best line we ever had the pleasure to exhibit at our immense store, which comprises the most comprehensive line of goods in all the novelties of the season. Early buyers, of course, benefit by the variety. Call early.

Apropos of the Trip to Chinatown

And the topical song which is rendered therein we publish a little ditty in the same strain received by Messrs. Solomon & Ruben from Mr. Joseph W. Gibson, editor of the Clothing Gazette, at their grand opening held two weeks ago:

Solomon, Solomon, I've been thinking,
What a big success you've made;
Starting from a small beginning,
How you've caught the people's trade.

Ruben, Ruben, I've been thinking,
That you're on the proper spot;
And your daily advertising
Keeps the neighborhood red hot.
