

STILL VOTING IN THE WILD WEST.

Control of the Senate Depends on a Few Very Uncertain Legislatures.

WATCHED BY POLITICIANS

The Wires to Doubtful Points Burdened With Instructions.

An Extra Session Now Regarded as Extremely Probable - The Matter Will Be Battled in Cleveland's Hands, Together With All Other Questions of Party Policy - Congressional Arriving at Washington in Readiness for Monday's Opening - Senator Quay Says That the Story of His Demanding $30,000 From the National Committee Originated in a Joke.

ARTON'S BIG PULL.

Exploits of a Financial Adventurer the Talk of a Disgusted Nation.

WITH PAPERS IN HIS BOX

Incriminating Deputies and Officers, He Defies Justice.

FRANCE'S CABINET D'AUPTOSIE

Still a Problem, the Second Would-Be Premier Giving Up the Job.

LATEST FROM THE PANAMA INQUIRY

(BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.) PARIS, Dec. 3.—(Copyright)—The mud of corruption in which the Government and the people of France being dragged has grown deeper and blisker this week. Nobody can yet say what the disgusted nation which is watching the sorry spectacle will do.

The charges of wholesale bribery in connection with the Panama enterprise, have at length something tangible to rest upon, and most people now believe that the worst as having these things in view men than any real expectation of doing good to silver. "I don't think the public think much of it."

IMMIGRATION STATISTICS.

A Suspension of the Influx Probable During the World's Fair. WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The annual report of the superintendent of immigration, showing that 579,963 immigrants arrived in this country during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1892.

CLEVELAND AS A TARIFF-MAKER

Mr. Breckinridge Favors a Bill Framed by the Next President. WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Representative W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, is in favor somewhat of a departure from custom in the matter of the preparation of the Democratic tariff revision bill.

HOW THE HOUSE WILL STAND.

The Latest Figures Give the Democrats a Plurality of Just 80. WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A roll of members-elect to the Fifty-third Congress is compiled in the office of the clerk of the House.

A MIDNIGHT ALARM.

Hazleton, Dec. 3.—The people of Honeybrook village, over the Honeybrook creek, have been on fire for some days, spent last night in terror. Just before midnight the burning mine closed in completely, shutting off access to the slope.

THEIR WAGON CAPTURED.

A California Family Flooding From a Flood Nearly Wiped Out. PILLSBANTON, CAL., Dec. 3.—A family named Nickelson was drowned while trying to ford Arroyo creek.

A DEPRAVED HOMESTEAD GIRL

Tires of Life in Cincinnati and Tries to Drown Herself. CINCINNATI, Dec. 3.—[Special]—About noon today a poorly but neatly clad girl was noticed wandering about the Ohio river at the foot of Haze street.

THE PINKERTONS AND THE HOMESTEAD.

And How They Came to Send 300 Men With Arms to the Carnegie Mills.

A LONG OPEN STATEMENT.

In Which Bob Gives the Allegheny Sheriff the Worst of It.

He Declares His Men Wouldn't Have Been Sent to Pittsburgh If They Weren't to Have Been Deputized by Sheriff McCleary—The Guns Shipped to the Union Supply Company—Judge Paxson's Charge Incorporated as Part of the Statement—Why the Carnegie Company Anticipated Violence—The Workmen Thought They Were Opposing the Landing of Non-Unionists—Powderly Unmercifully Handled by the Detective Agency.

THE BIGGEST HOLIDAY PRIZE IN THE STATE.

It was not until after Gray had been thus twice requested to comply with the Sheriff's promise that any arms were distributed. Twelve rifles were handed by one of our most reliable men. An attempt was then made to place on the bank a gangplank from one of the barges.

A BIG PATENT TEST.

The Right of Lighting and Propelling Motor Cars With One Current to Be Tried. TOLEDO, O., Dec. 3.—Suits were brought here to-day against the Toledo Consolidated Railway. It is claimed that the patents for the running and the lighting of cars with the same current of electricity, and the lighting of streets and houses along the line from the current which propels the cars, have been infringed.

A SEA CAPTAIN A MURDERER.

One of His Pittsburgh Relatives Said to Be a Fresher and Another an Author. SAN DIEGO, Dec. 3.—[Special]—Captain John Smith of the "Porcupine" is under arrest in the murder of young George Neale, one of his crew.

GLASS MEN LOCK HORNS.

An Effort Being Made to Unionize a Big Factory at Millville, N. J. MILLVILLE, N. J., Dec. 3.—From information that was made public to-day, it is evident that the United Glass Workers' Association of the United States and Canada intend to lock horns with the non-union glass manufacturers of South Jersey.

THE BLOODY DRESS BURNED UP.

Part of the Garment, 'tough, the District Attorney Has.

THE TRIAL TO BE HELD NEXT MONTH

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) FALL RIVER, MASS., Dec. 3.—Despite the fact that the indictment against Lizmie A. Borden leads one to believe that the grand jury does not know or did not see the instrument which caused the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Borden, it is believed here that the blade of an ax was shown to the jurors, and that the Government will insist that this was the weapon used.

ONE REASON FOR THE INDICTMENT.

This valuable find was carried by the officer to District Attorney Knowlton and was produced in the grand jury room, and the "officer" who found it told his story. The juror was, it is alleged, convinced to a man that it was the weapon which did the deed.

EVIDENCE CONSIDERED VERY STRONG.

The District Attorney is satisfied that the evidence will convince a jury that the hatchet in the indictment is a hatchet which was used in the murder of the Borden family.

THE MEN IN A STANCE EMBLEM TIE D UP.

MUNICIPALITY, Dec. 3.—[Special]—The big window glass works of Marling, Hart & Co. are closed down and nearly 300 employes are idle. A few weeks since the great "outstanding" tank built in the factory at a cost of $100,000 was started.

THE PATENT TEST.

The Right of Lighting and Propelling Motor Cars With One Current to Be Tried. TOLEDO, O., Dec. 3.—Suits were brought here to-day against the Toledo Consolidated Railway. It is claimed that the patents for the running and the lighting of cars with the same current of electricity, and the lighting of streets and houses along the line from the current which propels the cars, have been infringed.

THE DISPATCH DIRECTORY.

THE ISSUE OF THE DISPATCH TO-day consists of 24 pages made up in three parts. The contents of the second and third parts are thus tabulated:

- SPECIAL CABLES. THE WELLS BOY COMING OF COME. Page 9. SMALL ADVERTISEMENTS CLASSIFIED. Page 11. DEMAND FOR IMMIGRATION RESTRICTION. Page 13. DOINGS OF SOCIETY. THE MUSIC WORLD. Page 15. YOUR OWN MILLNER. Page 18. CARE OF THE RED ROOM. Page 14. A PRIMITIVE SPOT. Page 15. A REVIEW OF BOOKS. Page 18. YAMKEE LAFRANCE. Page 18. THE POOR OF BERLIN. Page 18. WHAT IS THE BIRD? Page 18. FORTUNES FOR FLOWERS. Page 20. CLAIMS TO THRONES. Page 21. MARKET REPORTS. Page 22. THEATRICAL NEWS. Page 23. LADY VENNER'S FLIGHT. Page 24. THE TORCH OF THE TORCHES. Page 24. MARKET REPORTS. Page 25. THE OIL FIELDS. Page 24. TITLES IN AMERICA. Page 21.

He declares his men wouldn't have been sent to Pittsburgh if they weren't to have been deputized by Sheriff McCleary. The guns shipped to the Union Supply Company as part of the statement. Why the Carnegie company anticipated violence. The workmen thought they were opposing the landing of non-unionists. Powderly unmercifully handled by the detective agency.

It was not until after Gray had been thus twice requested to comply with the Sheriff's promise that any arms were distributed. Twelve rifles were handed by one of our most reliable men. An attempt was then made to place on the bank a gangplank from one of the barges.

It is claimed that the patents for the running and the lighting of cars with the same current of electricity, and the lighting of streets and houses along the line from the current which propels the cars, have been infringed.

It is believed here that the blade of an ax was shown to the jurors, and that the Government will insist that this was the weapon used. The juror was, it is alleged, convinced to a man that it was the weapon which did the deed.

It is evident that the United Glass Workers' Association of the United States and Canada intend to lock horns with the non-union glass manufacturers of South Jersey.

It is believed here that the blade of an ax was shown to the jurors, and that the Government will insist that this was the weapon used. The juror was, it is alleged, convinced to a man that it was the weapon which did the deed.