CAPRIVI'S STAR HIGH.

Nothing Seems Able to Prevent His Pet Bill From Passing.

A REVOLT AGAINST THE VATICAN.

Why Prince Karl, of Bavaria, Wanted a Morganatic Marriage.

A NEW MOVEMENT FOR RECIPROCITY

[COPYRIGHT, 1892, BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, Dec. 3.—Events in the Reichstag and party movements which are less seen by the public, all tend to consolidate Chancellor von Caprivi's position, and assure the passage of the army bill. Freisinnige and Bismarckian papers pretend to believe that the Chancellor's position is untenable.

Every day the opposition produces a fresh rumor as to who his successor will be. The latest nominee of the anti-Caprivi faction was ex-Minister von Puttkamer, who was named because the opposition could associate him with a current rumor that Emperor William intended to return to a strong reactionist policy if the army bill should be defeated. The Emperor felt the report to be offensive and caused an official denial of it to be made in the Reichsanzeiger, which last night stated that Herr von Puttkamer has not for some time even been received by His Majesty.

The fact is that the Chancellor's position has become strengthened by the open adhesion of some of the party leaders and the private adhesion of others.

National Liberals Fall in Line.

Dr. Buhl, a National Liberal, has won the Chancellor's thanks by promising that his party will support all the military demands necessary for the safety of the Empire. The Reichstag took Dr. Buhl's statement as commiting the National Liberals to the support of the army bill. Next, Herr Kosielski, in the name of the Polish group, announced that they would vote to grant anything, so far as the final depression permitted, that would contribute to unite and strengthen Germany.

With regard to the Center party, it is no longer a secret that a majority of the members of the group, resenting the Vatican's pro-French policy, are treating the clerical attempts to influence the party to defeat the Government's scheme of army reorganization as a hostile intrigue against German unity. So marked is the feeling of many Centerists against the interference of the Vatican, which is attributed to the Pope's hostility to the Triple Alliance, that certain Catholic bishops advised Cardinal Rampolla, Papal Secretary of State, that a revolt of the party against clerical lead is imminent if the interference is persisted in. The Vatican has, consequently, assented to leaving the Center party to follow whatever course it pleases.

A Split in the Center Party.

This implies a temporary split in the party. Thirty-four of the Southern members of the Center will vote with the opposition, and the 76 others with the Government. Thus reinforced, the defeat of the bill seems impossible. The measure is expected to pass its first reading on December 9. As the Christmas recess begins on the 16th, the bill will not go to the committee stage until after New Year's Day.

The Emperor's bill against immorality, and the emigration measure will be taken up by the Reichstag when the discussion of the budget is ended. When scrutinized, the restrictive clauses of the proposed emmigration law do not seem likely to operate so favorably as expected in sending a good class of emigrants to America. Well-to-do, orderly people will object to the preliminary police supervision and the disclosure of private affairs demanded under the bill, while criminals, frauds and impoverished persons can go across the frontier and sail from a foreign port without any reference from the police.

An Anti-Semite's Astonishing Popularity.

The trial of Rector Ahlwardt, the notorious anti-Semite, who is charged with slandering Herr Loewe, the small arms manufacturer, drags along in the Moabil criminal court. The evidence against him is copious, but this fact will not militate against his election to the Reichstag. While Ahlwardt was in prison awaiting trial he was elected to the Reichstag from the Arnswalde-Freidberg district. Prior to his election only a few anti-Semite votes had been cast in the district, and Ahlwardt's return by an enormous majority was a great surprise.

To-day Ahlwardt submitted to the court as evidence in his favor six documents. The Public Prosecutor admitted that the documents were genuine, but declared that they could only have come into Ahlwardt's possession by a gross abuse of confidence on the part of some official. The Public Prosecutor obtained the sanction of the court to exclude the public reading of the papers referred to.

The Romance of Prince Carl, of Bavaria.

The escapade of Prince Karl, of Bavaria, whose mysterious disappearance from Munich excited notice, is now known to be due to his connection with a pretty ballet girl who is two years his senior. The affair was proving an expensive one for the prince, and his grandfather, the Regent, wanted Prince Karl to travel. Thereupon the prince applied to the Regent for his permission to contract a morganatic marriage with the ballet girl. The Regent refused and was making arrangements to compulsorily send the prince off on a journey abroad in the care of two officers, when Karl and the danseuse secretly left the city. The pair were traced to a secluded retreat in the Zillerthal Alps and brought back to Munich. The Police Court announcement is that Prince Karl was taken ill while on a shooting expedition, but that he has now recovered.

The Vossische Zeitung, referring to the election of Cleveland, urges the German Government to take time by the forelock and negotiate a reciprocity treaty admitting American products, such as wheat, cotton, pork meats and leather into Germany free of duty in return for a reduction of the American tariff on German manufactured goods.

ANXIETY AMONG FINANCIERS.

Sudden and Heavy Drop in the Value of a Corporation's Stock.

[BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Dec. 3.—There is great anxiety in the financial circles of London over the condition of the Trustees and Executors' Corporation, the largest trust company in England. Its capital is $20,000,000. Its founders' shares of the nominal value of £10 have sold as high as £10,000 each.

The price of ordinary shares, on which £3 were paid in, have within a day or two fallen to £1. The corporation is heavily loaded with stocks and bonds of American breweries which were floated here three years ago, and which are now non-dividend paying.

THE CHOLERA IN WINTER.

Seven Hundred Deaths Last Week With the Mercury Away Down.

[BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Dec. 3.—[Copyright.]—There were 700 deaths from cholera last week in Russian districts where the temperature averaged 5° below freezing. These figures show how impossible it is to avoid some recurrence of the epidemic next summer.

Systematic local precautions are being quite extensively taken throughout Europe.

COLUMBUS would have reached America 60 days sooner had his sailors been strengthened with Cudahy's Rex Brand Extract of Beef.

A DRUG ON THE MARKET.

Cold Weather Responsible for the Low Price of Turkeys.

Turkeys at present are a drug on the market. The best could be bought for 12 cents per pound yesterday afternoon, and they were offered for 10 cents in the evening. Dealers state that the cold weather about Thanksgiving is responsible. When it was warm the birds required little feeding. They manage to pick enough running loose on the farms to fatten them, but as soon as the ground is frozen they can't get anything to eat, and the grangers don't like to feed them corn. This is why so many turkeys were slaughtered about Thanksgiving time. If it keeps up they will be at a premium during the holidays. On the other hand should the present spell of nice weather continue turkeys will be cheap, for few will be killed.

Hotel stewards and other buyers of delicacies report that the supply of quail, prairie chickens and venison is plentiful. Pheasants are getting scarce and the price is going up.

STRAUSSER HAS ANOTHER CHANCE.

A Manufacturer Donates Money to Carry His Case to the Supreme Court.

George Strausser, convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of Brandl, of the Southside, will have his case carried to the Supreme Court. Shortly after the verdict was rendered, an utter stranger to the condemned man engaged W. A. Hudson to make an argument for a new trial. This the Court refused. The fact that Strausser was led to commit the crime of which he stands convicted, in the defense of his mother, has aroused a great deal of sympathy for the man. One of the most prominent manufacturers in the city who felt for the condemned man, and who was of a more practical turn of mind than the many other sympathizers, handed Attorney W. A. Hudson his check for $100 to help meet the expenses of an appeal to the Supreme Court. As Strausser is penniless and without friends, had it not been for the action of this gentleman his case would have been dropped. Now he has one more chance for his life.

"Bad Spells" With the Heart

Dizzy, Faint, in Despair

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"I have suffered very much during the past few years from

Heart Trouble

Physicians said I might live a number of years, might die any day. I could usually tell when the worst attacks were coming on by feeling a sharp pain in the heart, then violent thumping, shortness of breath, followed by a coldness coming all over me, then DIZZINESS, FAINTNESS, and then, unless I could lie down at once I would fall wherever I was. I never dared to be left alone for I had to have help at once and that applied with vigor. I could not do any work, even to sweeping, and had to be careful of the least excitement. I got very much discouraged at the outlook and thought

There Was No Hope

Of ever finding anything to help me. One day a friend asked, 'Why don't you try Hood's Sarsaparilla?' I thought it over and decided TO TRY IT, and I thank God for it too. Since I began taking it three years ago, I have had but one 'bad spell' and that was due to carelessness on my part, and from that I quickly recovered. I cannot tell you how much better I feel and how thankful I am. I feel as if I would like to tell every person in the world about it. I can and do now do all my housework, even to washing." MRS. SARAH TREXLER, 809 Latimer Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

"I have known MRS. SARAH TREXLER from having purchased for a long time, and have every reason to believe that the above statement is true." E. & F. P. SHOCKLEY, Pharmacists, 541 East Thompson Street, Philadelphia, Penn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

THE LAST OF THE IAMS CASE.

The Court Releases Colonels Hawkins and Streator From the Costs.

The final disposition of the celebrated Iams case was made yesterday. The court decided that the defendants should not pay the costs, thereby setting aside that part of the verdict directing the costs of the aggravated assault and battery case should be equally divided between Colonel Streator and Colonel Hawkins. Immediately after the verdict was rendered Attorney Braddocks moved that that part of it referring to the costs should be set aside. The Court granted a rule on the prosecutors to appear and show cause why this should not be granted. The case was argued several days ago.

HAIR ON THE FACE, NECK, ARMS OR ANY PART OF THE PERSON
QUICKLY DISSOLVED AND REMOVED WITH THE NEW SOLUTION
MODENE

AND THE GROWTH FOREVER DESTROYED WITHOUT THE SLIGHTEST INJURY OR DISCOLORATION OF THE MOST DELICATE SKIN.—DISCOVERED BY ACCIDENT.

IN COMPOUNDING, an incomplete mixture was accidentally spilled on the back of the hand, and on washing afterward it was discovered that the hair was completely removed. We purchased the new discovery and named it MODENE. It is perfectly pure, free from all injurious substances, and so simple any one can use it. It acts solidly but surely, and you will be surprised and delighted with the results. Apply for a few minutes and the hair disappears as if by magic. It has no resemblance whatever to any other preparation ever used for a like purpose, and no scientific discovery ever attained such wonderful results. IT CANNOT FAIL. If the growth be light, one application will remove it permanently; the heavy growth such as the beard or hair on moles may require two or more applications before all the roots are destroyed, although all hair will be removed at each application, and without the slightest injury or unpleasant feeling when applied or ever afterward. —MODENE SUPERCEDES ELECTROLYSIS.—

—Recommended by all who have tested its merits—Used by people of refinement.—

Gentlemen who do not appreciate nature's gift of a beard, will find a priceless boon in Modene, which does away with shaving. It dissolves and destroys the life principle of the hair, thereby rendering its future growth an utter impossibility, and is guaranteed to be as harmless as water to the skin. Young persons who find an embarrassing growth of hair coming, should use Modene to destroy its growth. Modene sent by mail, in safety mailing cases, postage paid, (securely sealed from observation) on receipt of price, $1.00 per bottle. Send money by letter, with your full address written plainly. Correspondence sacredly private. Postage stamps received the same as cash. ALWAYS MENTION YOUR COUNTY AND THIS PAPER.
