sia of disordered digestion, and that their explanation is the correct one is evidenced by the many cures their method of treatment is producing every day.

Physiology teaches that the numerous glands of the stomach throw out during the 24 hours 14 pints of gastric juice—almost two gallons—with which to digest the food we eat. In chronic catarrh of the stomach, the mucous lining of which is continuous with that of the nose and throat, the scoreting glands become diseased and deprayed and do not fulfill their proper functions, hence the food lies heavy in the stomach and ferments instead of being dirested. Foul gases arise therefrom, which distend the stomach, causing weight, tightness, flatulence, bloating and discomfort. The heart and lungs are encroached upon by the diaphgram which impedes their natural action, hence we have futtering or halpitation, and in consequence of disturbed circulation and respiration, coldness of extremities, depression of spirits (nervousness), feeble pulse, dizziness, shortness of breath, hot and cold finshes, etc., etc. sia of disordered digestion, and that their BAXTER, THOMPSON & CO.,

I felt thred all the time, did not care to work, and everything seemed a task to me. I had a pain across my nose, on top of my head and down the right side of my neck and right chest.

am well pleased with the treatment received at the hands of Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers. It has done wonders for me, as I have had only two spells of this vomiting since beginning their treatment, while before it was constant every morning.

"My trouble with the heart has also about stopped, the throbbing almost removed, and has become more natural. I had doctored for this heart trouble for about two years without receiving any benefit. My head and throat trouble is entirely well.

"I regret that I did not consult Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers at first, as I am satisfied I would have been saved much suffering and considerable money. Their success in my case proves the correctness of their theory that the stomach and heart trouble was dependent upon the catarrhal secretions dropping down into the stomach, poisoning and nauseating it, so that its proper functions were interiered with and that the accumulation of gas pressed hard no against the heart and lungs causing the palpitation and shortness of breath which annoyed me so much. I certainly approve of and recommend to all my friends and the public Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers' treatment in such cases as mine. I am satisfied they understand all these long standing obscure cases thoroughly, and that they are ouring by their method of treatment many cases here tofore considered incurable." MACK FOR M'KEAN,

An Interesting Deal Proposed by the Local Baseball Club.

TEBEAU HAS TO SETTLE IT.

A Full List of Players Claimed by the Local Club for Next Year.

POSITIONS THEY CAN LOOK AFTER. Business to Be Transacted at the Stockholders' Meeting Tuesday.

BASEBALL NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST An effort is being made by the local base ball club officials to trade Connie Mack for McKean, the shortstop of the Cleveland club. A written proposition has been submitted to President Robison, of the Cleveland club, and so far no answer has been A few days ago a representative of the local club mentioned the matter to President Robison and the latter said: "Mack is a good man but I do not feel inclined to make any trade until I confer with Manager Tebeau. I think well of such a deal but our manager must be consulted on the matter before anything is done." Would Be a Fair Exchange. The proposed exchange would be one of the fairest that could be made, and probably both teams would benefit by the deal being effected. Mack is one of the best winning players in the League to-day. As an earnest, steady, reliable and efficient player he has no superiors and he is one of the best run-getters in the business. McKean is one of the best of shortstops and probably the best hitter who plays that position. Each team can spare its present man to get the other, and by doing so would make a gain. The local team promises to be one of the best balanced in the League next season, and Manager Buckenberger does not speak idle words when he says that he hopes to have one of the best teams in the country in 1893. In all there are 19 players on the list and a close examination of them will show that all are capable of filling more than one posi-tion. True some of them will not be as good in one place as in another, but each can perform creditably outside of his own egular position and in an emergency can all up a gap.

The List Divided Up. In the list the following can play first base: Beckley, Mack, Stenzel, Donovan, Cargo and Terry.

Players who can look after second base are: Bierbauer, Miller, Stenzel and Cargo. Those who can look after short field territory are: Shugart, Van Haltren, Cargo and Miller, and those who can play at third base are: Farrell, Stenzel, Miller, Cargo and Van Haltren.

In the list the following can play outfield positions: Smith, Van Haltren, Donovan, Miller, Cargo, Stenzel, Terry, Mack, Farrell, Shugart and Bierbauer. The following on the list of the team can sitch: Terry, Ehret, Knell, Abbey, Gastright, Bayne, Cargo, Van Haltren, Smith, Baldwin and another men whose name will not be mentioned until the spring. Those who can catch are: Miller, Stenzel, Farrell, Mack and Cargo. A Big Skating Rink Suggested. The entire list of the local players as far as claimed is: Beckley, Bierbauer, Van lialtren. Ehret, Terry, Knell, Abbey, Gastright, Cargo, Bayne, Baldwin, Stenzel, Mack, Miller and the man whose name is one, and beyond all doubt 14 very good players can be selected from it. Manager Buckenberger means to be busy all winter in trying to get together a team that will be a credit to the club and the city. As a means of keeping the players who are in and about Pittsburg busy during the winter it might be suggested to him to have Exposition Park transformed into a public skating rink this winter. Water could be run over the surface of the park sufficiently that when frozen a splen-zid surface of ice would be the result. Then skating carnivals and contests among the leading skaters in the country could be held both in daylight and by electric light

Polo contests could also be played. Such a venture would probably be popular.

THEIR ANNUAL MEETING The Stockholders of the Local Club Will Elect Officers Tuesday. On Tuesday next the annual meeting of the stockholders of the local club will be held and the election of officers will take place. As at present intended Mr. Buckenberger will be elected President: Mr. W. W. Kerr, Vice-President; Mr. L. Brown, Treasurer and Al Scrandrett, Secretary.

Mr. Buckenberger is being urged by the ieading stockholders of the club and in de-ference to their strong solicitations he may accept the position. It will place on his shoulders great responsibility, but in order to do what others think best for the club, he is willing to bear the burden. He is quite able to fulfil the duties of the office and no able to fulfil the duties of the office and no man is more faithful and energetic. Magnates of other clubs will probably not like it as in virtue of his office he will have to attend all League meetings. But these magnates will just have to put up with it. Under any circumstances these magnates have little or no sympathy for Pittsburg although they enrich their treasuries here. If any reasonable objection could be urged against the appearance of a President-Manacer in a League meeting there might be some excuse for the opposition to Mr. Buckenberger's presence, but there is none.

Conferring With Farrell. Secretary Scandrett is in Boston and ac terday is having a conference with Charley Farrell reintive to signing to play here for next season. It is expected that there will be little trouble in signing the popular third baseman. He will get as much and probably more money here than anywhere else and he cannot be more popular at any other place than he is here. Brown Likely the Man. Many queries have been made lately regarding the first baseman whom the Baltimore club is looking after in California. It is highly probably that Bill Brown is the man, as Manager Hanlon was making strict inquiries about him at the recent Chicago meeting.

"I had been troubled with my head, throat and stomach for two years previous to onsulting Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers. My throat became dry and raw, tongue coated and parched with 3ad taste in the mouth in the morning, loss of appetite, especially for breakfast, and what little I forced myself to eat caused distress and bloating up afterward. I lost flesh and strength right along. "Finally night sweats set in, which weakened and alarmed me greatly.

"When I first went to Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers' office I could hardly walk I was so weak, was sore and acped all over and coughed incessantly. They examined me carefully and gave me a month's supply of medicine to take home, and I can't just express what benefit I received even with the dirst month's treatment.

"I gained seven or eight pounds the first month and can do a full day's work without tiring, the night sweats have disappeared and I feel like another person. Boston, Dec. 3.—[Special.] — There is already much talk as to who will captain the Harvard football team next year. The men who seem at present to have the greatest chance are Trafford, '92, who may be in the law shool next year; Lake, '92, who may also be in the law school; Emmons, '95, and Newell, '94. Whoever becomes captain, the policy of next year's team will differ little from that of this year's, with the possible exception that team work may be got at a week or two earlier. In the face of all criticism, Harvard's coachers paid their attention to individual work until they were satisfied that the team was ready for team work, and the the team was ready for team work, and the result was a good one. If this state of ripeness can be reached two weeks earlier next year, Harvard may hope for great things. She has made a great find in Mr. Deland.

Next year his theories will be fully tested, and if they are as practicable as they promise to be, Harvard will have opened a new era in the American-Rugby game.

The coachers for the new eleven will undoubtedly romain the same—Messys, Scars, Cumnock, Perry, Trafford, Cranston and Grosby. One change of rules which Harvard will advocate will be the creating of a second umpire. The two umpires would have their positions on opposite sides of the teams, and when they disagree the question would be taken to the relevee. This would greatly reduce the chances of such a mistake as undoubtedly robbed Harvard of a touchdown in the last Springfield game.

The Local Association Football Team Must Do More Preparatory Work. A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Pittsburg Association Football Club was held last evening at Tann's hotel. Besides other matters, the coming game between the local team and the Chicagos was discussed. The game is to take place on Christmas holiday, and is sure to be an exciting one. Last evening the committee resolved to Last evening the committee resolved to have the local team practice more than they have been doing. So far this season the players as a team have practiced very little, indeed. That was the cause of their bad defeat by the Canadians. If the players will not practice for their game with the Chicagos it is likely that other players will be put in their places. Now that the Association Leavue has collapsed there are numerous good men in and about Pittsburg who can ably fill up any vacancles made on the team.

If the weather is favorable on the Christ-mas holiday the attendance at the game is sure to be large. The teams are well matched, and last year they played a tie un-der the most exciting direumstances. Presi-dent Tann states that he means to have a good team to face the Windy City fellows, and he is likely to carry out his intention.
