He Says He Wants to Play at Boston Next Season and Not Here.

LOCAL OFFICIALS UNCONCERNED.

Important Suit Entered by Trotting Horse Farties for $150,000.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Local baseball patrons will be interested to know that Charley Farrell objects to play in Pittsburg next season. The following special dispatch from Boston last evening explains matters as lar as they have

"A flurry was caused in the general apathy that pervades the baseball world at the present time by the appearance in this city yesterday of Secretary Scandrett, Charley Farrell and Catcher Mack, of the Pittsburg Baseball Club. "Farrell thought that he might have good luck enough to obtain the unconditional release for which he is hankering, and Mack imagined that he might be traded; but both were mistaken. All they were sed for was to give testimony in the club. Scandrett was also hunt-Pittsurg club. Scandrett was also nuning ion artiser Irwin for a similar purpose.

'Far'l claims that he was promised an unconditional release by the Pittsburg club.
hie says thingle does not want to play in that city, and a guxious to go eisewhere.
He would like to play here, and Boston would sign him provided he could get an unconditional release, but the Boston club
would not may cent for his release.

would not pay a cent for his release.

"Manager Watkins is also here. He sants to trade Cliff Carroll for Joe Quinn, and there is little doubt the trade can be made as lar as the directors are concerned. I this deal goes through Lowe will be put second base and Carroll in left field." There is no truth whatever in the statement that Farrell was promised his uncon-litional release or a release of any kind. People in a position to know whereof they speak state that Farrell is only "bluffing." Thether he is or not the fact remains that treated last year by any club than Farrell was by the Pittsburg club and the Pittsburg people. He was paid handsomely and well respected. He is still held in high est cem

Would Like to Fight Corbett. Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist, was on the Limited last evening going to San Francisco, where he will spend the winter. He says he intends to keep himself in condition and open for all comers. He hopes to have a battle with somebody in the spring. He pre-ers Corbett, and modestly thinks he can lick the alleged champion If he had a chance. He remarked that no man is sure of a title, as anybony is hable to come along and knock him out of it.
