Gecessary. The Chancellor's response to the speeches against the bill was mainly directed at Herr Richter, and his language was sar-rastic. He styled Herr Richter an able political statistician, but said he is scarcely in a position to offer a reliable opinion on the details of a military system. On this subject, views that were author:tative in the hignest military circles must have the most weight. "So convinced am I," said the Chancellor, of the necessity of the bill for the con-

A Bicycle Factory in the Near Future. Mr. H. D. Squires, Manager of the Pittsburg Cycle Company, informed the writerthat he has completed what is one of the mostgigan-tic deals in the bicycle line in the country. He has associated with him a number of Pittsburg's solid business men and incor-porated the Pittsburg Cycle Company, with a capitalization of $100,000. They have secured a site 60x320 in the business portion of the city, and will com-mence to erect thereon a four-story build-ing which will be planned to meet all the re-quirements of their business, which will be the manufacture of bicycles as well as a con-tinuance of their present business of whole-ATING-On Fr the manufacture of bleycles as well as a con-tinuance of their present business of whole-sale and retail dealers in bleycles, bleycle accessories and sporting goods. They will open a riding sohool in their new building, as well as in the East End building, at Center and Elisworth avanues, which will be enlarged to meet the require-ments. Competent instructors will be in at-tendances at both schools. The retail busi-ness will as at present be conducted at No. 428 Wood street. A 7:10 F. tinued existence of Germany, that if the Reichstag wished to throw upon me its own responsibility I would tranquilly accept This statement was greeted with cheers.

Continuing, the Chancellor said that under the provisions of the bill 60,000 young men would be yearly added to the army, so that in a few years 450,000 more men would be ready to take the field against a hostile army. This stat +-ent, also, elicited cheers. The Chancel - appealed to the House not to throw the country into confusion by rejecting the measure.

The Anti-Hebrew Crusade,

Before the debate on the bill is resumed Monday, the Brussels Monetary Conference and the army rifles will form the subjects of interpollations. Something like popular demonstrations of anti-Semitism have occurred in several centers where the Freissinge element is trong. Twice this week considerable crowds have passed along the Friederich strasse crying, "Down with the Hebrews!" Leading Conservatives and the Moderates, Herr Hellgori and Count Douglas are con findent that the Emperor is ashamed of the Hebrew baiting done by the party, and they have protested against including the anti-

Hebrew plank in the party program. The anti-Semitic propaganda in Austria has received fresh energy by the ac-tion of the German Conservatives. A Music Boxes for Christmas. mass meeting was recently held at the Vienna Town Hall, at which 2,000 working people, a large number of whom were women, were present. Prince Alois Lich-tenstein, amid the plaudits of the crowd, advised them to boycott Hebrew tradesmen. Coming from a man of his importance, the advice is likely to have a bad effect.

ENDOWMENT ORDER DECISIONS.

They Will Serve as Important Precedents in Future Litigation.

BOSTON, Dec. 10 .- Judge Hammond today directed the receiver of the National Congress of Friends to bring suit against the officers of the order for $17,000, the amount of a shortage in the Treasury.

The Judge also directed the receiver to pay no certificates that had been bought up by speculators at much less than their face value, and also decided that the receiver allow the death claims to be proved as claims against the funds of the order, and says that they are allowable on the basis of the face value, but not to be preferred. These two decisions will establish import-ant precedents in endowment order litiga-
