CALLS IT FORGERY.

The Iron City National Bank Sues J. H. Cureil for a Note.

J. H. Curell yesterday filed his answer to the suit brought against him by the Iron-City National Bank. In his answer Mr. Curell denies that he ever made the note on which the suit is brought, or that he ever signed his name to it, and he charges that the signature purporting to be his is a forg-ery. Any indebtedness is denied.

The note in question is dated August 29, 1892. It is for $547 19, payable in 90 days to the order of B. F. Rynd at the First Na-tional Bank of Allegheny. It is signed J. H. Curell and indorsed by B. F. Rynd.

DECLARED LEGALLY DEAD.

The Courts Decided a Man So to Straighter an Estate.

In the Orphans' Court yesterday Herman Graver was declared legally dead. In 1857 Graver left his home in Peebles township, now the Twenty-third ward, Pittsburg. He has not been heard of since. Some time ago his mother died, leaving some property in which he shares.

In order to straighten matter out his brother, Philip Graver, applied for letters of administration on his estate. He was advertised for, and vesterday the Court decided that the legal presumption of death had been established.

Want Damages Now.

Hugh Richey and wife vesterday entered suits against Adolph Bengale for $10,000 damages each for injuries to Mrs. Richey. It is alleged that on July 26 Bengale fired a oun at Mrs. Richey with intent to kill her. The ball struck her in the neck and se-verely injured her. From the effects of the wound she has lost the use of her left arm.

YOU NEED The Central Figure in a Celebrated Case Mixed Up in Another Murder Mystery.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 14 .- The Indianapolis police are searching for Mrs. Nancy Clem, the central figure of the famous Clem murder suit of 15 years ago. An investigation by the Coroner into the death of John Martin prompts the demand for Mrs. Clem. Martin had an ailment in the foot and was attended by a female physician who gave the name of Mrs. Dr. Patterson. Martin died under her treatment, and when it came to securing a burial permit, Mrs. Dr. Pat-terson could not be found, and a coroner's investigation was the result, in which it was developed that Martin's death was the result of the excessive use of an "infallible" cure.

This caused the officers to investigate the identity of Mrs. Patterson, and they dis covered that she was none other than Mrs. Clem, who has been living in retirement here since her release from prison. It is believed Mrs. Clem has fled the country to escape arrest.

Mr. J. P. Biaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful.
