TRI-STATE BRE VITIES.

SHARPSVILLE-The furnaces are hustling to get in blast the first of the year. BEAVER FALLS-This town is in the same bont with the East End, Pittsburg-overrun by footpads. CANTON-Frank Reese, a young son of Justus Reese, was instantly killed Wednesday night by a Cleveland, Loraine and Wheeling train

CANTON-Mrs. John Gibson, who ran away with George C. Sweet, a Chicago drummer has returned and is again with her husband. Mr. Gibson has forgiven his wife. McKersrout-Wednesday night, at the National Holling Mill, Steve Chepolon, a young Austrian, was crushed to death under a pile of iron. Every bone in his body was broken. MILESVILLE, Pa.—An explosion of dyna-mits occurred Wednesday night. Thomas Walter and Michael Parrish were blown to atoms. Dominick Walter, a contractor, and Michael Marine were fatally injured. LOUISVILLE, O .- Ten masked men visited the home of Chris Miller, took him to nearby field and there tossed him in a hearby held and there tossed him in a blanker and beat and clubbed him nigh unto death. The men were White Caps who had previously warned the man to desist from beating his wife while drunk.

DRESS REFORMERS CHOOSE A STYLE.

Women's Gowns to Be Loose-Waisted and Short Enough Not to Trail. HICAGO, Dec. 15.—The National Council of Women, in triennial session at the Palmer liouse, to-day listened to an extensive report on dress reform presented by Mrs. Frances E. Russell, Chairman of the committee on that subject. Other members of the committee are Mrs. F. S. Parker, Mrs. Jenness Miller and Octavia Bates. They recomnended a gown of a composite type, loosewaisted and short skirted enough to enable he wearer to go up and down stairs without anger. The report was exhaustively dis-ussed, but it was deferred for future meet-cussed, but it was deferred for future meetings to adopt or to modify. The Committee on Equal Wages, having in charge the agitation tooking toward the establishment of the principle of equal pay for equal work, reported that efforts are being made to have a bill introduced in Congress, making statutory provision for that reform. The Divorce Reform Committee outlined its work looking toward the representation of women in the National Divorce Reform League.

The organizations represented at the meeting were: The National Women's Christian Temperance Union, the National Free Raptist Women's Society, the National American Women's Suffrage Association, the Women's Centenary Association of the en's Centenary Association of the nurch, and the International Kin-Union. The Woman's Republi-diation, of Cleveland, was admitted

INSTRUCTION.

THE Encyclopedia Britanulca was well named When called the king of its tribe and the monu-mental work of English literature. THE Britannica and supplement together exhibit in its entirety the whole range of human knowledge, and constitute an intellectual cormos, EDUCATIONAL.

OTHER cyclopsedias have been sold, not because they were preferred, but because the price of the Britannica placed it beyond reacht, now it is the cheapest set of books in the world and can be afforded by every family. afforded by every family.

The Britannica furnishes the amplest means to guide the inquirer to an independent opinion on the subjects that most profoundly agitate the auman mind, and concerning which men are most anxious to be informed.

THOSE who desire a high class encyclopedia at a low price, will be grad of information to the effect that the famous recyclopedia Britannica may be obtained of Britannica Publishing Co., 68 Sixth av., Pittsburg, Pa.

THE Britannica is indispensable to the youth who hopes to be the practical business man or mechanic; to be the successful professional or literary man; in fact to all who wish to be informed on the latest achievements in science. THE events and elements of a civilized world.

from its beginning, are chronicided within the pages of the Encyclopædia Britannica, giving the reader a general conception of what man has thought and done in his long march down the ages; a more valuable work has never been given to the world.

A STANDARD work of reference, an unequaled Britannica. THE list of American contributors to the Britan-nica is very long, and it embraces the besilterary and statistical ability of the country.
