Not Aware of the Full Power of the Workhouse Superintendent.

PROPOSES TO INVESTIGATE IT.

Some Minor Criminal Cases Heard and Sentences Imposed.

There was an argument before Judge Slowe yesterday in the matter of Superintendent Hill's refusal to accept a prisoner at the workhouse who had been sent there for illegal liquor selling. Mrs. Mary Ann Deary, who lives with her husband at 52 Clay street, Sharpsburg, had been sentenced three months to the workhouse. When the deputy sheriff arrived at Claremont with the woman it was learned that she was about to become a mother, and Superintendent Hill refused to admit her. The woman was brought back to jail and the matter reported to court. Yesterday was fixed for a hearing and at 3 o'clock Stephen C. Geyer, representing Mr. Hill, appeared before Judge Stowe to explain why the woman had been rejected. He said he had advised Superintendent Hill that he could refuse to receive certain peo-

Judge Stowe-Well, I would like to have your authority, Mr. Gever.
Mr. Gever then read the seventh section of the net of 1871, which provides: That it shall not be lawful for any Court, That it shall not be lawful for any court, justice of the peace or other magistrate in the county of Allegheny, or any other county having an agreement with the Board of Managers for the confinement and maintenance of convicted persons in said workhouse, to commit for imprisonment any invalid, insane or idiotic persons to said workhouse, nor shall it be the duty of the Superintendent to receive and admit such Judge Stowe-Yes, but this woman wasn't

Mr. Gever-But I understand she is about

Judge Stowe-Oh, no; I don't consider that she comes under that act at all, and if Superintendent Hill didn't have authority to reject her I propose to send up a bill under an act making his refusal to accept her a penitentiary offense. We want it distincily understood that the Court has some powers, and the presumption is that we know our business. The Court doesn't send invalids, insane or idiotic persons to the workhouse. That set gives the Superintendent an autocratic power in certain cases, but he exercises that power at his

Judge Stowe said further that if he had known the circumstances fully he would have suspended sentence entirely. He did not know of the act of 1871, and wanted to investigate the matter for his own information as much as anything else.

Attorney Golden, representing Mrs.
Deary, asked that the Court vacage the sentence and admit the woman to bail until such time as she could appear, and an order was made admitting her to bail, to appear when wanted.

'I then used Paine's celery compound, and be-ore I had taken one bottle I feit that I was gaining. and after continuing to use the compound for few weeks, my hands regained their natural shape and the rheumatism left me entirely. Since then I have not had the least trouble from that disease, and my recovery is due wholly to Paine's celery

A well known and conservative physician has said: "Paine's celery compound is generally con-sidered a certain specific for the cure of rheumaism, and so much better results are obtained from it than from all the usual remedies that it has be-come a regular prescription among the most eminent practitioners. I prescribe it regularly and believe that every rhoumatic victim should use

HE WANTED CANDY

Childish Gift, A colored man, over 86 years of age, applied yesterday to the Oakland branch of the Society for the Improvement of the Poor, to be allowed a box of candy for his Christmas gift. The old man went to Mrs. Tucker the manager, and with tears beseeched that he be given this for his present. He said there was nothing in the world that he desired more.

Mrs. Tucker has obtained a large box of bon bons for the old man and she says that the cycle of time is making a second turn.
