

WEDNESDAY BASEBALL

Local Patron Makes a Plea for the Home Club to Start It.

SCULLING RACE SUGGESTED.

Offer to Match Reilly, of This City, to Wrestle Anybody at Weight.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Considerable interest has already been expressed in local baseball circles by the intimation made in this paper yesterday by the fact that the local club is likely to lay Sunday games away from home.

It will be foolishness on the part of the local club to remain in this about 12-club league and not participate in the most profitable features of it, viz., the receipts of Sunday games at Chicago during the World's Fair.

It will be seen that Banker closes the season with 36 first places, 16 second places and 7 third places to his credit.

GODDARD PUTS UP THE STUFF.

He Wants Corbett to Fight or Drop the Championship.

Chicago, Dec. 18.—Joe Goddard, the prize fighter, today deposited with George A. Siler, the sporting editor of a local paper, $5,000 forfeit money, as an evidence of his desire to fight Jim Corbett.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—Mr. J. A. St. John, of St. John's, and formerly backer of Jake Gansler, writes on December 18th congratulating the latter on the success he had in regard to the championship question.

General Sporting Notes.

It looks like "Sunday ball" all round.

The proposed battle between Griffin and Baxter has been postponed until the middle of February.

BASEBALL GOSPEL has it that Eddie Talcott will not accept the residency of the New York Baseball Club.

BILLY MADSEN the other day stated that Mitchell would not fight Corbett.

THE YALE CREW and the Amherst Dartmouth contest is the same event, both of which are to take place in the Big R. A. indoor meeting next February.

THE HOBART STAD ARRIVES SAFE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—The Hobart stud of 84 horses, including Stamboul, Nancy Lee, Trinke, Eugenia and Alma Mater, arrived safely from California this afternoon and were stabled at the American Institute building, pending the sale on Tuesday and Wednesday.

TO DEFEND THE CAP.

HARVARD'S NEW CAPTAIN.

BOSTON, Dec. 18.—At a recent meeting of the Harvard Football Association, R. G. Waters, '24, a Boston boy, was elected captain of the eleven for next year.

DICK BURGE WAS BENTEN.

The following is taken from the London Referee of December 4: This (Saturday) afternoon a great amount of interest was created in sporting circles in the vicinity of Newcastle by the fact that Dick Burge and George Kevell, both of Newcastle, who ran 50 yards, Burge receiving one yard more, at the Victoria Running Grounds, Newcastle, Long before the time fixed for the race to come off those who take an interest in football gathered round the entrance to the grounds.

WRESTLING ANYBODY.

A local sporting man called at this office last evening and left the following statement: "Now that Ed Reilly, of Pittsburgh,

BANKER'S RECORD FOR THE YEAR.

He Got Thirty-Four First, Sixteen Seconds and Seven Third Places.

George A. Banker, who is now located in New York, but can be claimed with pride by Pittsburgh, is probably the most promising bicyclist in the world.

Table with columns: PLACE, Events, and details of races won by Banker.

It will be seen that Banker closes the season with 36 first places, 16 second places and 7 third places to his credit.
