EUSY ON THE RIVER FRONT.

A Cincinnati Pack t Brings in Her Annua

Christmas Cargo,

All was activity about the Cincinnati wharfboat yesterday, and while the scene on the wharl when the big river packets come in is usually interesting, that of vesterday morning was particularly so. It was a scene that is witnessed only once a year and that during the holiday season. The Keystone State had just come in from Cincinnati. It was her annual hotiday trip, and she was loaded down with produce for the Christmas season. Her cargo included about 2,500 geese, 2,000 chickens, with nearly as many ducks, besides heavy con-signments of vegetables from down-river points. The crates containing the lowls were piled in all parts of the boat; every available place from the boiler room to the hurricane deck was completely taken up.

The continued squacks of the geese when being removed to the wharfboat started the others, and together they kept up a destening dis. The commission houses of the town were busy throughout the day re-moving their property, so that, all in all, it was the busiest time since the packets have
