STRAIGHT STAGE TIPS.

fur Duquesne Theater has a seasonabl attraction for Merry Christmas in "A Texas Steer" which has already been commended in these colums as have all of Hoyt's farces in different degrees, whether their satire was directed against a station agent or a Congressman. They all had point; none were gressman. They all had point; none ere vulgar, lifeless or stupidly offensive. The leading situations, as well as the whip-like lashes of wit in "A Texas Steer" will outlast its vogue. The company is practically the same as that which played the farce here last season. Miss Flora Walsh will put in the dainty touches, Tim Murphy the broader humor, and William H. Bray continues to make an ebony monument of the African statesman in search of a job. Mr. Hoyt, who has recovered entirely from the shock of election to the New Hampshire Legislature, will be on hand also.

MR. CHARLES HANFORD, with the Booth and Parret product ion of "Julius Cæsar," will be at the Grand Opera House next week. Mr. Hanford's performances as leading man with Booth and Barret will be recalled with pleasure. Mr. Hanford brings with him this piensure. air. Hantere orings with him this time an excellent company, numbering 22 people, including Mr. E. R. Spencer, as Cusrius, and Bennet Matlack as Brittus. The original Booth-Barrett scenery is used. The price of seats will not be advanced. At one matinee "Ingomar" will be given, with Miss Winter as Furthenta.

THE prospects for laughter and lots of it at the Alvin Theaternext week are good. "The Junior Partner," a comedy of the cham- PENNAY. pagne order, will be gived by one of Charles rohman's first-class companies, in :act the same that appeared in the New York pro-duction, having as its principals such eminent artists as Mr. Henry Miller, May Irwin, Emily Baucker, Mrs. McKee Rankin, Thomas W. Ryley and others of like caliber.

"THE County Circus" begins its second en gagement in this city at Harry Davis' Eden Musee next Monday. Every performer is a star in his particular line. The menagerie, aviary, saw-dust arena, and, in fact, everything that goes to make up a first-class circus, accompany the aggregation.

A "NOT" misplaced made THE DISPATCH SAY on Tuesday that Miss Lenore Snyder's voice was neither rich nor strong. It is both and her singing and Mr. McLaughlin's are the best things in the performance, which has improved since Monday and pleased a large matinee audience yesterday.

AT Harris' Theater the Wilbur Opera Company will begin their second week. The repertoire is: Monday, "Erminie;" Tuesday and Wednesday, "Black Hussar;" Thursday, "Royal Middy;" Friday, "Grand Duchess;" Saturday matinee, "Fra Diavolo;" saturday night, "Erminie."

"TRACKED to Death" is the sensational melodrama to be given at the World's Museum next week. Francis Murray and Millie Lamar, the mind readers, and other strong boliday attractions are promised. . THE "Fall of Atlanta" at the Alvin ought to be seen by every boy and girl as a patriotic lesson. It is a good performance also, and Post 88, G. A. R., is likely to benefit

THERE will be matinees at all the theater on Monday next, Christmas Day.
