Another Citizens' Movement Started to Put in the Field a COMPLETE MUNICIPAL TICKET.

Republicans May Nominate Mayor Gourley for Controller.

THE ALLEGHENY MAYORALTY CONTEST

Another citizens' movement having in view the nomination of a full city ticket is in the process of formation. One or two county officials, and several attorneys and business men, among whom have heretofore been prominently identified with politics, are agitating the scheme.

Present appearances all strongly indicate that Postmaster McKean will head the Republican ticket. He refuses to admit there is any possibility of it, but by a carefully studied effort avoids saying he will not accept the nomination if tendered to him.

Unless a decided change comes over the situation before January 7, Mayor Gourley's name will adorn the Democratic ticket for Controller. This opinion is held by the party.

Not Anxious for the Office.

Regarding his action on the Alliance nomination the Mayor was not prepared to talk yesterday. As far as the office itself is concerned he would not be justified in making much of an effort to get it.

ALLEGHENY WARMING UP.

Sensational Stories About the Republican Mayoralty Candidates. Allegheny politics have lived up considerably within a few days. The Mayoralty question is almost lost sight of in some ways, the Councilmanic contest are overshadowing everything else.

Nomination Papers Might Be Stolen.

The County Commissioners are afraid that during the exciting political contest now opening up there might be an effort made to steal some of the applications for nomination papers. To avoid any of the serious consequences that might result they have decided to make a copy of the signatures and all such papers for public inspection.
