MERTING OF NEW YORK'S LEGISLATURE

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Despite all the rumors there is no call out for a meeting of the Republican National Committee here or elsewhere next month, and no one competent to speak with authority regards one as probable. To begin with, there is no necessity for such a gathering, which not only entails expense of money, but of time as well on many men. It is doubtful whether a quorum of the committee could be brought together unless some emergency should arise more pressing than any now in

The committee is taking no part in the fight for the doubtful Western Legislatures, that matter being left entirely to the local committees in the several States. One reason for this is the lack of interest evinced by Republicans in the result of these squabbles. There is a disposition among a num-ber of influential party leaders to let the United States Senate go to the Democrats with the rest of the National Government, and while they would not go so far as to give up a Senate seat rightfully Republican they nevertheless decline to enter into a contest for it. Hence the National Committee at the outset resolved to keep clear of the muddle, and they have done so.

Carter's Personal Ambitions. The only instance in which any of the committeemen have become interested is in Montana where Chairman Carter is personally concerned in the outcome and hopes to be the next United States Senasor. He is giving the matter all of his attention and interest to remain on constitutions. intends to remain on guard until the selec-tion is made. One of his fellow-committeemen heard from him by letter yesterday, and in that communication he stated that he would not be East before the middle of January. If the Senatorship is deadlocked he will not come then. Probably he has written to the same effect to other Eastern committeemen and on that is based the talk of a committee gathering.

One of the matters set down for discussion at this mythical meeting is the establishment of a national campaign bureau. This has been talked over and over again until it has become rather tiresome to those who know what it means. Like many other who know what it means. Like many other good suggestions for party management it has always ended in talk. No one enters any serious objection to the plan, but somehow it always fails of execution. Just now the main reason tor its probable failure is the last of funds to its probable failure is the lack of funds for its maintenance. The National Committee have none to use that way, nor will they endeavor to raise any. There is still some indebtedness from the recent campaign, and the officers intend to clear off every dollar of that before mourring any new obligations. To be at all effective, a campaign bureau would need nearly $50,000 a year at its disposal, and anyone who thinks that the job of collect-ing that amount of contributions is an easy one had better make some experiments. Bliss Takes a Vacation, Cornelius N. Bliss has just returned from a vacation trip to Jekyll Island, off the Georgia coast, which a number of Northern men have purchased and made into a win-ter camping-out spot. Mr. Bliss missed his vacation last summer by accepting the treasuryship of the National Committee, so be took it this month. Jekyll Island is so he took it this month. Jekyll Island is about ten miles in area and has a hard beach for driving and plenty of game for sportsmen. The club owns it entire and has erected comfortable cottages for the members' families. It takes from 36 to 40 hours to get to Brunswick, Ga., from which point you have only 11 miles to travel.

Speaking of his trip and the delights of uthern travel, Mr. Bliss said to me: "It is marvellous what an amount of Northern money has been spent along the South Atlantic seaboard in creating winter resorts.
Millions have gone into investments of that sort, and soon there will be a complete chain of places stretching from Old Point Comfort, to the southernmost point of Florids. The surprising part of it is that Comfort, all of them seem to be making money, which demonstrates to my mind that the American people are more ready to spend money in healthful or pleasurable pursuits than any other nationality."

The New York Legislature,

The Legislature meets a week from to-day and for the second time since Francis Kernan was chosen Senator in 1875 both branches are in the bands of the Democrats. The first time was last winter. The Senate is a hold-over. The Assembly is a new body, however, and stands 74 Democrats to 54 Republicans. Senator Hill is already on guard at Albany and the Tammany brayes intend to go up the river next week me. They are on the nunt for every-thing to be had from the Speakership down. The "slate" for Senatorship and Speakership seems firmly fixed on Ed Murphy and young Sulzer of this city respectively, but there is a good deal of mystery about the purposes of Boss Hugh McLaughlin, who wields the same power in Brooklyn that Croker does here.

McLaughlin controls the 17 members from Brooklyn and the anti-snappers would give worlds to have those votes cast against Murphy, for they would defeat him. Me-Laughlin understands their value, as well as anyone, and his silence indicates that he is driving a hard bargain with Hill and Murphy for standing by them. He may succeed in knocking out Tammany's

CLARKSON NOT SLATED .

To Succeed Carter as Chairman of the Republican National Committee. WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 -[Special.]-Mr. Joseph H. Manley, the Maine Republican on the National Committee, says the report that General Clarkson is to succeed Mr. Carter as Chairman has no foundation whatever. The National Committee has practically nothing to do during the next four years, and the duties of Chairman are not sufficient to be a burden to anyone in view of the result of the late election. Just now the chairmanship of the Republican Committee is an empty honor, and none of the committee are disposed to deprive Mr. Carter of the position. Mr. Mauley said his visit here at this time had no political significance. He did not attempt to see the President, because his business was not in

He did make a call at the Blaine residence for a short time and was permitted to go in the sick room to see his old and much loved triend. He says Mr. Blaine is still a very sick man, but he is improving slowly but surely, and to use the patient's own words, he is "going to pull through." Mr. Blaine seemed to be quite cheerful, and would have chatted freely had not the attendants prevented him from entering into conversation. Mr. Manley takes a more hopeful view of Mr. Biaine's case to-day than he did when he was here two or three weeks ago, just before Mr. Blaine's almost fatal attack.

To a Negro While He Was on Trial in Kentucky Court for Assault.

BOWLING GREEN, KY., Dec. 28 .- A 11:35 o'clock to-day, before court adjourned for dinner, a mob of 1,000 men armed with Winchesters and shotguns, took the negr assailant of Miss Anderson from the officer at the Court House, where he was having his examining trial, and passed up the street with him toward the suburbs. The negro was bareheaded.

Fifty men took the prisoner from th Circuit Court room. So quick was their appearance that the officers were unable to prevent the capture. The mob took the negro to the fair grounds where, after swinging him up to a tree, his body was rid-dled with bullets.
