The Prosecutor Gets the Worst of an Embezzlement Action.

A GRIEVANCE BETWEEN G.A.R. MEN

Fuit by a Fank to Collect on Four Large Fromissory Notes.

THE NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

The case of C. C. May, charged with emare members of Colonel Shaw Post, G. A. R., composed of colored soldiers. May is an officer of the post, and Adley charged him with embezzling $15 belonging to the organization. It was shown that when the apparent shortage was discovered the prose-The latter showed that, instead of May owing the post, the latter was indebted to him. It was further shown that the proceeding against May was a personal matter, unauthorized by the post; and a verdict of not guilty and placing the costs upon the prosecutor was rendered.

A verdict of acquittal was rendered in the case of Charles Arnold, charged with stealing a horse from Thomas McCarroll, of Tarentum, on December 19.

Andrew Strak was found guilty of stealing $10 from James T. McCracken, of Boston, Pa., on December 21, and recommended to the mercy of the Court.

Henry and David Helfer, who were charged with assaulting Policeman G.

W. Dawson, of the West End, some weeks ago, were found guilty.

D. W. Pollock, the insurance man, who insured the minor son of Mrs. McMinne-min, was found guilty of false pretense. He represented that policies could be written for minor children, and when the plain-tiff's child died the company contested the Anton Kasopski was fined $500 and sent to the workhouse for three months for illegal liquor selling at Sewickley. Robert Baxter, charged with assault and battery and the larceny of household goods by Mary and Charles Hausen, of McKeesport, was found not guilty, and in the assault and battery case the costs were placed on Mary Hausen.

SUIT ON FOUR LARGE NOTES

Brought by the Enterprise Bank Against the Union Scrap Company.

The Enterprise Savings Bank, of Allegheny, yesterday entered suit against J. M. Nelson, A. Munsch, A. Haller and S. P. Haller, doing business as the Union Scrap Company, to recover $5,642 60. The amount is claimed to be due on four promisory notes indorsed by the defendants to the plaintiff in the usual course of business. When the notes fell due they went to protest, payment was refused and the suit re-

INTOXICATED AND FREEZING.

Terrible Plight of an Old Couple in the West End. The manager of the Clinton Mills was notified yesterday by several neighbors of Daniel Hausbury who live in Clinton Row, West Carson street, that he and his wife had not been seen since Monday, and it was feared some ill had befallen the couple. A man was sent to break open the door, and upon gaining an entrance and going upstairs the sight revealed was most horrible. There, lying in bed in a room without any fire, with no clothes to cover them, and in the company of several cats, dogs and chickens, was the couple in a drunken stuper and half frezen to death. A man was dispatched for coal and a fire started. The Department of Charities was notified, beszlement by John Adley, was disposed of in Criminal Court yesterday. Both men disposed of and Chief Eliot sent Inspector Dirhe to investigate the case.

"It was the dirtiest place I have ever seen," said Diehl after his return to the office. "You would have thought the people were colored from their appearance. there were cats, dogs and chickens all around the room and and the filth was revolting. cution was instituted pending an audit. At first, when aroused from the stupor. The latter showed that, instead of May as I suggested, but after a little persuasion and the assistance of Father McTighe we persuated them it was the best thing for them to do."

The ambulance will be sent to the house to carry the old couple to the City Farm to-day.
