GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

There was quite a surprise caused in local sporting circles yesterday afternoon by the receipt of a letter by Manager Goodwyn, of the Natatorium, from James L. Mc-Cusker, champion short-distance swimmer of the United States. The letter was dated Everett, Mass., December 24.

It stated that McCusker and John Haggerty, champion short-distance swimmer of England, had been matched to swim for $1,000 a side the following series of races: One hundred yards; one-eighth of s mile; one-quarter of a mile; one-half mile. and one mile. Mr. McCusker proposes that the series of five races take place in the Pittsburg Natatorium, providing the Nata-torium will give the contestants $500 and expenses to swim here.

Manager Goodwyn was seen last evening

Manager Goodwyn was seen last evening and taked to regarding the proposal of Mr. McCusker. Mr. Goodwyn said: "Why the proposition is absurd. Their match is doubtless a square one, as Haggerty cannot afford to be beaten in three of the five races. But they cannot expect to be guaranteed $500 and expenses to swim at any place. We will do as much as any-body, and if they want to swim their races. any place. We will do as much as any-body, and if they want to swim their races here I will give them a chance to reap the benefit of their reputations. I will give them each one-third of the gate receipts, and I will in behalf of the building take the other third and do all the advertising, etc. They cannot expect more than this. I have written McCusker to this effect to-day. He tells me he has written the Manhattan and other clubs for terms. I think we offer the very fairest."

It would be a treat to have McCusker and Haggerty swim a contest here. Doubtless the latter is a phenomenal man, and has convinced good judges of this fact. He came to this country purposely to tackle a short distance awimmer, and probably the only available man is McCusker. The latter has contested in this city before, and thinks

Among the Swimmers.

The swimming contests last evening at the Natatorium were exceedingly exciting. The audience to witness the contests was large. Bert Price won the handicap contest. He had two seconds start. J. T. Taylor was second. Profs. Fox and Mc-Ewan gave entertaining exhibitions of natatorial skill. The polo game was won by J. T. Taylor's team—1 to 0. Nearly 100 ladies were present. It was one of the best entertainments ever seen in the city.

men in this country, that is among men who take an interest in athletic contests, is Charles H. Hoyt, author of "A Texas Steer," and almost all the other popular farce comedies now before the American and the Tribune received a telegram from Gns Walton, Donahue's backer, withdrawing his forfeit December 31, unless covered in the meantime. Walton complains of the unsportsmanlike actions of the Normania Skating Cleb Yesterday afternoon Mr. Hoyt said to the writer:

"I suppose that Corbett can get all the backing he wants to fight anybody, but I want to be quoted as saying that I will back James J. Corbett for $10,000, $15,000 or $20,000 to fight Charles Mitchell. I don't want to may how Mitchell has insulted gentlemen, but I do say that Corbett can defeat Mitchell, and it would be $10,000 worth of pleasure to me to say to Mitchell after he had met Corbett: 'Now, you tough, you've got licked.' I have reasons for saying this, and I mean it."

Mr. Hoyt went on to say that he met Dick Burge recently in Boston, and after sizing the Englishman up, he (Mr. Hoyt) cannot see how Burge can defeat McAuliffe. Mr. Hoyt, who is now entirely recovered from his late sickness will leave for Boston from his late sickness, will leave for Boston to-morrow. McCaffrey and Donovan Are Now Talking About a Large Purse.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.-There are indica tions that the three-round sparring exhibition between Dominick McCaffrey and Mike Donovan held at the Madison Square Garden, December 17, will result in a meeting between those two well-known boxing

Regarding the matter McCaffrey says: With the consent of the Manhattan Athletic Club, I should like very much to meet Donovan in the ring and settle the question of superiority. I will box him 1, 50 or any number of rounds for the largest purse that any club will offer, the winner to take all."

Donovan says he has no objections to a meeting with McCaffrey, but that it will depend upon the attitude of the New York Athletic Club, by which he is employed. An encounter between McCaffrey and Don ovan would unquestionably draw one of the largest crowds ever seen at a boxing club in this vicinity.

The Denver Man Meets a Friend in Choynski and Not a Foc. The following communication

ceived at this office last evening: I am informed that some person, who hasn't the nerve to make his name public, man's the nerve to make his name public, wants to match Choynski to fight me. I never challenged Choynski. I challenged Goddard through The Disparch. The people who put forward the challenge regarding Choynski fighting me don't know what they are talking about. We cannot fight for $5,000 a side outside of a club. There is no legal protection. The party presumingly speaking for Choynski does not know what he is alking about, and evidently has personed ing for Choynski does not know what he is talking about, and evidently has a personal spite somewhere. Now, to test these amateurs in challenges I will state and leave with The Disparon $500 as a deposit that I will meet Goddard according to challenge. I want no baby talk from behind the bush. I take the popular medium of sporting news in Pennsylvania, or the United States for that matter, to make my intentions known.

Mr. Choynski will be here to-day. I will box him. If a club will offer a sultable purse to both of us I will fight him. In short, the people who talk about Choynski and myself fighting don't know their business.

He Is Willing to Get to Any Weight and Fight McAuliffe.

BOSTON, MASS., Dec. 29.—English pugilist Dick Burge, who lost the handsome purse of $45,000 offered by the Coney Island Athletic Club through the mistaken efforts of his manager, called upon Captain A. W. Cooke to-day and inquired if there was any chance of the Crescent Athletic Club, of New Orleans, giving a purse for a fight with McAuliffe. An suswer was received from President Noel to-day to the effect that the matter would be considered and that Mc-Auliffe had been telegraphed to but that the club would not give $45,000.

In regard to the matter of weight in the Mc-Auliffe Processing

McAuliffe-Burge controversy and the claim that the latter cannot train to the required 133 pounds, Burge says he can easily get down to the lightweight scale, and is auxious to have the fight take place. Burge is now anxious to fight McAuliffe and will guarantee $10,000 forfeit or more if boxing. Purses will be offered for contests James J. Coogan, who ran tor Mayor of this city on the labor ticket and was de-feated in 1888, is the promoter of the new club and Arthur Lumley has been selected to manage the boxing contests. Mr. Lum-ley said that many of New York's business men are connected with the new club. It is the intention of the members to build a spacious clubhouse with an areus that is expected to seat 8,000 people. A site for the clubhouse has been selected in the neighborhood of One Hundred and Fiftieth street and Eighth avenue, this city.

DALY THE WINNER.

Corbett's Old Partner Defeats McCarthy

Atter 28 Lively Rounds. BUFFALO, Dec. 29. - [Special]-Jim Daly, of Philadelphia, and Tom McCarthy, of Dubois, Pa., met before the Buffalo Athletic Club to-night for a purse of $2,000. It was a rattling fight of 28 rounds, when McCarthy, who had been growing weak since the fourteenth round, was rushed to the ropes by Daly, who landed many blows in quick succession on the face and head. McCarthy finally dropped senseless and was counted out.

McCarthy made a game fight, but was outgeneraled by Daly, who proved his superior lasting powers. Daly weighed in at 163½ and McCarthy at 166.

Changed the Date.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29 .- It is announced that the date of the Fitzsimmons-Hall battle, which occurs before the Crescent City Athletic Club of New Orleans, has been changed. The reason of this was on account of the Southern elections, which take place about April 5, the original date on which the fight was scheduled to take place. The club has, therefore, in fear of having a slim attendance at the contest, changed the date on which the meeting is to

San Francisco, Dec. 29.-W. I. Sachtleben, of Alton, Ill., and Thomas G. Allen, of Ferguson, Mo., have arrived here from Vancouver, B. C., after making a tour of the world on bicycles. On June 30, 1890, they finished their course of study at Washington University, St. Louis, and then started out to make the trip. They visited Washington, and on June 23 sailed from New York, landing in Liverpool July 4. There bicycles were purchased, and a tour made of the British Isles, thence to France. Their route took them through Rouen, Paris, Chartiers, Peritoirs, Bordeaux and Marseilles. The Riviers route along the shores of the Mediterranean was followed, and Genoa, Rome and Milan, in Italy, were visited. At Athens the first long halt was made. To Constantinople was the next jaunt, and there preparations for the invasion of Asia were begun.

They Scaled Mount Ararat. "Our first exploit, of which we are a lit-tle proud," said Sachtleben to-day, "was the scaling of Mount Ararat. We are the first Americans that reached the top, and the natives could hardly believe we had succeeded. We started July 2 and reached the summit July 4. There we also better the summit July 4. There we celebrated the American holiday by waving the American flag and firing shots from our revolvers. On our return the Governor of Bayarid gave a dinner in our honor. "At Tashkand, the capital of Turkestan, we remained from November, 1891, to May 7, 1892, and spent a good deal of the time studying the Russian language. We often had occasion to notice the eager attitude of Russian sentiment regarding the advance upon British Afghanistan. The Russians are very friendly to Americans, and on this account we received many courtesies. Our last stopping place in Russian territory was at Vernoe, and here the people tried to dissuade us from making the attempt to go to China; but, relying on a special pass to China; but, relying on a special pass-port which had been given us by the Chinese Minister in London, we determined on trying to get through. After leaving Kuldja the route taken was by way of Urmpse to the berder of the Gobi desert at Hami, and we were agreeably surprised at the character of the roads. # RIVER NEWS AND NOTES.

The Ohio Fast Being Locked Up by the Prolonged Cold Snap.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.) PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Dec. 29. —The prolonged frosts have strengthened the locking up of the river, and some of the best-informed bostmen say river, and some of the best-informed boatmen say the Ohio will probably not be open again for weeks. The owners of the Andes, Ben Hur and it other boats tied up here have given it up for the time being, and sent their crews home by rail. Still-water ice is four inches thick here to-night, and the harvest for next senson's use has begun. The Little Kanawha is frozen soldly from bank to bank, but the lee is so light that the local boats are breaking their way through for the usual trips to the Springs. River men say to-night that there will have to be a heavy rise in the Ohio to open the stream again, as the fee will hold on so long as the water is low as at present.

THERE were four inches of fee in the river at the first pool yesterday. THE Twilight was breaking ice in the channel at the third pool yesterday. JANES G. LONGWELL had his chief engineer's license renewed yesterday. ALVA VORGILEY, chief clerk on the Iron Queen, was in the city from Cincinnati yesterday. THE Coal City, which has been athwart a boulder at Cables Eddy since last Monday, yesteriay broke apart in the middle, She is probably a total wreck.

THE Cincinnati, Stony Hill and Greenfield mines and Brown & Sons' two mines in the third pool are now running with a full supply of men, at the re-duced rate. THE packet Congo arrived at Cincinnati on Wednesday morning and left for Huntington in the evening. She will probably tie up on her re-turn to Cincinnati.

CAPTAIN JACON CASTLE, formerly commander of the Halnbow, which went up in anoke near (in-clinat two years ago, was in the city yesterday from Chicago, where he now resides. THE Keystone State is the up at Steubenville on account of an ice gorge at Brown's Island. The Andes and Lizzie Bay are tied up at Parkersburg, the Batchelor at Beliaire and the Hudson at Gallipolis.

STRAIGHT STAGE TIPL

One of the most amusing comedies seen here last season returns to the Alvin next week. The company is nearly the same as that which was seen here last year, and as far as laughter goes the Alvin's patrons should find it perfectly satisfactory. The plot of "Mr. Wilkinson's Widows" involves in a most amusing way a couple of widows and the struggle a married man makes to conceal a rather wild past from his wife. The ogmpany bears the name of Mr. Charles Frohman and is pretty sure to be up to the mark. There will be the usual extra matines on New Year's Day.

A new edition of "A Parlor Match," or "Series 2," is promised by Messrs, Evans and Hoey, who will appear at the Duquesne and Hoey, who will appear at the Dequesse Theater, New Year's week, opening with a matinee. It has been re-written and revised up to date. Besides various old features, that will no doubt prove fetching to the old and new friends of the play, and the favorite stars, new features have been introduced. They include songs, dances and other specialities that were unearthed by Evans and Hoev during a summer trip in Europe. Mr. Hoev will sing for the first time "The Man Who Broke the lank at Monte Carlo," the idea of which was auggested by his experience at that samous resort, and Mr. Evans will manipulate a new and amusing spiritualistic trick and introduces a new quadrille buriesque, in which he will be assisted by Mr. Hoey, Miss Minnie French and Helen Douglas.

JACKSONS' CLOTHING. SUIT?

WELL? There's certainly nothing un-suitable about you, and the gentleman we can't suit is an odd specimen of humanity. Our suits are suits in all senses of the word, and we need not give you a bribe to buy, if you see them. The materials suit the most fastidious taste because they are selected with the greatest of care. They suit in style, art, finish and makeup, because they are the production of our own skilled and experienced workmen, working under the direction of Mr. I. Jackson, the senior member of our firm, and these are the just reasons why everyone is well suited when they patronize I. Jackson & Bro.

NOW, we are about to take inventory of our stock. We want to reduce it as much as possible, and you'll get some surprising bargains if you come at your earliest convenience. Come at once.
