We have recently received letters from different sections inquiring as to the prospect of the democracy of this county. These letters inform us that the prospects are upwards of two hundred miles already taken place in the county from democracy to whig... the only name mentioned is Herrick.

The information of our friends that we say, that our prospect was as good as it now is. The party in this County, has never been at any previous period more united, more energetic and indefatigable than now. The spirit of democracy is aroused, pervades the whole country with unparalleled enthusiasm. This party is good for her four hundred majority for POLK and DALLAS and HUNDREDS majority for MULLER and HERRICK.

Has the big gun burst, or has Millers prediction of end of the world broken out again? Oh no, it is only a federal whig Clay meeting, singing their own favorite songs.

Such are the means made use of by the enemies of democracy, to blind the eyes of the people, and keep out of view whig sentiments; they do not like to have their principles stand in bold relief before them. The measures advocated by the federalists have been so often put down by the people; that even the name has become odious, and a change was necessary to ensure any chance of success; hence the name of whig has been adopted;—have they changed their principles? No, no not in the least; if they had they would join in with democracy in support of our government; are they willing to have the government vested in the hands of the people? If they were, we should not hear all this noise and confusion. Their chorists at the Clay clubs would become an useless office; the people would be respected as men and citizens, and the siren song would not be sung to entice the unwary from a true sense of their duty.

Fellow Citizens, can we trust them? We have seen the effects of their power, an alien law, a sedition law, a bank of thirty five millions capital chartered without consulting the people, and this large capital squandered, by one of their party called the great financier and even named by the whigs as a candidate for the Presidency. And are not many of us now smarting under the effects of their infamous bankrupt law? and more recently in the State Rhode Island, governed by the real federal whig principles, one of her sons sent to prison during life, for raising his voice against a British Charter.

No fellow, citizens, we cannot trust to such men our measures; their siren song is too weak to put the farmer and mechanic to sleep on their post; the people will arise in their might and say to those song singers down busy devils, down! we will fight not like the duellist with sword and pistol, but with the true democrat's weapon, the ballot box, and with no other aid but the thumb and finger, Polk therein, sufficient to silence all their noise and confusion, and war of words for many years to come, and will be joined heart and hand by exasperated a certain Towanda whiglet by wearing a "Polk and Dallas" badge by way of contrast. The other wagon drawn by four grey horses, contained the Troy Band, who uttered the most enlivening music. Following the pole were several wagons filled with democratic voters. During the fore part of the afternoon, the democrats of the surrounding country flocked in, much to the chagrin of the coons, so that at 2 o'clock there were not far from 400 on the ground, ready and anxious to give a helping hand if necessary. After the hickory was put in its place and secured in its position, a streamer was run up 100 feet, when it opened to the breeze and displayed the proud names of our several candidates when three cheers were given for Polk, three for Dallas, three for Muhlenburg, and three for Louisiana. The last was "wormwood, gall and poke root" to the coons as it brought to their minds, if minds they have, very unpleasant reminiscences. The band, then gave us some of their best tunes, played in their best style. This was followed by a few remarks by F. Smith, after which a proposition was made, and carried with a loud huzza to hold a Democratic Mass Meeting in Troy on the 29th of August. The assembly then adjourned in a quiet and orderly manner.

[For the Bradford Reporter.]
What's all this noise and Confusion?
No. 2.

Get along home ye loco foco clicks. The people's rising For Clay and Frelinghuysen. Rumsy dumsy Col. Johnson kill'd Tecumseh.

[For the Bradford Reporter.]
GOODRICH—On the 13th inst. democrats assembled in the village of Troy, and resolved to have a "Hickory raising" in Troy on the 20th at 10 o'clock P. M. When it was announced that there would be a Hickory raising in Troy, the strong hold of federalism, the hot bed of federalism, the place of coonery, the announce-ment was received with contempt by the democrats. The idea that the democrats would venture to make a show, of raising in Troy was the very stretch of imagination! nay, worse, it was almost a mockery! What! raise a hickory pole in federal Troy, in the face and presence of the democrats, more worse than the conduct of the boy who sought to rescue his turkey from the hands of some few of the democrats and maidens of that place who converted it to the use of coonery.

THE POLK CLUB of Towanda Township, will meet at the School House near Maj. Fisher's, Saturday evening August 3d, at early twilight. A general attendance is requested. The meeting will be addressed by D. Wilmot Esq., and other able speakers.
