All the delegations from the townships east of the river, will assemble at Col. V. E. Piolet's in Wysox, by 10 o'clock A. M., which point they will leave in a body under the direction of J. E. Piolet, assistant marshal, at 10 o'clock for Towanda. The delegation from Sheshequin will fall into the line at S. Warner's.

The delegations from Troy, Columbia, Wells and Burlington, will assemble at Burlington corners at 8 o'clock A. M., which place they will leave in a body under the direction of the assistant marshal, at half past eight o'clock for Towanda by way of Monroeton, if convenient to adopt that route.

The delegations from Canton, Le Roy, Franklin, and Albany, Granville, Monroe and Townships, will assemble at P. Smith's in Monroeton, at 9 o'clock, which place they will leave in a body under the direction of Capt. Geo. H. Bull, assistant marshal, at 10 o'clock A. M. for Towanda.

The delegation from Springfield will unite with the other delegations at Ulster, or accompany the other western delegations, as will suit their convenience.

The delegations from Asylum, Duell and part of Monroe, will assemble at a convenient time and place to fall into the line of delegations on its way from Monroeton to Towanda. Delegations from all townships not named above, will please meet and join any of the several processions, named, that may be most convenient to them, and appoint their own marshalls to act until they fall into the lines named.

Each township is requested to have some appropriate banner or banners designating their delegations.—The whole line will be formed immediately on arrival of all the delegations, under the direction of the marshalls—the right resting on the east side of Main street, opposite the foot of Paine street.

It is earnestly requested, that all delegates, whether from this or other counties, in or out of the state, who expect to attend the Mass Meeting, should be present at some one of the points of rendezvous above mentioned, that shall be most convenient to them. The vast concourse of people expected on the above occasion, renders it absolutely necessary, that the utmost order should be observed.

By order of the Committee.

N. B. The Bridge will be free for all persons going and returning on the 10th September, excepting loaded teams.

The "Chronicle" man of the Argus, is in quite a "pickle," had to get into, much harder to get out of—he lives by a scale of political degrees, these days, concealed love for the federal or coon party, phlegmatic apathy towards his old friends, the Anti-Masons, and avowed hatred towards all Roman Catholics; he acts under an economy of malicious caprice, and blind impulse. There is in his long-winded articles, no enlightened conviction, no paramount obligation, no philosophical test, no pure and lofty political principles: he is a Ship at Sea without an indicating shore, without a polar magnet, and holding her political course by the uncertain light of every wandering star. No wonder, under the guidance of such men, the coon army is being disbanded, and the coon edifice dismantled; its captains, have not the harmony, the inherent energy, or auxiliary aid, that can long preserve it from dissolution.

MASS MEETINGS.—If the spirit evinced at the various meetings held by the democrats be any criterion, not a trace will be left of coonery in this county after our fall elections.

In Albany on the 24th ult., a township meeting was advertised, which resulted in a gathering of three or four hundred of the democrats of that and adjacent townships who listened with marked attention to an able speech from D. Wilnot, and some most happy remarks from V. E. Piolet. The "Coon Killer" was there, and made the hills ring with its echoes.

In Burlington, on the 29th, we are assured, a most enthusiastic congregation of the unflinching democrats of that section took place, which was addressed by various gentlemen.

A Mass Meeting was advertised at Frenchtown on the 30th, and a large audience convened, which was called to order by Hon. JOHN LAPORTE, who proceeded to nominate to preside over the deliberations of the meeting, the Hon. JONATHAN STEVENS. Judge Laporte alluded to the revolutionary services of Mr. Stevens in a most happy manner and drew from his large auditory enthusiastic cheers. The meeting was addressed by J. M. Bishop and D. Wilnot.

It is gratifying to witness the spirit of enquiry and decorum which is exhibited at these meetings of the democracy. Standing for hours patiently in the sun, listening to speeches often upon dry and uninteresting subjects, shows a wish to investigate calmly and coolly the great national questions of the day, as becomes an intelligent people.

Read! Read!!

The following letter was handed to us for publication, and we hasten to present it to our readers.

It will be recollected, by those present at the political discussion, between Messrs. McCreary and Wharton of Wheeling, and Messrs. Lawrence and Glaston of this county, on Saturday the 6th of July, that Mr. Lawrence proposed to either of his opponents to unite with them in a letter to Mr. Clay, requesting his permission for Mr. Blair to publish any letter in his possession from Mr. Clay touching his agency in the election of John Quincy Adams, President of the United States, in 1824-5.

Mr. Wharton, driven to the wall in defence of the infamous coalition, and writing under the accumulation of testimony adduced in proof of the guilt of the great "embodiment," reluctantly agreed to unite with Mr. Lawrence in a letter to Mr. Clay.

The letter was accordingly written, properly directed, and mailed on the same evening of the discussion FOUR WEEKS HAVE ELAPSED, and not one single word from Mr. Clay in answer!!!

Does any reflecting mind want stronger evidence of the CRIMINAL conduct of Mr. Clay, in that most detestable conspiracy, by which the American people were defrauded out of their choice for President? Certainly not. Permission is asked of him to publish a letter said to have been written by him to Mr. Blair, and which, it is said, fully establishes his guilt. This he refuses. HE DARE NOT DO IT.

If Mr. Clay is innocent, and if there is no such letter in existence, or if there is, and it contains nothing implicating him, why, in the name of common honesty, does he not give permission to have it published, and thereby put to rest this charge? The truth is evident; he knows that letter condemns him "out of his own mouth."

Our word for it, Mr. Clay will never consent to have that letter published. We call the particular attention of Mr. Wharton, one of the signers to the following letter, and editor of the "Wheeling Times," to the fact that Henry Clay refuses to answer. Will the Times publish this letter, and inform his readers why Mr. Clay is silent upon a subject of so much importance? We shall see.

Here is the letter; AND FOUR WEEKS HAVE ELAPSED and no answer!

Copy of a Letter to Henry Clay.

WASHINGTON, O., July 6, 1844.

Hon. HENRY CLAY:

Dear Sir—This day in a political discussion, in this place, upon the subject of the election of John Q. Adams, President of the U. S., by the House of Representatives, in Congress, in February, 1825, and the appointment of yourself by Mr. Adams, as Secretary of State immediately thereafter, the undersigned mutually agreed to address this note to you, and respectfully request of you a letter, authorizing the publication of a certain letter, claimed by your opponents to be in the possession of Francis P. Blair and which they also claim fully establishes, from your own hand, the validity of the charge of corruption, bargain, &c., which they have brought against you. We hope you will immediately authorize Mr. Blair to make public that or any other evidence in his possession relating to the matter.

You will please direct any answer to J. E. Wharton of Wheeling, Va., and a copy of the same to William Lawrence, Washington, Guernsey county, Ohio.

We remain respectfully, yours, &c.
WILLIAM LAWRENCE.
J. E. WHARTON.

Hon. HENRY CLAY, near Lexington, Kentucky.

We certify that we have compared this copy with the original, and find it correct, and that we saw the same, (viz: original copy,) handed on the same evening it was written to the Post Master of this place, and the postage paid on the same.

GEORGE McLERAN,
SAMUEL WRIGHT.

Questions for Whig Meetings.

Didn't Henry Clay run away from the Senate for fear he should be called upon to vote for or against the Tariff of 1842?

Didn't he run away that he might claim to be on both sides of the question at the same time—free trade at the South, and High Tariff at the North?

Didn't he repose his interest in the hands of his successor in the Senate, Mr. Crittenden, and didn't he (Crittenden) oppose the Tariff bill, now a law, with so much bitterness that when he reluctantly voted for it at last, Mr. Choate, of Massachusetts, said he didn't thank him for his vote, after all his opposition to the bill?

Didn't eight of the eleven whig members of the House from Kentucky—all the partisans of Henry Clay—vote against the Tariff bill, now a law?

Is it safe to trust the Tariff in the hands of Clay after all these proofs of his enmity to it?

Did not Henry Clay say in his letter to Merriweather, or Bledsoe, that he was "bound in honor" to adhere to the duties of the compromise act—and is it not known that Clay regards the laws of honor as of the most binding character—and if he sticks to the duties of the compromise, and thereby obeys this law, must he not go for the repeal of the present tariff?—Lancaster Intelligencer.

WOOL.—Will not the United States Gazette be kind enough to refer to our paper of Tuesday last, and tell us how it happened that the Whigs of United States Senate voted against Mr. Wright's motion for a protection on wool, when all the democrats voted for it? Mr. Clayton informs us that Polk's election—Polk, who agreed at the instance of the wool growers, to place a protection upon wool—will "put a knife to the throat of every sheep in the country," and we want to know what is to be said now when it appears that in 1842, no less than twenty-one senatorial whigs voted against Mr. Wright's motion, on the declared ground that wool requires no protection. Here are their names: Archer, Barrow, Bates, Bayard, Berrien, Choate, Clayton, Conrad, Crafts, Crittenden, Dayton, Evans, Huntingdon, Mangum, Miller, Moorehead, Porter, Simmons, Sprague, Tallmadge, White—21.

The Delaware senators are included: Why does not Mr. Clayton talk to them about a massacre of the sheep?—Pennsylvania.

J. N. Sumner, Surgeon Dentist, WILL remain in Towanda for a few days and may be found at Mr. Cross', where he will be happy to wait on all who may need his professional services.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

It is a prevailing opinion among the enlightened Physicians of our country, that Cancer is a mass of living animalcule, which have taken up their abode in the human system. No matter how small, or how low in the scale of animated nature, the individual composing Cancer may be, they were so tenacious of existence, that the knife or the most powerful caustic, are the only means by which they can be removed.

When permitted to remain, they never fail to multiply and spread to neighboring parts, committing the most frightful depredations, until death comes to the relief of their victim.—Worms in children, may be considered somewhat analogous. If they are less fatal, they are infinitely more common; and if suffered to remain, produce consequences scarcely less alarming. If the testimony of medical writers is to be relied upon, they often produce mania, apoplexy, epilepsy, palsy, convulsions and many other diseases—equally dangerous, and often fatal. But here the parallel stops, Cancer, being one of the most obdurate diseases, with which physicians have to contend, while worms are easily dislodged by proper remedies.

MERRICK'S VERMIFUGE has proved one of the most valuable medicines ever offered to the public for destroying worms in children. Hundreds of cases might be enumerated, where it has produced the happiest results. It is a Syrup, and therefore easily administered to children. Price 25 cents per bottle.

THE POCAHONTAS PILL.

In the present age, when "Patent Medicines" are so numerous, and their properties so unobscuredly glorified by their respective proprietors, it becomes necessary for the public (to guard against imposition) to require some authentic evidence of their sanative properties. The Pocahontas Pill is not offered as an antidote for all the diseases to which flesh is heir. We merely propose to show, by the successive publication of certificates, voluntarily offered, that their present popularity is well founded; and that as a purgative medicine, they have proved pre-eminently beneficial. These Pills are compounded according to the rules of medical science, are entirely vegetable, and may be safely given to cleanse the stomach, purify the blood, remove inflammation, and correct the morbid secretions, without regard to age, sex or condition.

Certificates of Mr. Wm. Follmer, of Turbet, Northumberland county, Pa., says—"For some years past, I have been suffering from a severe and alarming disease of the liver. Several physicians had prescribed for me, and I had taken many articles highly recommended in the papers, without any benefit. About twelve months ago, I began using the Pocahontas Pills, and am happy to say, that in a few weeks I found my disease entirely removed; since which I have been free from cough and pain in the side, and consider my malady radically cured."

Price 25 cents per box. Agents for the sale of the above medicine in Bradford County:
