

The man who kept the boat house on the peninsula, we think his name was Gilbert, with his son and a son of the widow Oiler, were all drowned. The boat-house keeper and son about the night attempted to swim across the lake, but were swept down by the force current.

The steamboat Fulton we hear has gone ashore, a total wreck, at Sturgeon Point. Three men lost.

The Julia Palmer is commanded by J. W. Jones, formerly of the ill-fated Erie; her engine should hold good; she will probably weather the gale, as she has the reputation of being the best sea boat on the Lake. The Fulton is safe. The Julia Palmer has six hundred passengers on board.

THE SECOND ANNUAL ADDRESS. The members and friends of the Methodist Society of the Northern Pennsylvania Yearly conference of said society send Christian salutation to our Brethren:—We have been permitted to glorify in the manifestation of God's favor during another year; and we are desirous to glorify Him for the revelation of His mercy towards us in awakening preachers and bringing them into the Kingdom of our dear Son. At our recent annual conference were greatly re-visited by the cheerfulness derived from various sections of the church, and the Lord is doing wonders in the hearts of us, and from the testimony of our Brethren we are happy to learn that the spirit of Christian union continues to exist in the church, and we desire that it may be promoted and increased with the gospel among the friends of the Redeemer. We rejoice that our branch churches do not participate in the unchristian and unequalled sin of American slavery.

Mr. Wesley calls it, "the sum of all villainies, the vilest under the sun." We hope our Brethren will still continue to represent the meek and lowly Jesus in their prayers to the Father, and to humbly deprecate the wrath of a just and holy God so richly due to a guilty nation for having so long and so obstinately persisted in this sin of sinners.

Remember the responsibility of your station. God's peace is withheld for lack of knowledge, sinners are perishing for lack of knowledge, and God commands you to instruct his people in the way of life, to sound an alarm, and to warn the sinners of their danger. How are you employed at your station? on Zion's wall acting as sentinels to God's requirements, or are you pursuing worldly pursuits that you may secure an earthly inheritance?

Will you be called to give an account of your stewardship, and oh! beware lest the blood of sinners be required at your hands.—Will you in the laity, shall the minister be called to strive to promote your spiritual welfare, and advance our Master's cause? Will you by your influence, by your prayers, by your liberal donations and by every means whereby God may be glorified in the cause advanced? Finally, we again call on you for your support. And we pray that the God of all grace may abundantly bless and succeed the labors of both ministers and laity, and may we be brought to the full fruition of eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TIMOTHY TORRY.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills will be found one of the best medicines in the world for the cure of all diseases of the liver, because they expel from the body those morbid humors which, when deposited upon this important organ, are the cause of every variety of liver complaint. From four to six of the above named Indian Vegetable Pills, taken every night on going to bed, will in a short time given such manifest relief that no argument or persuasion will be necessary to induce a perseverance in their use until the liver is restored to a healthy action, and pain or distress of every kind is driven from the body.

For sale at the store of J. D. & E. D. Montanye, in Towanda, and by agents published in another column of this paper.

Caution.—As counterfeiters are abroad, avoid all stores of doubtful character, and be particular, in all cases, to ask for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.
