SEATING—Does not seem to have practised by the ancients. It is probably a modern invention...

FOR LADIES WITH HUSBANDS—Conceal from others any little discord or disunion that occurs between you and your husband.

Be you ever so conscious of superiority of judgment or talent, never let it appear to your husband.

I know not two female attractions so captivating to men as delicacy and modesty.

If possible, let your husband suppose you think him a good husband, and it will be a strong stimulus to his being so.

No attraction renders a woman so agreeable at all times to her husband as cheerfulness and good humor.

How particularly offensive it is to see a woman exercising authority over her husband, and say, "I will have it so."

THE THATS.—In thirty-two words, how many "thats" can be grammatically used? Answer, fourteen.

A NEGRO DIALOGUE—"I say, Baz, where dat comert ris at?"

THE FRENCHMAN IN LONDON.—A Frenchman, visiting London, very sagaciously remarked that he did not at all wonder at the spread of conservative principles.

SCIENCE is one great art conversation. He is not a fool who knows when to hold his tongue, and a person may gain credit sense, eloquence, wit, who merely says nothing to lessen the opinion which others have of those qualities in themselves.

WARBLES IN CATTLE.—A few applications of strong brine will at once destroy warbles in cattle, in whatever stage they may be found to exist.

CARRYING COWS.—Cows should be carried as often as horses, particularly when they are shedding their hair.

GAMING.—It is possible that a wise and good man may be prevailed on to game; but it is impossible that a professed gambler should be a wise and good man.—L'ateler.

DEFERRED SENSIBILITY.—A client one day burst into a flood of tears after he had heard the statement of his counsel, exclaiming, "I did not think I had suffered half so much until I had heard it this day."

CAUSE OF A DEFEAT.—The Charleston Mercury lays it down as a general truth—and on this point we agree with it—that the want of votes is the principal cause of defeat to gentlemen who aspire for office.

HAS NOT THE POWER.—The Supreme Court has decided that no power is vested in its jurisdiction to grant a habeas corpus for Mr. Dorr.
